

TWO O. A. C. BABIES

Corvallis, April 26.—Arnold Kephart is the most popular young man at the college. This is proven by the fact that he may be seen each day with a different crowd. Arnold is the 13 months boy which has just moved into the practice house. He is the son of Mrs. Olga Kephart, a student of the college. Arnold is the second baby to be admitted to the practice house, the other one is Patsy, who is nearly 23 months old. The plan of having the two babies is to keep each other company and to give more experience to the girls taking this course. Patsy was the first baby to become a member of the practice house in a western institution and Arnold is the first man to have this honor.

A Word to the Wise—Before you put your money into an investment, you investigate mightily carefully its dividend-paying possibilities.

Careful buyers of quality goods do the same thing. Hartford and Thermoid Tires pay big dividends to their purchasers.

Dividends in luxury, in the way their resilient buoyancy smooths out rough stretches of road; dividends in freedom from the annoyance of frequent punctures and blow outs, through their tough, sturdy construction; dividends in the mileage they return for each dollar of their cost.
