

HILLSBORO BEATS THE KIRKPATRICKS

Legionnaires Win Out by Score of Six to Five

IRON MEN COMING SUNDAY

And Then Sherwood Will Visit Hillsboro for Real Game

Hillsboro Legion men put the books into the Kirkpatricks last Sunday with a score of six to five. It was just a question of superiority in hitting, for the Kirs have a pretty well balanced team. Brown handled the gutting for Hillsboro, and he pitched heady, steady ball, striking out ten men. His team mates found the opposing pitcher for 12 hits. Erwin and Koppel played gilt edge ball around second base. The line-up for the Legion—

Next Sunday's Game—
Next Sunday the Portland Iron Workers will make Hillsboro for a triumph. This team has put up the best brand of baseball of any of the visiting teams, especially when they have played on the local grounds. Hillsboro beat them the first game 3 to 1, but on their return they won in a 2 to 0 game by a home run in the ninth inning. Real fans who want to witness a clever game will be at the ball park next Sunday.

Sherwood's Date—
Sherwood is to make Hillsboro another visit, and the onion men are coming Aug. 29, prepared to take the Legionnaires into camp. Hillsboro is protesting that this is the county seater's game and they are going after the big end of the score.

Sunday's Results—

OBITUARY

Mrs. Nancy Jane Bartlett, of this city, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. H. Gray, No. 1375 Fir St., Hillsboro, August 16, 1920, was born in La Grange, Indiana, Sept. 28, 1844. She had resided here for about 18 months. She was married to Albert C. Bartlett, July 28, 1864, the husband dying August 5, 1905, at Goldendale, Wash. She is survived by the following children—Mrs. Wm. Gray, Hillsboro; Berdie Bartlett, Portland; W. F. Bartlett, Everett, Ark., and Jas. H. Bartlett, of Seattle, Wash.

RECORD YIELD

There is winter wheat and here is winter wheat—but the record yield so far for 1920 was grown by Leonard VanLom on the ranch bought from Carl Meier, last Spring. From a tract of six acres Leonard threshed 380 bushels. The farm has been well kept up during the Carl Meier ownership, and Leonard himself is some farmer.

T. J. Melloy, of Fifth and Edison, is convalescing from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Conductor John H. Dobbins, now on the red car run through Hillsboro, says that John R. Williams, of Juneau, Alaska, now at Los Angeles for his health, is improving rapidly and will soon go back to the Alaskan capital. Mrs. Dobbins and two daughters, Mrs. H. T. Latham and Roy Latham, have just returned from a visit with the Williams family in the Southern California metropolis, and are now at home near Aloha.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Cooper, of Carlton, formerly of Hillsboro, celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary, at their home Monday evening. The guest list numbered one hundred and eighty, and the reception was held on the lawn. The presents were beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Connell, of this city, and Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich, of Creswell, were among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Will and child, of CleElum, Wash., arrived in Tuesday for a week's visit with the R. H. Greers, of this city, and the Wills, of Laurel. They came down from the mountains via Ellensburg, Yakima, Sunnyside and Goldendale. They crossed the famous Horse Heaven country, and Will says this is a misnomer by long odds.

Frost Tuesday night nipped tomato vines below Redville, on the River road, and reports come that in spots all over the county Jack took a bite here and there out of the more tender vegetation. Over near Newberg there were many white spots and many truck gardeners kissed their tomatoes good bye.

Dan B. Roe and Geo. Meacham, who for many years have fished the waters of the east fork of Dairy, and landed many bucks in season, were down to the city Tuesday. They say this closed season is bad business—the only sport a man has is to go to Gale Creek and catch suckers, at which Geo. says Roe is an expert.

Hop pickers who wish to pick in the Bloom yard should register by mail or telephone. Pay $1.50 if remain there season, and $1.25 if only part of season.—C. W. Bloom, Hillsboro, R. 5; 3 miles southeast of Hillsboro, on Farmington River Road. 26

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Montgomery recently returned from Seattle, where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Taggart, and their daughter, Edna Greyer. On their return Mr. Montgomery went to Albany to visit his son, Frank, returning Tuesday.

