

HILLSBORO, OREGON, JULY 1, 1920.

LEAGUE GAME EVEN IF 'T WAS LOSI

Witness Real Thriller on Grounds Last Sunday

SCORE ONE TO NOTHING

Pitchers' Battle All the Way
Thro; Lucky Hit Wins

Washington County fans saw a regular league game of baseball at the Hillsboro diamond last Sunday and the nine innings were a real treat even if Hillsboro did lose by a fluke—a lucky hit in the ninth inning by an Ironworks Hornby, shortstop, putting the ball over the fence at a time when it looked like a ten inning affair. The score stood 0 to 0 when Hornby connected with the ball—and there were two outs at that. Pretty lucky, at that. Gray, on the mound for Hillsboro, struck out 11 men and allowed but six scattering hits. Ellis, the opposing pitcher, struck out but seven, but was a little more stingy with his hits, the H. A. L.'s getting but four off his delivery. The fans were on their toes all thro the game and it was decidedly the best nine inning affair seen here this year, and was good enough to have graced the Vaughn St. big league grounds. Baker caught for Hillsboro. Polfey, the new first baseman, looks good—he and Burkhalter scored two hits each off Ellis.

The lineup:
 Gray pitcher
 Baker catcher
 Polfey 1b
 Koppel 2b
 McCurdy 3b

E. C. and A. C. Mulloy, of Laurel, were city callers the last of the week.

Grab this bargain—Chalmers' touring car for $300. Suitable terms.—D. Corwin.

J. J. Korath, of Phillips, visited with his sons here the first of the week.

Nelt Hansen, of near Bethany, was up to the city Saturday, greeting friends.

John Engledinger, of Portland, was out the last of the week, visiting the old home town.

C. Sorenson, of near Reedville, was an Argus caller Monday morning, while up on probate affairs.

J. J. Crowley and Emma Hawn were married in Hillsboro, June 28, 1920, Rev. Guy R. Stover, of the United Evangelical Church, officiating.

Ford for sale: In first-class condition; newly painted; tires practically new. $425 for quick sale.—F. S. Olsen, Hillsboro, Oregon, 1615 Railroad Street, at Fifth. 15-17

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crabtree, of Laurel, were in town the last of the week. Frank has one of the best views in the county looking from his home on the hill beyond Laurel.

Mrs. Robt. Hailey, of Sherman County, was in the city the last of the week, a guest of Mrs. John Connell. Mrs. Hailey will be remembered, as formerly Miss Trelia Ford, of this city.

Hal Taylor has bought the De-Fees cottage on Sixth St., just south of Washington. He will move it back on the lot a few feet and put on a neat front verandah. He expects to occupy the home about August 20.

The following are the chairmen for the big State Chamber of Commerce drive for a bigger and better Oregon—Hillsboro, Chas. E. Wells; Forest Grove, L. M. Graham; Banks, Paul Robinson; Gaston, T. E. Armstrong.

Want to rent farm with 10 acres or more under plow; have my own equipment, and can take possession this Fall. Will pay cash rental or rent on shares. Best of references. Address, sealed envelope only, "Farmer," Care 908 Sixth Street, Hillsboro, Oregon. 15-18

The old court house structure—built away back in the fifties and now doing penance in the commercial world—on Main St., long looking down on the street like a blind man, has been given attention by the agent in charge. The upper window openings, long since void of windows, have been closed with lumber als clapping and the front painted. The improvement helps the eye for the old front was an eyesore by people passing through the city as well as to those who daily had to face its "mug." Chas. Shorey did the work, and like Ben Abou one and all rise up to call him blessed, even if he did get paid for it.

HILLSBORO GETTING READY FOR JULY 4TH

Greatest List of Attractions Ever
Scheduled for the Event

PORTLANDERS WILL COME

Highway Means Easy Travel to
Fresh Air and a Big Time

Final arrangements are well near completion for Hillsboro's mammoth Fourth of July celebration and July 3, 4 and 5 will witness the finest effort ever attempted in the old county seat. The eagle will scream for three successive days. This year the celebration breaks Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Saturday will be market day, anyway, for hundreds from the outside districts and while the first day's crowd is never large, yet this time a larger attendance than usual is anticipated.

Chairman Phelps is devoting his entire time to the celebration and he is getting up a three days card that will be a surprise in many ways.

Many people from abroad write that they are coming home for the event, and Portland people who were former residents of this city will come in great numbers, the highway being the popular means of travel these days.

