

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor.

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

Senator Chamberlain has announced his candidacy to succeed himself in the United States senate, and he is being opposed by a number of democrats around Portland. He has generally been opposed by the same faction, and has been elected without their support. This time, however, they are uncovering, thus giving the Senator a chance to know who is fighting him. The Argus predicts that Mr. Chamberlain, who is 100 per cent. American, will go back to the Senate with flying colors. What he has done for the service men commends him to every thoughtful voter of whatsoever party, and what he has done as a statesman for the country, and for the Oregon country, are his best vouchers for a winning campaign. Oregon is fortunate in having a man of the Senator's capacity at Washington, and it is mighty hard for the Bourbon democrats and the stand-pat repubs to pull the wool over Oregon voters' eyes at an election.

FOR COUNTY CLERK

To the members of the Republican Party and the voters of Washington County:

Having filed a petition for nomination for the office of County Clerk I will say in seeking the nomination, I am not unmindful of the generous treatment and loyal support I have received in the past from the county of my birth and lifetime residence. In no sense am I demanding the nomination, but will certainly appreciate it if you desire to grant it.

H. A. Kuratli.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington.

Mary E. Eggleston, Plaintiff, vs. Herbert J. Eggleston, Defendant.

To Herbert J. Eggleston, the above named defendant:

In the Name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before Monday, the 15th day of April, 1920, and if you fail to so appear and answer or otherwise plead, then for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief asked for in her complaint, namely, for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and yourself, the defendant, and for the further decree awarding to the plaintiff, Mary E. Eggleston, the care, custody and education of Karoline Eggleston, Herbert J. Eggleston, Jr., and Howard W. Eggleston, and for such other relief as is meet and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof once a week for seven publications in the Hillsboro Argus, a newspaper of general circulation published in Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, pursuant to an order of the Honorable George R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled Court, duly made and entered the 3rd day of March, 1920.

Date of first publication, March 4, 1920.
Date of last publication April 15, 1920.

Henry E. McGinn,
Attorney for Plaintiff.
Office: Oregonian Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

You want your new car to be comfortable and mechanically dependable, as well as attractive in appearance. You want it to embody marks of distinction that will continually show evidence of your good taste and judgment—a car that will not only be admired, but that will bear up under the most severe tests.

These are only a few reasons why you will approve the new Lexington models. Every car that leaves the Lexington factory bears the unmistakable stamp of master workmanship and "built in" quality that characterizes Lexington Vehicles.

The Lexington recognizes no peer in abundance of power, efficiency of spring suspension, easy steering and economy in cost of operation and upkeep. Lexington owners enjoy the lasting satisfaction of full value received for every dollar invested.

March 1 came in with a little of both the characteristics of the lamb and the lion. The morning of the day was lamb-like, and by nightfall there was a wind and rain and by midnight it was spitting snow—in other words the lamb had lain down inside the lion. Just what this will mean to the prophet we don't begin to assume—but Oregon is "Take" anyway.
