Those who have already signified their intention to attend from this county are:

- Rev. O. P. Burris, Christian, Forest Grove; Rev. H. L. Bates, Congregational, Forest Grove; Rev. H. A. Deck, Congregational, Hillsboro; Rev. H. S. Wiley, Congregational, Beaverton; Rev. J. T. Hessler, Free Methodist, Hillsboro; Rev. W. E. Allen, Friends, Sherwood; and Rev. H. F. Gelvin, Presbyterian, Oreoc.

ED. WANN

Edgar D. Wann, of Wheeler, died Feb. 17, 1920, from an attack of pneumonia. He was well known in Hillsboro, where he resided for many years. He was born in Bureau Junction, Ill., July 20, 1874, and came to Oregon with his parents in 1877, living first near Reedville. Later he moved to Hillsboro, and this county was his home until he moved to Wheeler in 1914. He was married to Miss Mabel Mullen in 1901. He is survived by the wife and a son, George; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wann, of South Hillsboro; his twin sister, Mrs. Edith Morris, Portland, and brothers, Ralph, Thomas and Charles, and a sister, Mrs. W. C. Gifford, the latter of Beaverton.

The funeral takes place Friday at the Donelson & Bell Parlors, at 1:30, and interment will be in the local cemetery.

Wann was a universal favorite and his good nature and reliability made him many friends.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Farnham celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Feb. 15, at their home north of Hillsboro. The dining room was beautifully decorated with carnations. The wedding cake carried a big wedding bell of pink and white roses and 30 candles. A sumptuous dinner was served. Those present from abroad were Hugh Farnham, O. A. C.; Mrs. Dora Letsen, Mr. Letsen, Chas. Bayot, Miss Lillie Bayot, Jacqueline Bayot, Mrs. Lillie Miller, of Portland, the party coming Saturday and remaining over until Sunday evening. The presents were many and beautiful, among them being a gold wrist watch to Mrs. Farnham, presented by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Letsen. The party departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Farnham many returns of their anniversary day.

SCHNEIDER—GUTSCHMIDT

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gutschmidt, of near Phillips, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon, Feb. 14, when their daughter, Caroline, became the bride of John W. Schneider. Rev. E. Scheidt officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. The wedding march was played by Miss Thekla Scheidt. Miss Anne Schneider was bridesmaid and Edward Gutschmidt attended the groom. The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin and carried a bouquet of white carnations and fern. The bridesmaid wore pink silk and carried pink carnations.

After the ceremony, a bounteous dinner was served, and the evening was pleasantly spent in music and singing.

The happy young couple will make their home in Portland.
