FAREWELL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miller were host and hostess to a farewell party complimenting Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Williams, Saturday evening, prior to their departure for Denver, Col., the first of the week. The party consisted of railway men and their families, and the affair was delightful. Mr. Williams is a trainman, and has been here for several months, and both he and his wife have made many friends during their sojourn. For some time Mr. Williams' health has been failing, and he has sold and will try the Denver altitude for a while.

The hearty reception given the departing couple was a high testimonial of the regard and esteem in which they are held. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames E. Beckett; Roth, Van Duser, Moxley and children.

CHIARAMONTE—PITMAN

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Emily Pitman, of No. 261 Fourteenth St., Portland, July 17, 1920, at 8:45 in the evening, when Violet A. Pitman, her daughter, was united in marriage to Joseph J. Chiaramonte, Rev. Walton Skipworth, of Hillsboro, officiating. Theodore Pitman officiated as groomsmen and Mrs. Theo. Pitman was the bridesmaid. Miss Eva Pitman, sister of the bride, played the wedding march from Mendelssohn. The bride carried a beautiful arm bouquet of rosebuds and sweet peas. After the ceremony a delightful wedding dinner was served on the lawn, which was decorated with Japanese lanterns.

The bride is well known in Hillsboro, where she was born and reared, and for many years she was connected with the telephone service. The groom is a well known fruit merchant of Portland.

LAND FOR SALE

One hundred and fifty acres in one body; 125 acres cleared; 25 acres timber on river—million feet merchantable. Ten acres of the 125 in English, walnut trees. All place is underdrained 4 and 5 feet deep. Fine, fertile soil. Just the place for a man wanting a good farm. Mile from Scholls. Reason for selling—too much land on hand. Priced reasonable. Ferd Groner, 23 Hillsboro, Ore., R. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Newell, of Toppensish, Wash., were here the last of the week, visiting oldtime Washington County friends. He and Ben Cornelius were school boys together out in the Plains district and the way the oldtimers commended together was not slow. Chas. says that Toppensish is coming to the front in fine shape since the waters of the Yakima have been turned on the arid stretches—but he likes to get back to the old home county every few years and see old friends and the familiar landscape.

The Argus will pay you cash for good clean rags.
