

Listen what Rev. Kunzle has to say in his book "Chrut and Uchne" (Herbs and Weeds) about

Father Kunzle is known as the best authority of Swiss Alpine Herbs and preparations made from them. His books are in official use in many schools of Switzerland. He makes the following statement in reference to Lapidar and its beneficiary effect.

LAPIDAR is composed of harmless leaves, flowers and roots. It purifies the blood, it acts favorably in many cases of arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arterial walls), gout, skin diseases, abscesses, hae-morroids, stiffness of the limbs, nervous headache. It dissolves and removes gallstones, renal and vesical calculi (stones formed in the kidneys and bladder.) Epilepsy when due to certain conditions of the blood, cold feet, faulty circulation and headache caused by it will be relieved wonderfully.

LAPIDAR prevents paralysis (apoplectic attacks) and restores the use of limbs after an apoplectic attack. It has a very beneficial effect on the stomach, kidneys and the lungs. Ladies will appreciate Lapidar especially.

Arteriosclerosis is a disease of old age, sometimes also found among younger people, leading a sedentary life; the disease is indicated by frequent attacks of dizziness, cold feet, stiff limbs, furni-cation on the hands and feet, often followed by an apoplectic stroke.
A faulty circulation of the blood may bring about carbuncles, swelling of the glands, inflammation of the spinal marrow and swelling of the limbs.

Gallstones and urinary calculi frequently are caused by a chronic constipation of long standing or insufficient micturition.

Lapidar will exert its helpful action on all the above ailments, and even the weak and run-down will regain their natural energy and cheerfulness. Old people, feeling weak and tired, who were well before, usually suffer from poor circulation; give them Lapidar and see the result. A poor circulation frequently results in falling out of the hair, lack of hearing, loss of eyesight, etc. Also here Lapidar will bring excellent results.

LAPIDAR is always imported since its constituents, the Swiss Mountain Herbs, are only found on the Alps where their medicinal properties are best developed. Lapidar is genuine only with the above trademark and name. It is obtainable from agents or prepaid directly from

HINCKLEY GOES BAD

H. R. Hinckley, a youngster who is a veteran of both the Canadian and American forces in the world war, has gone to the bad. Last Saturday, he started out on a bad check career, and before he stopped to draw breath or more bad checks, he had tipped the beam at $120. All of the bad paper was differently signed, except on the back of the checks, which bears the signature of "H. R.
Hinckley." He tapped up W. W.
Boscow for $80; J. H. Kroeger for $10; the Hillsboro National for $35; the Reynolds Grocery for $20, and the Pharmacy for $25. The young man belongs to the naval reserve, and but recently returned from a cruise. He worked at the O. E. depot some months ago. Young Hinckley is an innocent, round-faced kid and his looks belie his actions. He was wounded in the Canadian service, it is said.

Sheriff Alexander is endeavoring to locate the youngster. The name signed on the Boscow paper was "J. Rowatt."

ROBS BOSCOW'S STORE

The W. W. Boscow clothing store was robbed Saturday night, the value of the theft amounting to in the neighborhood of $500. Entry was made at the rear door, through the transom, or thro the glass door, the pane of the latter having been broken. Three suit cases; 3 coats from $75 suits; 4 suits of wool underwear; 15 pairs of wool socks, a lot of handkerchiefs, lot of neckties, 2 pairs of of high priced shoes and a dozen silk shirts are missing, and perhaps other merchandise. The store has lost at least $1500 by robbery the past few years. It is thought that local talent turned the trick, as the thief or thieves knew just where to go for their wants.
