JULIUS J. MEACHAM PASSES SUNDAY NIGHT

Was Veteran of Civil War and had Two Enlistments

WAS A VETERAN PYTHIAN

Had Been a Resident of This County Nearly Fifty Years

Julius J. Meacham, aged nearly eighty years, died at his home on Fir Street, East Fifth, Sunday evening, March 7, 1920, after an illness covering several years. He was born in Portage Co., Ohio, Sept. 17, 1840, and was married to Miss Martha Jackson in 1859. When the war broke out he enlisted in the Sixth Indiana Infantry as a Volunteer, and served in that body until March 11, 1865, when he was discharged that he might enlist in the Mississippi Marine Brigade. He served the remainder of the War in that organization, and received his discharge Jan. 24, 1865, at Vicksburg, Miss. He came to Oregon in 1870, and had been a resident of Washington County nearly 50 years, residing in Glencoe, at Mountindale, and then at Banks and Hillsboro. His first wife having passed away, he was married to Mrs. Isabelle Emnis, at Vancouver, Wash., Jan. 5, 1909, the widow and the following children surviving: Chas. E., Hillsboro; Thomas G., Banks, near Wilkesboro; Henry O., of above Mountindale; Mrs. Anna Evans, Portland; George E., of above Mountindale; William F., Portland; Mrs. Fred Emnis, of Banks, and Julius James, of Seattle.

For a number of years after his arrival in Washington County he was one of the active researchers of the Northern part of the county, and he gained a wide acquaintance thro his activities.

He was one of the charter members of Glencoe Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, of Glencoe, and later of North Plains. He was wearing his veteran jewel, given him by the order after 25 years of active membership.

Four of his children have passed—Clara, who was Mrs. Ben Smith, of old Glencoe; Lulu Ellen, who died in childhood in Indiana; Russell Alfred, who died at Mountindale in 1878, and Oren Ransom Meacham, a railway engineer, who died in Washington State in 1909.

Mr. Meacham had a host of friends in this section and he was noted for his intense friendship and his opposition to fraud of all kinds. His last years were invalidism, and he rarely went out after moving to the county seat, but he never lost his interest in public affairs.

The funeral took place Wednesday, and the service was held at the North Tualatin Plains Presbyterian Church, interment being in the church cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker Limber.

Rev. Jesse T. Anderson, Baptist minister here several years, was up from the Coos Bay section the last of the week, and paid Hillsboro a between-trains visit. He is now in charge of the steamer which carries Baptist work along the points of Coos Bay waters. Hillsboro was pleased to see him again.

J. W. Jackson, of North Plains, was in town the last of the week. He had just returned from Portland, where he went on a "wild goose chase." It appears that Clyde Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Berry left here for Montana, and when they arrived in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Berry lost track of Lincoln. It appears that they took separate trains and when Mr. and Mrs. Berry arrived at Spokane, they left the train and telegraphed here for information about Clyde. Mr. Jackson went to the city and after several hours of inquiry, he found that Clyde had taken another train, ten minutes from the time the Berrys had left, and beat them home a day—the Berrys losing the day they laid off in Spokane. As they had intended to go together the separating was a source of much anxiety.

JUDGE BAGLEY GIVES MR. HAWLEY DIVORCE

Court Looks Askance at Wife's Pleadings Amended Complaint

GIVES CHILD TO FATHER

Must Pay $250 Per Month For its Care Until Further Order

Judge Bagley Tuesday evening signed a decree giving Willard Hawley, of Oregon City, a divorce from the wife, who sued for separation, and the father gets the permanent custody of the 28 months old daughter. Pending possible appeal, however, Mrs. Marjorie Hawley gets the custody of the child and Mr. Hawley must pay $250 per month for its care and support.

Mrs. Hawley in her complaint asked for the custody of the daughter; wanted $150,000 alimony; and a decree of divorce for herself, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment.

The Court heard the case for two weeks, and over ten days was consumed by him in looking over the testimony in transcript after he had once heard it orally. He allows Mrs. Hawley $1,000 to apply on an appeal if she wishes it.

The Court evidently looked askance on Mrs. Hawley's charge of unnatural acts on the part of the husband.

In the final paragraph of his opinion Judge Bagley says:

"Their attitude and demeanor and the testimony, both oral and documentary, has so impressed the court that but no logical conclusion can be reached—the conclusion that the defendant is entitled to a decree of divorce based upon the false charges made in the amended complaint and in open court of attempting an unnatural crime. Nothing could be more cruel and inhuman than a false charge of that character made under the circumstances of this case.

"The decree of the court will, therefore, be that the defendant be divorced from the plaintiff upon the matters and things related in the supplemental cross complaint; that the permanent care, custody and control of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant be awarded to the defendant; that the temporary custody of the child, subject to the further order of the court, be awarded to the plaintiff, and that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $250 per month for the support and maintenance of said child until the further order of the court, and the court suggests, but does not order, that plaintiff be permitted to occupy the family residence until the final determination of this cause upon appeal, or, if not appealed, until the expiration of the time limited for appeal, and that if appealed, the defendant pay to the clerk of the court the sum of $1,000 for the purpose of defraying all of the expenses of transcript of testimony, transcript of the cause, abstract of record and briefs in behalf of plaintiff and filing and trial fees in the supreme court, and that said moneys be paid by the clerk of the court upon the presentation of bills for such services, certified to be correct by counsel for the plaintiff, and that the decree shall specifically provide that the minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant shall not be removed from the state of Oregon; that while said child is in the custody of either party the other party shall have the right at all reasonable and reasonable times to see and visit said child."