NEW DANCE HALL LAW IS SURE ENOUGH RIGID

Five to Twenty-five Dollars is License Fee for Calendar Year

DIM LIGHTS ARE BANNED

Bunny Hug and Shimmy go by the Board. Youth Protected

The new law relative to public dance halls is rigid in many respects, and all public dances will be conducted under its auspices and regulations. The county judge will be the sole arbiter of the good moral character of the party applying for a license. The law says that no person who is not of good moral character can get a license.

The charge per year for the licenses follows:
For a hall with 2500 square feet and less, fee of $5.
For dance floor over 2500 feet up to 5,000 feet, license fee of $10.
For the dance floor over 5,000 square feet 25 simoleons must be pledged up, and licenses are good only so long as the statute is followed.

Parts of the law regulating the conduct of dance halls are worth reading—
No intoxicating liquor allowed, and no person who has drunk any intoxicating liquor during the day or evening on which a dance is held shall be allowed to remain in the dance hall.
Proprietor of dance hall must have good moral character, and no dance can be held unless there is a female floor manager who has a good moral character and she must be at least 25 years of age. The dance hall inspector for the county must have access to the hall and adjoining apartments at any time.

No person under the age of 18 years shall be allowed to remain in any dance hall unless he or she is accompanied by at least one parent, or a legal guardian.

No boisterous conduct and no profanity will be permitted.

Cut Out the "Shimmy"—
No dancing of a gross or vulgar character shall be suffered, allowed or permitted, and no undue familiarity shall be tolerated.

Watch Your Step—
The position in dancing shall be that which has been adopted by the American Association of Masters of Dancing, known as the waltz position and which is as follows:

Dancers stand facing opposite directions, half to the side with lady looking over gentleman's right shoulder, her left foot outside of gentleman's right foot, likewise his left foot outside of lady's right foot, gentleman's right hand placed on lady's back between the waist and shoulder and not beyond the center line. Lady's left hand placed on gentleman's lower right shoulder blade. Gentleman's left arm extended to left side, not below the waist line or above the shoulder line with palm of hand up. Lady's right hand placed, with palm down, in gentleman's left. This description refers to dancers wherein the waltz or closed position is used. Partners shall keep their bodies and faces free from each other. The Inspector of Dance Halls shall have full power to decide what is proper or permissible in this connection, and on his notifying the person in charge of the dance that improper conduct is being indulged, then such person shall at once cease such improper conduct to be stopped.

All dance halls shall be brightly lighted during the progress of the dance and all dances designated as shadow dances and moonlight dances shall not be suffered and are strictly prohibited.

No person of bad character or of unfavorable or immoral reputation shall be suffered or permitted in any dance hall or the ante-room reserved for ladies.

No dance hall shall be suffered to be kept open or any dancing permitted therein on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, nor after 1 o'clock a. m. on any other night of the week.

A. C. Alford, of Buxton, was in the city Monday on business at the recorder's office. Alford has 110 acres under way, and he is going to get it under the plow as rapidly as possible. He counted 27 machines picking blackberries on his ranch a few days back, and he says thousands of gallons were picked in his section. Alford is going to fit up a gas engine to bore into the big fir stumps and burn them on the charring process, and he says it works like a charm and saves much money.

Oliver Johnson, Shady Brook, was in town last of the week, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson. Sam has made arrangements with the boys to lay off on Sept. 1 and dress the limit of bucks for him when he starts on his deer hunting trip. Sam says that when he goes out the boys take no guns—they do the skinning and dressing and he does the shooting.

For Sale—Mitchell drag saw with clutch; runs like new and looks like new, used but little—$100; also 220-egg Buckeye incubator used for three batches—$90 only. Am renting my place and do not need them.—J. A. O'Dell, 1 mile South of Laurel. Telephone 2-5 on Line 11. Scholls. 20-1f

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McAlear went over to Battle Ground Lake Sunday, returning Monday. E. J. says that this lake, which is in Clark County, is in an old extinct crater, and the natives think the waters come from Lewis River. He found the place quite a bathing resort, and says the trip is well worth one's while.

Farmers' Mutual Insurance is best—Farmers are finding out that insurance in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Relief Assn. costs 60 per cent less than in commercial companies. The Assn. has $8,000,000 at risk and saves $25,000 annually to its members. Operated for the benefit of farmers. When ready to insure, notify H. C. Pearson, Box 178, Hillsboro, Ore. 21-33

Assessor Boley has set the date for the convening of the Board of Equalization for Monday, Sept. 13, 1920, and the board will be in open session on call for one month. The body will equalize all taxes excepting the public service corporation property, which is fixed by the State Board. In old days there were many who wished changes made in assessment, but of late years the number before the board has been limited. The notice of call appears in another place in this issue.

