"Burns of the Mountains"

Noted Educator to Tell His Remarkable Story of Achievement at Chautauqua

President James A. Burns, better known as "Burns of the Mountains," who is to appear here on the second night of Chautauqua, is one of notable lecturers whose life achievements entitle them to a hearing. Among his people in the Kentucky mountains he has been doing an epoch-making work along educational lines. Burns took upon himself the colossal task of establishing a university whose doors should be open to the humblest. He was without funds. Six of the dozen incorporators could not write their names. Out of that humble beginning, now has come Oneida Institute, which is pouring blessings upon the state and nation.

Red Letter Musical Event

Scheduled in the Coming of the New York Concert
Trio on Chautauqua's Second Day

Ruth Beverly Cumming, soprano of the New York Concert Trio which comes to Chautauqua on the second day, has a voice of unusual richness, range and power. She has received the highest of commendations from eastern musical critics and western music lovers have a rare treat awaiting them in her coming. May Elizabeth Rees, violinist, is one of the most prominent artists in the lyceum and Chautauqua world, having been at the head of her own company for several years. Last season she went overseas to play for our boys in France. Her playing is characterized by expressive interpretation, beautiful phrasing and dazzling technical ability. Lowell Patton, the pianist and accompanist of the company, is one of the most brilliant pianists on the Chautauqua platform. As an accompanist for several prominent concert soloists he is widely and favorably known.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County. In the Matter of the Guardianship of Alta Kirby, Beulah Kirby, Ralph Kirby and Thelma Kirby, minors. Now at this time comes Charles G. Koerber, the duly appointed, qualified and acting Guardian of the person and estate of Alta Kirby, Beulah Kirby, Ralph Kirby and Thelma Kirby, minors, in person and by Hare, McAlair & Peters, his attorneys, and presents herein his petition praying for an Order authorizing the sale of the real property hereinafter described at private sale for cash in hand; and:

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that said minors are the owners of an undivided 1-42 interest each of, in and to the following described real property lying, being and situate in Washington County, State of Oregon, particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point 10 chains South of the Northeast corner of Sec. 15 T 2 S of R 2 W, Will Mer, said point being the Northeast corner of a tract of land conveyed by Jas. G. And that said real property is unimproved, non-tillable land consisting of brush and stumps, and produces but very little revenue or income for said minors, and that it would be for the best interest of said minors that their interest in said real property be sold and the proceeds used for the support and maintenance of said minors and each of them and the balance invested in income bearing securities, that said property may produce an income for the benefit of said minors; and:

It appearing that W. V. Kirby is the father and nearest of kin of said minors and each of them, their mother having departed this life several years ago;
