

The strike in the Portland switch yards was felt in Hillsboro to some extent, because of a failure to move lumber, mill feed, and many other things, but the auto truck was to the rescue and all shipments brought to town came via the gasoline route. The highway made this possible, but if the strike had come a year ago, or we had no highway, Hillsboro would have been in a pretty muddle.

LOGAN TIPS IN COURT

Loganberry tips figured in court this week in a decision by Judge Geo. R. Bagley wherein W. A. Firmin, a renter of the A. B. Northey place, near Gaston, in 1919, was given a judgment for $1250 for tips removed from the Northey ranch by Northey himself. Firmin had rented the tract from Northey and transplanted some tips from another place he had rented. Northey went on the place while the lease was yet in vogue, and removed 8,500 of the tips, selling them to the Oregon Nursery for $650 per M. Firmin brought suit to recover $150 per M., or a total of $1275. Northey fought the case, alleging the tips were on his place and belonged to him. Firmin's contention was that he had planted the tips in rows for nursery stock, and that they were his under the law. The case was filed last October, and a jury was waived by stipulation. It was also stipulated that the Oregon Nursery Co. should pay the $65 per M. into the Court, awaiting the decision, and the money was to go to the winner. Judge Bagley this week decided that Mr. Firmin was entitled to recover, and he is to get $150 per thousand for the tips that are meaning so much to fruit growers in the valley.

Vivian Tomlin has been granted divorce from Jas. Tomlin. Thos. Shaw received a decree of divorce from Lettie Shaw. Pearl Galloway was given a divorce from J. L. Galloway, custody of a minor child and $25 per month alimony for the child's support. Galloway brought the suit, but the court held the wife entitled to the deer.

Leonard Brown has just finished putting his car into a new body and new wheels and he now has a classy looking affair—and one that can go the route. It looks like the real thing. The work was all done by Leonard and his brothers, and is a piece of art work which they can well be proud.

O. G. Bretz and wife have moved to Forest Grove for temporary residence, and are living in their Pacific Avenue property.

The Misses Flora and Elsie LeBeau, of below Scholls, have been sufferers from the prevalent siege of lagrippe.

Mrs. Henry Duyck, of Roy, was a city caller Tuesday.

J. E. Zwicky and C. Beglinger, of Newton, were in the city yesterday. Beglinger is just getting around, but is still unable to do much. His broken leg is mending slowly.

A. E. Bailey, of Laurel, states that his sister, Mrs. R. E. Neighbor, writes from the section of Alberta in which she lives, still had 18 inches of snow—and the family is thinking seriously about getting back to Oregon some of these days.

The case of John Gay against Wesley Gregory, of Aloha, suit for damages as the result of a cutting affray, was called in circuit court yesterday, but was continued, owing to the fact that Gay wanted to get his parents here as witnesses. At present they are in the Canadian country, and the trial will be called when they are down to the States.

Mrs. Nira Catching, well known here in the early days, died March 7, 1920, in Southern California. She was the daughter of Peter and Rachel Smith, and was born in Washington County, Oregon, Oct. 16, 1852. She married J. R. Catching, Dec. 25, 1872. She is survived by her husband and three sons, all of California. Two brothers survive—T. B. Smith, of Turner, Ore., and John A. Smith, of Reno, Nevada.

Saving versus Waste

An Oldsmobile Economy Truck, loaded to capacity, pays a profit every inch of the way. It saves money by reason of its speed, light weight, and dependable power.

The dead weight of any big truck is out of proportion to the average load carried. A big truck, half loaded, is a useless expense. The big investment, the excess power, the high upkeep cost—all these are uncalled for.

The Oldsmobile Economy Truck is adaptable to any business, city, or country. It is the unquestioned leader in the light haulage field. It is built and powered to the average load with its 4-cylinder, valve-in-head motor; internal gear drive; complete electrical system; deep channel frame; 35 x 5 pneumatic cord tires all 'round; extra long, flexible, semi-elliptic springs.

Complete in every detail, with express body and cab, $1,350; chassis with steel cab, $1,295; chassis with dash and windshield (no seat), $1,250. All prices F. O. B. Lansing.

The Most Welcome Tire That Ever Came to Market

Men Who Appreciate Superlative Values Prefer The Brunswick

In every great tire factory, the chief question is: "How much can we give for the money?" And the product depends on the policy adopted.

Every man who has become acquainted with Brunswick Tires knows that Brunswick standards are again evident. This famous concern—noted as a leader in every line it entered since 1845—has once more proved that its policy is right.

A perfect tire is simply a matter of knowledge and standards and skill. No secrets nor patents prevent making an ideal tire.

But standards come first. For in tire making there is vast room for skimping, for subtle economies, for hidden shortcomings. Makers without the highest standards don't build high-grade tires.

The Brunswick organization of tire makers includes a brilliant staff of technical experts. Not a man among them has spent less than 20 years in handling rubber.

Each is a master of his craft. And the new ideas they bring to the attention of Brunswick directors receive sincere consideration.

Every proved betterment is adopted unanimously.

The Brunswick Tire is a combination of acknowledged features—plus Brunswick standards of manufacture.

The result is a super-tire, the like of which you have never known before. The kind of a tire you will gladly join in welcoming.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires.

Try ONE Brunswick. We promise a surprise. And we feel certain that you will want ALL Brunswicks.

Then good tires will have a new meaning to you.