Two little kiddies came near drowning at Rippling Waters, on Gales, Sunday afternoon. They had wandered to the creek, playing, and slipped off a log in about six feet of water. Two Portland men who were sitting under the trees close by, first sighted the little heads bobbing up and down in the water and went to their rescue. Both would have been drowned but for help. The gentleman who took them out was unable to swim, but reached the first one without trouble, but the second child gave him trouble, however, as it was in the depths beyond the man's height. He grabbed the child, however, and hung to it while some one else pulled out the rescuer and the youngster. The little ones were the children of Mr. and Mrs. John VanLoo, of Cornelius, and the elder child says the younger fell in and he started to get it out when he, too, got in the depths.

PRUNE MEN TO MEET AT THE GROVE

Dryer Men Also Have a Session to Talk Over Affairs

P. U. CAMPUS, SATURDAY

A. E. Westcott, President Farm Bureau, Sends Out Call

A. E. Westcott, President of the Washington County Farm Bureau, has sent out a call for the Prune Growers' Chautauqua, to be held at Forest Grove, Saturday August 21. The prune men have never formed a real organization in the county and many think it is time to get together for an exchange of ideas. The dryer men will also meet on the same date, and their session will be the first thing on the program.

Mr. Westcott's letter follows—
"Dear Sir:
I hope you haven't forgotten the Prune Growers' Association at Forest Grove on August 21. You sure want to arrange to be there. An enclosing herewith is a program. All of the good things are not included on this program. Come early and bring your lunch.
Due to the lack of uniformity in prices charged for prune drying, etc., in this district, the local committee of the Oregon Growers' Co-operative Association has decided to call a meeting of all the dryermen in the district to discuss the matter and attempt to arrive at a common understanding. This will be held in connection with the Washington County Prune Chautauqua in Forest Grove, on the Campus of the University, Saturday, August 21. The dryermen's meeting will be the first thing on the program, so come early to participate in the discussion.
Be there at 9:30 a. m."

MONSTER MEETING

Fully twelve hundred people attended the Highway picnic at Manning yesterday, and started the ball rolling to promote the proposed State Highway from Forest Grove to Banks, Manning, Buxton and on through to the Nehalem. A. G. Clark, of Oregon's associated industries; J. W. Brewer, of the State Chamber of Commerce, and E. E. Williams, of Portland, delivered addresses and pledged their efforts to prevail on the State Highway Commission to select this route from the valley to Astoria and Seaside. Judge J. W. Goodin, Dr. Via, S. B. Cobb, of the Standard Box Co. J. S. Culbertson, Mrs. Vail and L. L. Crawford also addressed the big audience, and the day was a success from the standpoint of making a splendid start for better road conditions.

It is contended that the route will give a much better grade than the Gales-Glenwood route, and eliminate the big climb going into timber. The people on the West fork of Dairy are going after that highway, and they are determined to leave no stone unturned to get their route designated.

JAMES A. BENEDICT

James A. Benedict died at his home on Washington St., August 13, 1920, after a very short illness. His wife died a few months ago.

Mr. Benedict was born in Auburn, New York, Feb. 14, 1841, and left his childhood home when a boy. He first settled near Beloit, Wis., where he grew to manhood. He was married at Sharon, Ill., July 4, 1863, to Anna M. Carr. They moved to Iowa, later living in Missouri and South Dakota. He went to Ontario, Cal., in 1903, later moving to Nebraska. In 1912 the Benedicts came to Hillsboro for residence. He was a cabinet maker by trade. He was also engaged in merchandising and farming prior to coming to Oregon.

Mr. Benedict's father was a soldier and lost his life in the Civil War.

The funeral took place this afternoon, Undertakers Donelson & Bell directing.

BADLY BURNED

Errol Hartley, of beyond North Plains, was badly burned about the body last week while timing a Maxwell automobile. An explosion took place and Hartley's clothing was ignited. The fire burned nearly all his apparel from his body, and he was in a critical condition. Dr. E. H. Smith dressed the burn and may have to resort to skin grafting.

