

SHUTE PARK BOND ELECTION IN JUNE

City Will Hold Special Vote in About Sixty Days

FIFTEEN THOUSAND ASKED

Pavilion to be Constructed Giving Immense Floor Space

Following the agitation by the Hillsboro Club for a greater and better Hillsboro the city council Tuesday night submitted and passed a resolution calling for a special election early in June for the purpose of voting for or against a bond issue of $15,000 for the improvement of Shute Park. Architects have furnished the council with a draft of a pavilion with a floor space of 71x-117 feet, without a post in the floor. This entails a trussed roof, and a structure that can be closed with doors in case of inclement weather. The doors will be so constructed that in nice weather they can be elevated and hooked to the roof beams. The structure within itself, equipped with a stage with an oval background so as to furnish decent acoustic properties, is to be inside of an expense of $10,000. The remaining $5,000 is to be used in beautifying the grounds.

The proposal has the endorsement of almost every civic body in the city and it is predicted will carry by an overwhelming majority.

The proposed building will be so equipped that it can seat a vast assemblage, and this will mean that Hillsboro can be a convention city second to none in the Willamette Valley when the improvement is ready for occupancy. There is to be a concrete foundation, and the structure will be made of a permanent nature. The park will be made a credit to the city and every citizen should get to work to see that the measure carries. Under a charter provision it is impossible to hold an election sooner. Sixty days must elapse before election can be held.

Of a certainty there is complaint that spring isn't warming up very rapidly—but just think of those snowstorms and blizzards that raged in the Mississippi Valley and as far West as Montana the other day, and be thankful you are in Oregon.

Some rascal or rascals stole a Ford machine from G. G. Clarke, of Portland, Saturday night, and ran the machine to Hillsboro. There was no fan belt on the car and by the time it reached Hillsboro it was strictly on the blink, being as hot as a Hottentot. A tire was also flat and the car was stopped near the Hartcamp Garage, where Marshal Chief Larsen found it and had it stored until the insurance agent came out Monday to identify it. When the courts quit paroling for auto thefts there will be a cessation of these thefts.

HILLSBORO MAN IS COUNTY DIRECTOR

W. V. Bergen, of Shute Savings, to Head Church Drive

BIG MOVE SOON READY

Will be Assisted by Forest Grove and Oreno Men

W. V. Bergen, of Hillsboro, has been appointed campaign director for Washington County for the united simultaneous campaign under the direction of the Interchurch World Movement, which will run from April 25 to May 2. Denominational county directors, for the denominations participating in the campaign, have been partly appointed, as follows: Baptist New World Movement, Walter P. Dyke, Forest Grove; Christian Missionary Convention, Dr. Wm. Semons, Forest Grove; Presbyterian New Era Movement, Rev. Harry F. Gelvin, Oreno.

The drive plans call for a large organization in this county, including committees from each denomination under the direction of the denominational campaign directors, and a citizens' committee, headed by the united campaign director.

The denominational and Interchurch quotas for the county have not yet been announced. They are to be apportioned from the total of $336,777.572, which comprises all denominational and Interchurch askings for 1920. The Interchurch receipts, above campaign expenses, are to be prorated among the denominations. The askings are all based on budgets which were arrived at upon information secured by the national and foreign surveys of the Interchurch World Movement.

DECREE FOR GOODINS

Judge Geo. R. Bagley the past week handed down a decree giving Wm. A. Goodin and wife a tract of land containing over 15 acres, which is a part of the Schofield place, between here and Cornelius. When Mr. Schofield died he left a will giving Mrs. Goodin the home place, but neglected to include this tract. The Goodins brot suit averring that this tract was to have been given the wife in a will and this was one of the inducements which led them to go on the farm. They were to pay an annuity to Mr. Schofield during his life, and if he died prior to Mrs. Schofield, then the annuity was to be paid her during the rest of her life. Beneficiaries under the will, claimed that it should not go to Mrs. Goodin. The case occupied the court several days some weeks ago. The land is valuable and the ranch lays alongside the state highway.

CANNERY INCORPORATES

The Ray-Maling Co., Inc., filed papers with the County Clerk, this week. H. W. Ray, B. E. Maling and C. F. Noakes are the incorporators and $100,000 in stock will be the capital of the new company. The incorporation files its purpose to do a general canning and preserving business, buy and sell realty, and conduct a general business in this county and state, every state in the union, and with corporations of any other country.

The new cannery is to be the realty holding of the new firm, and while it is not made public it is expected that some of the stock will be sold locally.

