says the Good Judge

You get a whole lot more satisfaction from a little of the Real Tobacco Chew than you ever got from the old kind.

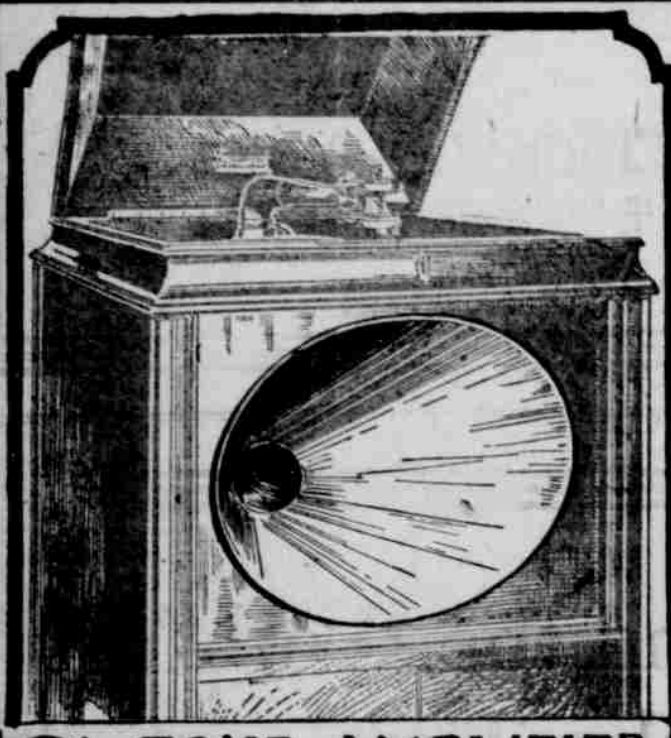

The good, rich tobacco taste lasts so much longer. You don't need a fresh chew so often. That's why it costs you less.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

SPRING GIVES INITIAL PERFECT DAY SUNDAY

Hundreds of Motorists Out and Highway was Mass of Machines

FIGURED 2,000 CARS OUT

Buds Bursting and "Green Getting Back Into Trees"

Sunday brought the first real Spring day with balmy sunshine and an Italian sky. The day was perfect with no chill in the air, and the "gray diggers" came out in numbers. You could see them flitting their bushy tails at every jump along the fence rows, and on fallen trees, and the entire family was out—Grandma and Grandpa Squirrel, Pa and Ma Squirrel, and the whole Squirrel family. And this, also, applied to the genus homo, for the family which remained in doors was out of luck—and, incidentally, it was a lucky day, for few remained inside.

It is estimated that at least 2,000 cars rolled over the highway between here and Portland. It was just one procession coming and going between here and the Rose City. Hundreds of Portlanders who have tired of the Columbia River trip and the Rex-Tigard run, made their first visit over the Tualatin Valley Highway, making Hillsboro and Forest Grove. They were camped along the road, a number camped in Shute Park, and it was gala day all along the line. Owing to the congestion the best a machine could do on the great white way was about sixteen miles per hour, but no one cared to get up to the speed limit.

It was one first Sunday after Easter that will carry with it memories to thousands of Oregonians—and it was the harbinger of the days when we'll all get into the stream again at Rippling Waters and the Big Bend. Get that bathing suit out and give it the once over. Hunt up that fishing tackle; get that camp outfit ready—for it isn't going to be long until you'll get the smell of the woods into your nostrils, and be laying yourselves in the limpid waters of that stream named after Old Joe Gales.