Hop pickers who wish to pick at the A. J. Harttramp yard, above Mountaineer, will please register in person or letter at once. Ideal camping place; pure spring water. For further particulars see or write A. J. Harttramp, Hillsboro, Ore. Telephone 3028, or apply at the yard.

Many Washington county people knew the late Thos. Prince, who had the big walnut orchard—the largest in the Northwest—near Dundee. It will be news to them that he left an estate worth over a million dollars, and there is talk of the guardian of Prince suing for $100,000 for his services as such. The administrator proposes to fight the case and protect the only heir, a son. Prince visited Washington County many times in his work as a horticulturalist, and was well known by Ferd Groner and Thos. Withycombe.

Judge and Mrs. J. W. Goodin and son visited the last of the week at the Hare Combs camp on the Nehalem, at the Christensen bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Goodin returned Sunday night, and Melvin remained until Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wells and the Argus reporter were also Sunday visitors at the camp, where the Argus reporter captured the pinechuck championship. Crawdad salad, a new viand, and one that makes the inner man sit up and say "hello" is on the bill of fare there nearly every day.

Will Gaetter reports that he and his party recently saw a yearling doe in the lowland swail, to the right of the Dairy Creek bridge. The deer probably had been run to Dairy Creek higher up and had followed the stream down. In old days there was a regular deer runway which crossed near Hale Springs, and two years ago a buck was killed near that point. A deer a mile from town these days is a novelty.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tupper have returned from an extended visit with their daughter, Mrs. Jas. Miltenberger, of LaPine, Oregon, up in the Bend country. Tupper says that men are scarce up there and he had hard work to get away. He reports the Miltenbergers as having a fine homestead with all the "trimmings" for three times a day that go to make life worth while.

Wanted—Assistant book-keeper; must be accurate in figures. Stenographic experience not required, but an advantage. Good salary to right person. Address in own handwriting, giving experience, age and salary expected.—Box 117, Hillsboro, Oregon. 21-1f

The forest fire up on East Dairy, between the creek and the Arcade district destroyed considerable timber last week. A cinder from the fire was carried by the wind to the roof of Frank Jackson's house, and quite a hole was burned before it was discovered. Mr. Jackson says there had been no fire in the house that day, so it is a certainty that the blaze caught from a live coal fanned there by the north wind.

Hop Pickers Wanted—At the Thornburgh yard, 1 1/2 miles northeast of Hillsboro. $1.50 per hundred for those staying through entire picking, or $1.25 for those who do not. Apply to A. S. Lytle, at farm, or J. A. Thornburgh, at Forest Grove. 23-24

Arthur D. Hill, the Laurel thresherman, has two machines running this year, one being a Russel and the other an Avery. He has two Avery separators enroute and they should land in Hillsboro almost any day. He expects to keep three Avery machines running through the season in case the other two get here. He finds crops generally good this season.

For Sale—Nine-room house, 6 lots, apple trees, plums, cherries, petite prunes, loganberries. Half block south of the Oregon Electric depot, at Cornelius.—See or write owner, Mrs. T. A. Lewis, Cornelius, Ore. 28-28

Peter Zuercher, of Phillips, was a county sear caller Monday. Mr. Zuercher has the honor of being the father of a pretty good sized Roosevelt family, his children numbering sixteen. One machine will not hold them all.

For Sale—Saddle mare, gentle in every respect, 8 years old; safe for girls; nice traveler; also saddle.—Jos. Postill, Hillsboro, R. 1; Box 162; near Tom Goodin place, mile and one-half north of Oregon. 22-24

The new home of Dr. S. M. Reagan, on Baseline, between Fourth and Fifth, is rapidly nearing completion and will be one of the neatest homes on the highway.

Mrs. R. L. Tucker and children have been spending the warm season at Newport. Mr. Tucker went over Monday to remain a few days and get a coat of tan.

Miss Blanche Williams, deputy in the clerk's office, returned the last of the week from a visit during her vacation with relatives at Grants Pass.

Marriage license was granted Alvin Hoffman, of Hillsboro, and Miss Marie Hamelmann, of Cornelius.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McGlasson returned Saturday from a week at Barview and other Tillamook coast points.
