Ohio is going to fight it out for the presidency, and Jim Cox promises to give Warren Harding a fight for the big office.

Old Jupiter Pluvius appears to be on the side of the late crop and rather rude to the hay and early grain—but the old rascal is trying to make it an even break.

It is to be hoped that arrangements to finance a general hospital at Cornelius will not fall by the wayside. This is an institution much needed, and partisan bias as to locality should not hinder. It is pleasing to note that the measure has support from both Hillsboro and Forest Grove.

It is reported that young Boetticher, whose auto stage went over the Terwilliger grade the other day, went home, changed his clothes, and left for parts unknown. It is stated that he feared the wrath of his father, but his fears were probably far-fetched as the pater more likely was gratified that the lad was not killed in the wreck. The car was bonded so the Fidelity Co. will pay the claims for the disaster. Whether or not there was insurance on the car is not known.

All grades of powder have advanced $1.25 per hundred. Having a limited amount on hand I will sell at the old price as long as it lasts. Customers intending to do more grubbing should get what they want now. It will be higher next fall.—W. L. Stevens, Laurel Store.

Petty thieves have been stealing everbearing strawberries from the Wall, Mahon & Calef tract North Hillsboro. The berries are just beginning to bear and it is estimated that four or five crates have already been stolen. The firm has 60,000 plants coming on, and strawberries are bearing a good price, and a crate soon runs into money. The firm will prosecute anyone trespassing on the place.

Thieves, beware! Anyone caught stealing berries or otherwise trespassing in any manner on our property will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.—Wall, Mahon & Calef.

Laugh With Wilson

J. Walter Wilson with the aid of an accompanist presents two program on the fifth day which might well puzzle a company of half a dozen people to duplicate. Undoubtedly he is one of the most versatile entertainers among musicians on the Chautauqua platform. He possesses a splendid bass voice, plays the flute, saxophone and apparently coaxes music out of any conceivable sort of a device from a rake to a box with one string on it. Then, too, he is a master as an impersonator in "makeup."

Chautauqua, Monday Evening July 26.
