

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

Candidate Cox has changed Candidate Harding's viewpoint. Mr. Harding is to vacate the front porch and go out for a tour. Which means that Mr. Harding has an idea that he has some fight on his hands.

By and large, Washington County has a splendid crop which spells prosperity for everybody. Fifty bushel wheat, forty bushel wheat and thirty bushel wheat is not so bad for land that has been harvested for over 50 years.

The season is now ripe for the Republican or Democrat who likes to see his name in print to send in screeds telling why he is jumping from one party to another. We always have 'em.

SOME PERSISTENT

Our good friend, Sam Koser, Secretary of State, persists in reminding Mr. Long, of the Argus, that he was nominated for Representative, and asks for a sworn cost bill. One was sent and the language, following, should convince Sam that this is a closed incident:

"I, L. A. Long, being first duly sworn, depose and say, that I did not expend a cent, nor any part thereof in securing the democratic nomination for Representative 15th Dist., and that I will not qualify, and would not accept the office under the guns of a firing squad if the election certificate were assured."

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of July, 1920.—Elizabeth L. Shogren, Notary Public for Oregon.

Misses Marjorie Wells, Kittie May and Miriam Stockton and Florence Garrett entertained last week-end at a camping party, the guests being Misses Lois Macy, Jen Loughlin, Christine Forde, and Marion Gillis, of Portland. The young ladies are all members of the Alpha Phi Sorority, at U of O.

Henry Pape, of Albany, was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday.

Ralph Withycombe, of South Taalatin, was in the city yesterday.

Herman Kamna, of north precinct, was in this morning. He threshed his Winter grain yesterday.

Austin Sims, of Farmington, was in town yesterday—panting like a lizard in an August slashing.

John Simpson, the sawmill man, was down from Albany yesterday greeting Hillsboro friends and transacting business.

Mrs. R. T. McConnell and daughter, Katherine, are spending the week at the home of Mrs. McConnell's sister, Mrs. C. E. Wells.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold an ice cream social in the church basement Wednesday evening, Aug. 18. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Emmott are enjoying the sea breezes at Rockaway this week. Homer Emmott, whose family has been over for some time, came over this week to remain a day or so before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Bump and Miss Gertha Olsen and Miss Edna M. Finn departed this evening for Seaside, via the Overland route. They go down the Columbia River highway.

Dr. C. H. Pollock and family are enjoying a vacation at Rockaway and Seaside, making the trip over in their machine.

Found—A rug, July 25th, near Schefflin. Owner may have same by calling at Schefflin store, identifying the rug, and paying for this advertisement.

Neal C. Jamison, officiating here for a couple of years as county agent, was a guest at the Hotel Washington Monday night. Jamison is traveling all over the state in the interests of the Dairyman's League, and is making his headquarters at the Jamison ranch, at Hillside.

Business men are fighting the proposed "low interest" measure to be voted on in November. They allege that it would mean a big crop of bonus men like the school that existed away back in the nineties.

If you have changed your voting precinct, remember it will save you much trouble if you change your registration. Clerk Kuratli states that the books will be open from now on until 30 days prior to the election.

J. C. Kuratli returned yesterday from Rockaway, his family remaining. He reports a big Hillsboro contingent over there. He advises making reservations before going, as rooms and cottages are at a premium. J. C. says Sam Raffety and wife, of Mountaineer, are enjoying the beach breezes over there.

Hop Pickers Wanted—At the Thurnburgh yard, 1 1/2 miles northeast of Hillsboro. $1.50 per hundred for those staying three entire picking, or $1.25 for those who do not. Apply to A. S. Lytle, at farm, or J. A. Thurnburgh, at Forest Grove. 23-24

Percy Long has his front installed in his new brick on Second St., and it improves the appearance of the rialto.

Miss S. M. Dismore, of Eugene, arrived yesterday at the Dr. J. B. Dismore home and departed this morning for Rockaway, accompanied by the Dismore children.

Lila, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer, of Shady Brook, cut off her left thumb the first of the week while splitting kindling. Dr. E. H. Smith looked after the injury.

Leo Benbo, who was in the same artillery regiment in France with several men from here, was in the city the first of the week, the guest of Frank Rollins and Chas. Diechman. Benbo, who was wounded, had the thrilling experience of being placed in the "last chance" ward of a military hospital.

Dr. E. H. Smith had three operations for appendicitis the last week—Mrs. Geo. Newton, Hillsboro, wife of the well-known railroad man; Mrs. W. B. Nall, of Banks, and Mrs. Alphonse S. Eisen, of near Blooming. All patients are doing nicely.

Wayne Both, whose parents reside on West Washington, at North Range, fell the first of the week and fractured an arm. Dr. E. H. Smith attended the injury.

John Powell, of Portland, was in the city the last of the week, a guest of his mother, Mrs. M. A. Powell.

A. C. Shute, of the Shute Savings, is taking his vacation prop with his family at Rockaway.