Graves Ladies' Band of forty pieces will furnish the music, and the Scottish Bag Pipe Band will be a novelty. The Scottish pipers will be out in full-dress Scottish costume and as the organization has a reputation for classy music the "kilties" will be popular with their auditors.

There will be all kinds of attractions for young and old and there will be nothing lacking to make this the greatest celebration of history so far as the county is concerned.

$1,000 Fireworks Display

Contracts are let for a fireworks display that costs $1,000, and no city in Oregon will have anything like it. If you have never before remained to see the fireworks—be sure and stay this time for there are real thrillers. Last year all proclaimed them the finest of the fine, but this year they will have a better one by 100 per cent. If you must go home to the country—go and come back, for you'll miss a real treat if you stay away.

Triple Drop Balloon Ascension

Joe LeStrange, the celebrated balloonist of Seattle, will be here each day at 1:30 p. m., and give the crowd thrillers in the newest sensation in balloon ascensions, requiring an ascension of approximately 3500 feet. There will be three distinct parachute drops, one after the other, from each ascension, and it is said to be one of the most beautiful aerial stunts ever witnessed.

Aeroplanes

Passenger carrying and exhibition planes will be here. There will be an exhibition flight each afternoon of the three days and an illuminated flight each of the three evenings, Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The aeroplane program is under the management of the Washington, Oregon and Idaho Aviation Company, and they will carry passengers from the aviation field adjoining the park. Here will be an opportunity to go up and see how it feels to be "bird-people." This company is reliable, and here is your chance.

Globe Rolling Free Act

This aerial stunt consists of spiral globe rolling on a see-saw board on the "stair of death." It is a thriller and the operator flirts with old King Skeleton every afternoon and every evening each of the three days, 2:30 and 7:30.

Baseball

Saturday's game will be Washington County's tournament game between Banks and Reedville, at 3 o'clock p. m. Sunday's game will be played at 2:30. Hillsboro will play the Multnomah Guards—an intercity league game. The winner takes a purse of $100.

Monday's game at 3 o'clock will be between Hillsboro and Saturday's winner for a purse of $100.

Baseball games this year are under the management of the Hillsboro Post American Legion, and will be held in the ball park adjoining the celebration grounds and there will be an admission charge which goes to the Legion boys. The American Legion is also arranging a boxing bout to follow the ball game on Monday afternoon. Billy Macot will be the principal drawing card, and there

John H. Dorland, of Shady Brook, was a Hillsboro caller Saturday.

For sale: Registered Holstein bull calf, 4 weeks old June 16.—A. Stoller, Portland, Oregon, R. 2. 15-17

Geo. Zimmerman, of above North Plains, was over to the city the last of the week. Geo. says that all farmers are up to their necks in haying these days.

Taken up: Bay horse, about 900 lbs. Owner may have same by paying for keep and this adv.—W. M. Walker, Laurel, R. 1. Phone Scholls 15 Line 13. 15-17

Will M. Fishback, of Salem, where he is in the Loganberry and nursery business, was down to Hillsboro, Sunday, a guest of the S. J. Galloways and Rev. Fishback, his brother.

John Nyberg, the Tualatin onion raiser, was up to Hillsboro Wednesday, looking as fit as a fighter. John says that Tualatin is coming thro with a bumper crop all along the line this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Carzes and family, of Seattle, are guests at the C. Reese home this week, having arrived in from Portland, where Mr. Carzes attended the Shrine festivities and Rose Carnival. Carzes is a restaurant man of the Sound city and Mrs. Carzes is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reese.

For Sale—Registered Jersey bull, old enough for Fall service. Sired by Pogis 99th, famous sire owned by Wm. Behrman; fine type. Also vegetable wagon at a bargain.—Jos. Werre, 2 1/2 mdes southwest of Hillsboro, across the Jackson Bottom bridge; Hillsboro, R. 2. 15-17

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Stockdale, of Bloomington, Ill., were here the last of the week, visiting Jas. Hoy and wife, of Fifth Street, between Washington and Baseline. The gentlemen knew each other back in Illinois 40 years ago. Mr. Stockdale came West to meet with the Shriners and he thinks there is no place like Oregon.

