THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor.

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

The chances are that Hillsboro will soon determine by popular vote whether or not the city has any civic pride. The Park question looms as a fine chance to tell the world that this is a live city, or a "dead one," as the returns indicate. Let us improve the only natural playground the city has and the only one on the West Side Highway adjoining the avenue of public travel.

While the Flu is not taking its human toll like it did a year ago, a few days of closing as a safety-first measure will not be amiss.

U. OF O. NOTES

Miriam Stockton spent the week-end at her home in Hillsboro.

Russell Morgan attended the formal dance given by the girls of Hendricks Hall last Friday evening in Osburn hotel.

Haskell Carter and Charley Deichman, O. A. C., visited friends on the campus over the week-end.

Florence Garrett was among a group of picnickers that spent last Sunday on the banks of the Willamette river.

Florence Garrett attended a matinee dance and dinner at the Delta Tau Delta house Saturday afternoon.

"Official---Willard Battery Service Station

Our batttery business has increased so that we have been obliged to increase our recharging capacity. We formerly were equipped to recharge 8 6 volt batteries at one time. We now can handle 40 6-volt batteries at one time and can increase this number 50 per cent by an expansive feature which we have in this new set.

We are now in a position to do your recharging in the shortest space of time possible. If your battery needs a quick charge we can put it on line which is charging at a high rate or if your battery needs slow charge, we can put it on a line which is charging at a low rate.

Entrust us with your battery business and we will guarantee satisfaction.
