

COUNTY SEAT LEADS IN THE 1920 CENSUS

Hillsboro Gains 22.4 Per Cent in Ten Years Uncle Sam Says

RETURNS ON ALL TOWNS

Hillsboro Leads With 2468 and Forest Grove Has 1775

According to the 1920 census Hillsboro leads all towns in population with a census enumeration of 2468. Forest Grove follows with 1775, a gain of three people since 1910. Hillsboro's population has increased 22.4 per cent in the decade. Both Hillsboro and Forest Grove have had thirty gains in the territory not under the incorporation. Both are possessed of a considerable increase in this regard. Hillsboro has gained in the North Plains road district beyond Garibaldi Avenue; in North Hillsboro; and East of Oak Street, clear to Newton. Forest Grove has many new five and ten acre tracts adjoining the city limits. Judging from the transfers Forest Grove has more of this class of settlers than Hillsboro, altho the exact numbers are unknown for either place.

The towns and their comparative populations for 1920 and 1910 follows:

	1920	1910
Hillsboro	2468	2016
Forest Grove	1775	1772
Cornelius	494	459
Beaverton	580	386
Oreoc	335
Gaston	221
Tualatin	250

Beaverton made the greatest gain of any town in the county, the gain being over 50 per cent.

RELIEF ASS'N. FORMED

A Service Men's Relief Association is being formed in the county by R. W. Boyd, of Portland, who is making Hillsboro his headquarters with executive offices. He states their plan is an exceptionally good one and worthy of the cooperation of all the county. Standard Oil and Oregon's biggest men are taking an active part. Details in the next issue of this paper.

J. W. Spangler, Vice President of the Seattle National Bank, passed thro Hillsboro last week, enroute to Corvallis and other way-points in the valley. Spangler is now at the head of the industrial boards of the associated banks and is accredited with being one of the best informed men in Seattle on industrial lines. While in Hillsboro Spangler gave the old town the "once over" for he spent several years of his boyhood here when his father held the pastorate of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Spangler has lived at many points in Oregon and a year does not pass that he fails to come over and revisit the old home state. The bank with which he is associated is one of Seattle's strongest financial institutions. While making the rounds of Hillsboro he visited a few minutes with A. C. Shute, of the Shute Savings.

Farmers' Mutual Insurance is best—Farmers are finding out that insurance in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Relief Assn. costs 60 per cent less than in commercial companies. The Assn. has $8,000,000 at risk and saves $25,000 annually to its members. Operated for the benefit of farmers. When ready to insure, notify H. C. Pearson, Box 173, Hillsboro, Ore. 21-33

Washington Council 3473 Security Benefit Ass'n will give a dance Thursday, Aug. 12, in Moose Hall, 5 piece orchestra for music and a fine time promised. The society intends giving regular dancing parties thru the Fall and Winter with an experienced committee in charge. Don't miss this dance. A large class of new members were initiated last week. Eureka Council, of Portland, putting on the floor work. The degree team in their fine uniforms made a fine showing. State Manager Thomas and wife were present and assisted. The visitors departed feeling that Hillsboro was a fine host.

A trio, named Joe Duby, Carl Zelousky and Joe Bonrosket, took an auto ride "with a lady" the other day, starting from Portland. The fair driver drove them to Beaverton and put them out of the machine and told them to walk home. E. Stipe, of the Garage, was hired by the three to take them back to the Rose City. One of the men claims that he lost a watch and a roll of blankets on the excursion. As there was "moonshine on the moonshine" aboard their idea of what happened is rather hazy.

For good buys in real estate, for loans, insurance and notarial work, see E. I. Kurathi, Hillsboro National Bank Bldg., upstairs.—E. I. Kurathi. 48-4f

Chas. Waibel, of Helvetia, lost the tip of his finger in a binder Tuesday. His little four year old son was kicked in the face by a horse, the last of the week, and may lose the sight of an eye. Dr. E. H. Smith attended both the cases.

J. H. Houser is over from Wheeler, greeting oldtime friends. He reports that Mrs. Mabel Wann is temporary postmistress at Wheeler, with a fine chance of permanent appointment.

HILLSBORO NATIONAL ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT

Emil I. Kurathi Now Executive of Banking House

BUYS OUT W. H. WEHRUNG

Bank Organized in 1911—Over Half Million Deposits

Emil I. Kurathi, connected with the Hillsboro National Bank since its inception in 1911, has, with his associates, bought the stock of W. H. Wehrung, for nine years president of the institution, and Mr. Kurathi was last evening elected President to succeed Mr. Wehrung, who retires to devote his time to his other and varied interests. The new executive is well known all over Washington County and is a good financier.

