"I'll Tell the World" says the Good Judge

The man who doesn't chew this class of tobacco is not getting real satisfaction out of his chewing.

A small chew. It holds its rich taste. You don't have to take so many fresh chews. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

SOME SILVER

The Shute Savings Bank had some "count" the other day when a man brought in $1835 in silver for deposit. The money was all in dollars and halves, and as silver weighs about 50 pounds to the thousand dollars the gunny sack and grip contained about 92.75 lbs. of coin of the realm. In explanation of the peculiar deposit the man said that the money had been given him in payment of a mortgage and he said he thought he had better get it into the bank before someone else paid him a debt and he would have to requisition a dray to cart it to a depository. Cashier Cal Jack called in the entire bank force to help him make a count of the cartwheels, and he says this is the biggest deposit he ever received, considering the nature of the cash. A local minister who was present when the strange deposit was brought in hesitated to ask the depositor if he might have the gunny sack to take with him in the hopes that the story would suggest contributions of like character.
