Every day you are advised through the press of thousands of dollars worth of which are stolen or burned, that are in the hands of the general public.

AS a banking institution we believe that we should assume the responsibility of assisting and protecting this community toward the safe keeping of this class of security. -:- Beginning May 1, 1920, for the convenience of depositors, we will issue a safe keeping receipt for Liberty Bonds, any issue; Victory Notes and War Savings Stamps, at par and without charge in the form of a savings account. -:- These Bonds or War Savings Stamps to be credited to the savings account but the deposit so made will be paid on demand, in bonds of the same issue as deposited.

Deposits of Liberty Bonds, Victory Notes or War Savings Stamps, shall be accepted for redelivery, and collection and credit of principal and interest at maturity as provided for in Bonds. This means that we assume all the risk, of fire and theft, in connection with your Bonds.

Whether you are now a customer of this bank, or not, we will be glad to have you call and investigate our plan of handling these securities.