The Hillsboro National Bank opened for business March 4, 1911, and in the nine years its deposits have grown to $545,297.15, with resources at $686,193.

Considering that there were already two substantial banks in the city this growth is a testimonial to the banking house.

A new board of directors will be elected within a few days.

Mr. Kurathi assumed the duties of his office at once, the purchase of the stock having taken place this week.

John F. Gardner, stockholder, and Cashier for the past two years, retains his position and remains with the bank.

Mr. Wehrung's announcement of sale appears in another column.

DOUBLE HEADER

The Hillsboro American Legion nine will play a double header on the local grounds next Sunday, when they will take on the Honeyman Hardware team. Phelps will catch Gray, and Krietz will receive from Brown. Many of the oldtime fans will be pleased to see Phelps perform again, for he always puts plenty of pepper into the game.

Eighteen innings of good ball in one afternoon promises a regular ballfest for fans, and here is their opportunity.

Sunday's game was won by the Kirkpatricks, the score being 6 to 5. Brown appeared to have too much speed for Rogaway, and errors here and there gave Hillsboro the small end of the tally sheet.

J. A. SHEPARD

J. A. Shepard, well known at Greenville 25 years ago, was struck by an auto in Portland, July 25, and died a few days later. He was aged 76 years, and was born in Michigan. He lived at Greenville in the 80's and 90's, and later moved to Beaverton. Of late years he has lived at the Patton home. Shepard was struck at Sixth and Washington by Miss Loretta Isaacson, and it was several days before he was identified and then only by a watch and cane. He is survived by the following children—Frank and Rola Shepard, Portland; Arn Shepard, St. Helens; Mrs. Mary Vaughan, Yamhill; Mrs. Cleta Berst, Beaverton.

HILLSBORO LEGION DELEGATES AT ASTORIA

Post No. 6 Hears Report From Big Convention

SEVEN MAKE THE TRIP

Report That Astoria Treated Boys Royally

Hillsboro American Legion Post No. 6 met last evening and heard a report from its delegates to the state convention held at Astoria last week. Zenas Olson made the report for the Hillsboro delegation which consisted of Mr. Olson, Lawrence Taggart and Clair Sample. They were given prominent place due to the fact that they were first over the top in the membership drive. Other veterans visiting the big session were Dr. J. B. Dinsmore, who returned with rank of Captain, Wm. Sexton, Howard Fuller and Fred Taylor.

The delegates and visitors report that Astoria welcomed them with open arms and that the hospitality of the port city will long be remembered. It is taken for granted, however, that the Astoria water supply is good for but one thing—to flow under bridges or support a merchant marine.

Wilson T. Hume, Attorney for Plaintiff, 426 Falling Building, Portland, Oregon.

VETERAN BENEFIT

The United American Spanish War Veterans entertained the people of Hillsboro at Liberty Theatre, Tuesday evening, in a program of music and song, and every number was given applause and appreciation. Dr. L. W. Hyde presided over the program. Alice May Phelps, a sister of O. Phelps, sang several very pleasing numbers, assisted by Harold W. Moore, baritone, of Portland, piano accompanist.

The first appearance of the M. C. Larsen family orchestra, of Cedar Mill, was the big feature of the evening. An orchestra of eight, the father being 62, and the youngest member, aged 6, rendered several selections that were a revelation to music lovers.

Oswald Olson and Russell Morgan were fine in solos. Miss Miriam Stockton and Vincent Engeldinger were the accompanists. Vincent Engeldinger rendered several splendid piano selections.

The institution from which I am retiring is a fixture in this community, and I trust that all present customers will give the new management the same loyal support given me.

Mrs. R. P. Lingman, Clerk, Beaverton, Ore., E. 6.

Cortland E. Holliday and wife have sued Washington County and the Board of County Commissioners, asking that the Circuit Court issue a restraining order preventing them from opening up a county road thro their lots in the Millard & VanSchuyver Tract. The complaint alleges that the county court is putting the road thro their place in such a way as to separate their house from their orchard; that they are about to destroy valuable trees. They say they offered a strip in lieu of the proposed road and had supposed it would be accepted.

Threshermen all over the county will start the 1920 season in a few days and some of the separators are already shelling out grain. The crop this year is a good one as crops go, and winter wheat promises a greater output than heretofore. The County Court has been making some very fine road signs for the Forest Grove, Thatcher, Hillside and Greenville sections, as well as for the Banks territory. Road signs have been badly needed in the county for many years and the name "Hillsboro" has been the last seen of any at the cross-roads.
