Captain Chas. Rich, master of the Tannenberg, a German freighter taken over from Germany, was here a few days ago, a guest of relatives, Mrs. L. Sinclair and family. He loaded out with wheat for the United Kingdom. The captain was here 30 years ago, and when he left the port of Portland broke the record for a wheat cargo. While here, Capt. Rich gave a little party aboard ship at which were Mrs. Sinclair, John, Robt. Chas. Geo., Eliza and Mrs. Perry Stream.

The Women's Choral Society held its first recital Monday evening, with Mr. Petri directing. Twenty-eight ladies were present and took part with enthusiasm. Two new voices sang with the sopranos—Miss Eva Simpson and Miss Pearl LaSelle. The next rehearsal will be held Oct. 11.

Gilgian Hager, of above Mountaineer, was over to the county seat Saturday afternoon.
