HILLSBORO—FOREST GROVE

BRAMAN—BECHEN

A simple and beautiful home wedding was solemnized in the presence of a party of sixty relatives and friends on Sunday, June 27, 1920, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at The Pine Farm, near Oreneo, when Carrie Isdore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
J. C. Bechen, was united in marriage to Howard Payne Braman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Braman, of Jefferson, Wisconsin.
Dean Hicks, of Portland, officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eleanor Bechen, and Silas Bechen, the bride's brother, was best man. Miss Leah Fiske, of Kelso, Wash., sang "Romany Love Song" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." Miss Tina Bechen played the wedding march from Lohengrin.
After the ceremony a delightful buffet luncheon was served on the lawn.

The presents were many and beautiful.
Mr. and Mrs. Braman departed for Spokane, Wash., where they will reside. The bride is well known in Hillsboro, where she has a host of friends who extend congratulations.

Al Latham, of Portland, spent Monday in the city, greeting old-time friends.

Frank Dersham, of North Plains, was in the city Saturday on legal business.

H. A. Shadden, of near North Plains, was a city visitor the last of the week.

John McDonald, Portland insurance man, was out Monday, looking after business.

Tony Sinay and John Koehnke, of above Blooming, were transacting business in the city Monday afternoon.

Frank E. Wilson and Lois Lambert, of Banks, were united in marriage in this city, June 25, 1920, Judge Goodin officiating.

Miss Mazie Nepper, of Locksley, Alabama, has arrived for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Irene Lambrix, of Witch Hazel.

Dan B. Roe, of above Mountaindale, was a city visitor Saturday. Dan is feeling pretty good after being confined to his room for several days.

Sam Tunstall, of Phillips, was in town Monday. Sam fell from a load of hay a few weeks ago, and is still suffering from the effects of the tumble.

M. N. Bonham, the veteran school teacher, has contracted to teach the Hazeldale school, beginning this fall. M. N. has been in the harness about a half century and he knows how.

S. H. Forney, of Livingston, Montana, was here the first of the week, the guest of his brother, W. H. Forney, of West Baseline, Oak Park. The visitor belonged to the Helena Shrine Temple and came down to take part in the big convention. He was here during the Lewis & Clark Fair and this is his second trip to the favored state. He thinks Oregon is O. K. and says he has a hunch that he might like to come down here and settle with us in the not distant future. Montana is looking fine this year, Mr.
Forney says, but he tells the Argus that the great need up there is better roads. He intimates that Oregon, in getting the gasoline tax and auto license for road purposes, is way ahead of Montana, and says he is going to see that Montana has a like law if he has to spend a month at the State Capital at the coming session.

ATTENTION, ELKS!

All members of the E. P. O. E. in Hillsboro—no matter to what lodge they belong—are requested to meet at the Hillsboro Club rooms on Wednesday, July 7, at eight o'clock in the evening for a fifteen minute session on a matter of importance. If you are one of the eleven P. M. boys, please do not overlook this request.
—Committee.

When one observes the speed with which many auto drivers pass along on the highway insid-ing city limits it is small wonder that there are accidents. Machine after machine passes over the S.
P. track at 30 miles per hour and some of these days, at the cannery crossing, or at the Sixth and Baseline crossing, there is going to be a nasty wreck with the possible loss of life. Chief Larsen is getting a few of the speeders, but he can't watch them all, but if a car gets struck by a train the coroner will be the official who will gather up the wreck.

E. Wiebold, a former resident of near Shelbin, was in the city from Portland Monday. Wie-bold says in all his travels he has seen no county as good as Washington—and he guessed it the first time.

In two days time the 12,000 gallon tank of gas shipped in from the Los Angeles oil fields was gone—two days after the tanker arrived at Hillsboro. Everybody filled their tanks and many filled their 50 gallon gas-tanks, notably among the rancher car owners. Another tank was shipped from California for this point, leaving there the first of the week. This tank will not be sold in larger quantities, except ing in isolated cases where tractors are used. The car will not be as large as the last one.