CHAS. WEDBERG

Chas. Wedberg, died at his home near West Timber, last week. His body was found April 1 in his ranch home. He had lived on his homestead for 36 years. He was a bachelor, and was a native of Sweden, born in 1849. The remains were brot to Hillsboro, and the funeral was held Monday, interment being in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Coroner Limber held an investigation and found that death was due to natural causes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crabtree, of beyond Laurel, were city callers Saturday. F. M. says that so far as he can determine his fruit trees did not at all suffer from the heavy freeze of the winter's season.

It is remarkable how weather legends survive even after they have many times proved more than unworthy of credence. The old saying that a wet Easter Sunday means seven more to follow just like, probably is one of the best known of the fallacies carried by people generation after generation. And yet one rainy Easter a few years ago was followed by six Sundays of sunshine. This year's Easter was cloudy, but here in the valley there was no rains to mar the day—and those inclined to follow legends are at a loss to know just what kind of weather may follow. In Oregon we may expect some rain on Sunday, particularly in the Spring of the year—but seven of them—say it not.

Miss Jane C. Allen, state advisory nurse and organizer of public health nursing for the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, left Saturday, April 3, for Atlanta, Georgia, to attend the meeting of the American Nurses' Association; the National Organization of Public Health Nurses and the National League of Nursing Education, which will be held jointly April 9 to 17 inclusively. Miss Allen will also attend the meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association to be held in St. Louis beginning April 22. At these conventions Miss Allen will represent the State Board of Health, the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, the Red Cross and the Oregon State Graduate Nurses' Association. Miss Allen is well known here and was present at the budget meeting in January.

COURT HOUSE BUILDER DIED LAST FRIDAY

Thomas H. Elliott, who Built First Brick for County Passes

BORN AT GLENCOE, ORE.

Was Son of Pioneer Contractor, Builder and Mason

Thomas H. Elliott, a son of the late Samuel Elliott, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Elliott, between Phillips and Holbrook, Friday, April 2, 1920, after being in ill health for several months. Mr. Elliott went to the home of his mother for a short visit and was taken worse soon after arriving. He was born at old Glencoe, this county, in December, 1856, and learned the trade of masonry and building in his youth, his father before him being a contractor and builder.

Thos. Elliott built the first brick court house in Hillsboro, he and his father having been associated together in the contract. For many years he has conducted his business and trade in Portland. He is survived by his wife, Adella Quick Elliott and two children, Thos., of Portland, a civil engineer, and a daughter, Mrs. Marie Elliott Whitten, of Portland. Of his immediate family he is survived by his mother, Mary Elliott; three brothers, Ladd Elliott, of Yamhill; Wm. Elliott, a Portland contractor, and Sherman Elliott, Portland, and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Wirtz, Portland, and Mrs. C. W. Redmond, of Hillsboro.

The funeral took place Monday from the Hillsboro M. E. Church and interment was in the Masonic Cemetery, in the family plot.

A FINE PLANT

Too few people realize the magnitude of the Oregon Monument Works plant, on Main, between Third and Fourth. A visit to the place today discloses a new shipment of granite which has arrived, and the display equals and eclipses many of the Portland marble works. Mr. Lewis is equipped to turn out monuments which are works of art, and his workmen can hold their own with any of the marble cutters of the Northwest. He keeps two men at work with his power machines and the place is a busy one. The industry is growing each year, and is a credit to the county.

Mr. Lewis now has a $10,000 stock on his floors and people interested should see him before going elsewhere.

H. L. Flint, of Scholls, was greeting his friends in the city Monday.

Geo. L. Stevens, of Portland, was out the last of the week, the guest of friends.

M. N. Bonham, the veteran school master, was in the city from south of the river Saturday.

B. A. Mitchell, of Oreno, with the Oregon Nursery, was a Hillsboro caller the last of the week.

Miss Eva Pitman, pianist, will take pupils, for piano instruction, starting April 17. For particulars phone 385, Hillsboro. 3-6

J. C. Wilson, of Oreno, was up to the city Saturday. Jake says he had a fine time in California, but somehow he was glad to get back to Oregon, after all.

Next Sunday at the 11 a. m. service at the Cong. Church, Mayor Wall, will be the four-minute man, stressing the importance of the school budget meeting to be held Friday, April 16, and its relation to the future of the educational institutions of our city.

Chas. Hitchcock, of Scholls, was greeting friends in the city Monday. Chas. says he believes the state should enter into the manufacture of explosives so that farmers desiring to clear land and counties wanting powder for rock quarries could get it within a decent range of prices. He wants the "pen" to do the work.

Dr. L. W. Hyde returned Monday from Bridger, near the Wyoming line, where he attended the bedside of his father, who was critically ill at his arrival. He reports Mr. Hyde Sr. as improving altho not out of danger. Dr. Hyde says that he experienced some very bad weather on his trip and states that when he emerged into the Willamette Valley he felt that he was getting back to the only county.
