

SHUTE SAVINGS BANK PASSES MILLION MARK

Doubles Its Deposits Inside of Eight Years—1811 to 1919

THIS YEAR 57 P. C. GAIN

Officials of Bank and City Proud of Big Financial Showing

On the twenty-ninth day of November—last Saturday—the Shute Savings Bank, at the close of the day's business, showed a deposit balance of over one million dollars, a record of which the city and county, as well as the bank officials, are naturally very proud.

The Shute Savings was reorganized nine years ago with deposits totalling a trifle over a half million dollars. The bank set its estimate of $800,000 for 15 years future, but to its surprise the $800,000 mark was made in less time than was anticipated, and by the last of the week the million mark in deposits was reached.

The high water mark reflects the material growth of the county and of Hillsboro, and is a matter of gratification to citizens who have made their home in the district.

President A. C. Shute states that the institution has over $600,000 loaned to Hillsboro and Washington County people and enterprises, and that the bank's policy has materially contributed to the growth and welfare of the section is without question.

The executive of the bank has been connected with the institution since its reorganization, and was with the old First National, and the American National, which succeeded it. Calvin Jack Jr., for many years Cashier, is too well known to need any introduction to Argus readers. I. T. McPheters, active Vice President, became a fixture with the banking house a few months ago, and the trio make a team in which the county seat takes a pride.

There are mighty few towns of Hillsboro's population which can point to a million dollar banking concern.

PUBLIC SALE

At Campbell's ranch, Scholls, on WEDNESDAY, DEC. 10, Having purchased the entire herd of pure-bred Jerseys from B. E. Crosby, I will offer for sale all of my grade cows and heifers, consisting of 16 cows in milk, and 8 heifers; also one pure-bred bull calf.

This is a high producing herd, and a record has been kept of each milking, so the cows are all known to be profitable producers. The heifers are all sired by a pure-bred bull and are from good cows.

Also 8 grade cows, Crosby herd. Lunch at noon. Sale begins immediately after. Lester Campbell, Owner. J. W. Hughes, Auctioneer.

For Sale—Five fresh cows, all good flow of milk. Grade Jerseys—Austin Sims, Sherwood, Ore., R. 4. Scholls phone. 40

The first masquerade dance will be held at Moose Hall, Saturday evening, Dec. 13. Do not overlook the time and place.

Complete line of Pyralin Ivory for Xmas gifts, at the Pharmacy.

John H. Humphreys, who recently returned from the Wenatchee country, where he was engaged in the apple harvest, suffered a partial paralytic stroke in Portland the other day, but is sufficiently recovered to visit Hillsboro. He has displayed some fine apples in the Argus window, which have excited considerable admiration. They were grown by Mark Bendan, in the Wenatchee—the district which had an apple harvest worth nearly fifteen millions in 1919.

Wanted: Beef cattle, hogs and sheep. Will pay best price for good stuff. Phone Beaverton 4 on line 6. Mail address, W. W. Mellor, Reedville, Oregon. Drop a post card. 39-39

D. C. Jolly, of Virginia Place, has a yard of six months' old pullets that are laying 12 dozen eggs per day. His pens have 230 hens, but the older ones are moulting, so it behooves the younger ones to get busy. A dozen of the output weighed 31 ounces—and a dozen per day at 75 cents per is not a bad income from the cacklers.

If you have milk cows, beef cattle, hogs, or sheep for sale, drop me a post card. Highest prices paid. P. O. address, Beaverton R. 2; Tel. Hillsboro 2BX1. —Albert Losli. 39-39

Robt. A. Reasoner and wife, of Oberlin, Kas., arrived Saturday for a visit with Mr. Reasoner's brother, D. B. Reasoner. The brothers are having a big reunion having been separated 36 years. After a visit here they will go south to Los Angeles, where Mr. Reasoner will visit another brother, Henry, who left here several years ago, wearing the championship belt as fisherman and several wild stripes as a crack-a-jack story teller.

W. E. Magill, interested in the Garden Tract Addition, a few years ago, was in the city Monday, on legal business. He is now practicing law in Portland.

Perkins now has his free air and water system installed—drive up and help yourself. You are welcome. 3-4 f

Geo. H. Wolf, the Beaverton transfer man, was in town Saturday, feeling mighty fine over the new highway into Portland.

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Why Not Make it a Christmas Present Worth Having For Your Wife, Your Son or Your Daughter?