John H. Stevenson, of Portland, son of R. O. Stevenson, of Forest Grove, north, was one of the delegates to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco, this week. He was selected chairman of the Oregon delegation. John H. is one of Portland's enterprising young attorneys and is making good in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Phillips, who recently sold their ranch up near Cornelius, started for Spokane in their machine Saturday, going through via Seattle. They expected to take several days making the trip and camp along the road. They go over the Stampede tunnel pass, and after making several round trips maintain that this route is better than the Columbia River valley.

Ernest Friday, of Plush, Lake county, Oregon, called on his brother-in-law, Ed Luce, last Friday. Mr. Friday was accompanied by his wife who was formerly Helen Luce. They had been taking in the Shrine Convention. Mr. Friday has extensive holdings in Lake county and reports favorable crop conditions. Sid Luce, of Plush, was reported as carrying on as usual—improving his ranch and exterminating coyotes and wild cats between times.

Thos. Connell, of East Wisconsin, near the Green Bay country, was here the last of the week, a guest of his cousins, Thos. and John Conpell and Mrs. W. D. Wood. He came West with the Shriners, and says that he likes Oregon better every time he visits the state. The Messrs. Connell showed him all over the county, and he went away with the knowledge that he saw the best part of Oregon when he visited Washington County.

Ernest C. Brown, now working for the Delta, was a pharmacist in a Hillsboro drugstore years before there was a brick business building in the city. As E. C. puts it, "when I worked at the old Eagleton drug store, where the Hillsboro National stands, there was but one brick in the town, and that was Uncle Henry Wehrung's milk and fruit house."

The mails have been crowded the last week with letters directed to Sam Kozer, Secretary of State, and enclosing that necessary twenty-five cents for a driver's license for automobiles. Every person driving must have one of these little permits. The blank applications contain the driver's age, whether or not he or she is maimed, and the term of experience at the wheel of the gas wagon.

WARM WAVE VISITS WESTERN OREGON

Old Sol Withers the Aphis and Shoots Grain Skyward

SEASON FOR STRAW HATS

Equinoctial Storm Failed to Materialize and All's Well

Washington County received its first touch of summer beginning with last Saturday, and the warm wave kept things going on the torrid firing line ever since. Farmers are gleeful because it spelled good hay weather; because the genus aphis turned over on his back and gasped his last breath; because the warmth has been sending the grain skyward; because vegetables sat up and took notice that it was time to hustle as Fair time is coming along in a month or so.

Old straw hats of the vintage of 1915 have been resurrected and are worn with all possible eclat and summer suits have been donned by those who feel financially able, and where not, citizens have been discarding the coat and getting along with a vest as a chest protector.

Ice cream parlors are feeling good over the business activity in their line; sellers of suits and light weight clothing are doing a better business than usual—while the man who "knows" how good Old King Gambrinus was when he reigned harks back to the days when Old Man Prohibition was a stranger to Oregon.

Even the railroad men are pleased—except, of course, the boys on the head end. Follett is kicking because the engine cab is too hot, but he says the old bird they call the locomotive steams up a little better, so there is some compensation.

There are thousands of acres of hay down, and the haymakers are perspiring like "niggers" at election—but it all goes in a summer's day—and we're all glad it has "come."

SALES REPORTED

The Washington County Realty Co. reports the following sales and transfers for the past week:

The C. C. Defrees residence on 6th St. to W. H. Taylor. Mr. Defrees is building a new home on the Heidel tract. Mr. Taylor will do extensive improvements on the property purchased from Mr. Defrees.

The Z. N. Seely 5 acre tract to Ed. Smith, of Portland, who will engage in the rabbit industry exclusively.

L. O. McCoy's 20 acre ranch at Farmington to Wm. Price, taking in part payment residence of Mr. Price.

Thirty acre ranch of S. E. Olsen, near Farmington, to Sam Ware. Mr. Olsen is now retiring from farm life, and will occupy the nice home on Baseline purchased from Mr. Ware.

Will Stevens, who runs a mighty good little store out at Laurel, was over to the county seat Wednesday morning.

Mrs. C. A. Hande sustained an accident in Portland, Tuesday, while on a shopping expedition, and is confined to her room at the Washington County Hospital under treatment by Dr. Robb.

BANKING your MONEY is both Safe and Sane

There was a time when the 4th of July meant blowing up your money in gunpowder and occasionally losing an eye or hand.

Today we have "safe and sane" celebrations. We save money and lives and have a better time.

Instead of "blowing" your money, put it in the bank for some luxuries or comforts in your old age.
