POST TO GET RIFLES

The War Department is now engaged on plans for the distribution this year of about 100,000 army rifles to the posts of the American Legion throughout the country. Provision was made for the distribution of these rifles, valued at about $2,000,000, by legislation recently enacted by the Congress.

In addition to the loan of rifles, the bill provides for the sale to posts of The American Legion of "blank ammunition in suitable amounts for said rifles" and further specifies that the rifles be "obsolete or condemned army rifles" and that the number distributed shall not "exceed ten such rifles to any one post."

The posts of The American Legion requested these obsolete rifles for use "in connection with the funeral ceremonies of deceased soldiers, sailors and marines and for other post ceremonial purposes," the uses to which the rifles are to be put having been included in the bill. The rifles will be stripped of bayonets and other appurtenances, as was done in the loan by the Government of obsolete rifles to the high school cadets in Washington.

No distribution will be made until some system for handling the loan is devised.

BADLY MIXED

A guy says: I married a widow with a grown up daughter. My father visited our house very often and fell in love with my step-daughter and married her. So my father became my son-in-law and my step-daughter my mother, because she is my father's wife. Soon after, my wife had a son. He is my father's brother-in-law and my uncle, for he is a brother of my step-mother, my father's wife, my step-daughter. My step-daughter also had a son. He is, of course, my brother and also my grandson, for he is the son of my daughter. My wife is my grandmother because she is my mother's mother. I am my wife's husband and grandson at the same time, and as the husband of a person's grandmother is his grandfather, I am my own grandfather.

BOY SCOUTS

Dr. Rossman has been giving the Scouts marching drills lately, in preparation for this summer.

Dr. Helms gave the Scouts a lesson in bandaging. This will probably prove useful this summer when the scouts go on hikes.

Plans are under way for a show to be given by the Scouts to raise money to keep them going.

Homer Deek has been elected yell leader. Kenneth Linklater elected bugler.

"FIGHTING THE SCHOOL BOOK TRUST"

Every six years the people in Oregon are "held up" by the School Book Trust. A wholesale change of school books is made, parents are fleeced "in the name of education" and over one million dollars fill the coffers of the School Book gang. The average cost per pupil, grade and high school, for new school books since last September has been about $5 each.

The school census of Washington County for 1919 was 8,289—times $5 each. The school census of Oregon for 1919 was 207,158—times $5 or $1,035,790 for new books. This is not all, some of the new books are not as good as the old ones.

As a school teacher of Washington County for over 18 years, I say "Knock out this school book graft" and save a million dollars for Oregon children.

Yours respectfully,
Earl E. Fisher.
Candidate for Representative.