One that will mean something to them during their whole life; one that they can have the satisfaction of watching it grow; one that will give your wife a feeling of independence, and a nest egg that she can depend on, regardless of your circumstances or what may happen to you; one that will give your son a better start in life than you had, and one that will get him in the systematic habit of saving small amounts, which will be worth more to him than the amount of money that he will receive; give your daughter the pleasure of having a fund of her own, and the satisfaction of knowing that she will have some money all her own to use as she wishes.

There is no way on earth, as sure, as safe, and that will pay as large dividends, for the amount of money invested, or that will give them as much pleasure and satisfaction for the money that it will cost you, as a certificate issued by The Western Loan and Building Co., which pays 16 per cent on the money invested, you put it in small amounts monthly, which will be no hardship on you, and your wife, your son, or your daughter will get it all back in a lump sum, and a little over two dollars for each one that you put in for them, enough to mean a great deal to them. To your son it may mean success in life to him instead of failure, as the first thousand is the one that is hard to get.

It takes less than 10 cents a day to give them a $1000.00; 20 cts., $2000.00; 50 cts., $5000.00. And when there is only one man in ten in the United States that ever has $2000.00 in their lives, you can see what it means to them.

You have the best security in the world for every dollar you put in for them. And the privileges that go with each Certificate are such that one can not possibly lose out, and are worth a good deal to them. There are nearly one hundred satisfied certificate holders in Hillsboro at the present time, holding certificates to the value of between two and three hundred thousand dollars.

Are you, your wife, your son, and your daughter going to have your share of the quarter of a million dollars that the Company will distribute in Hillsboro? If not, why not?

Besides paying you 16 per cent on your investment, every dollar that the Company receives in Washington County can be used to build homes in Hillsboro—you know whether they are needed or not!

For full particulars call me on the phone, and I will come to your home, and talk it over with you and your wife, or call at my office in the Washington Hotel.

F. M. Calef, Secretary and Treasurer Local Branch, Western Loan and Building Co. 39-41

JUDGE A. C. ARCHBOLD DIED SUNDAY MORNING

Pioneer of 1862, Ex-Co. Judge, and For Years in Business

FOUR SCORE YEARS AND 4

Veteran of Civil War and Was Judge Advocate in 1862

Judge Alston C. Archbold, a pioneer of Oregon since the latter part of 1862, when he came to Oregon as the result of broken down health, died at the family home on Third Street, between Main and Lincoln, Sunday morning, November 30, 1919. He was born in Virginia, August 28, 1835, the son of Edward and Rachel Archbold, the father being an attorney.

His early life was spent in Ohio, where, at the outbreak of the Civil War, he enlisted as a volunteer in B Company, 25th Volunteer Infantry. A year prior to the war he had been admitted to the bar and formed a partnership with his father. After enlistment his company was sent to Grafton, Virginia, and later he was in the Battle of Greenbrier, near Cheat Mountain. After the engagement he was made a Lieutenant in A Co., and shortly afterward, because of his legal training, was appointed Judge Advocate, after serving as Provost Marshal. Poor health forced him to leave the service, and in company with Jas. Steeh, a Portland pioneer, they came to Oregon in the Fall of 1862. He settled first at Centerville, but later came to Hillsboro, where he made his home for 57 years. He formed a partnership with the late Hon. W. D. Hare in the mercantile business which existed until Mr. Hare was appointed Collector at the Port of Astoria.

On August 20, 1865, he was married to Miss Frances Wilcox, daughter of Dr. Ralph Wilcox, pioneer of 1845. Mrs. Archbold died Jan. 20, 1913. Eight children were born to the union, four of whom were with the father when he died. The surviving children are: Mrs. Geo. Loeb, Lebanon; Mrs. E. C. Huntington and John A. Archbold, of Portland; Hugh, of Marion County; Alston Conway, at Antioch, Cal., now in a hospital convalescing from a severe illness; and Miss Bessie, employed by the Wilkes Abstract Co., Hillsboro. Ralph died when aged 23, and a daughter, Mrs. John Beagle, is deceased.

In 1866 Mr. Archbold was elected County Judge of Washington County, and held the office four years. He continued in the mercantile business in this city from the early sixties until 1885, when he sold his stock to Wehrung & Boscow, and embarked in the hardware business. He also farmed for several years and was at one time interested in a sawmill.

He was a man of exceptional ability, and well-informed. He always took an active interest in politics, and followed ideals rather than party. Of his immediate family he is survived by a sister, Mrs. J. C. Lamkin.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon, Rev. Walton Skipworth officiating. Interment was in the Masonic Cemetery, Undertaker Donelson directing.
