

CHAMBERLAIN COMING

Geo. E. Chamberlain will be to the people of Hillsboro, Wednesday afternoon, October 20. Senator Chamberlain was governor of the state and did yeoman service in his handling of the school and his record was so good that he became very influential. As a friend of the American soldier and sailor in the world he made himself the champion of their necessities. You are invited to hear the report of his work. Chamberlain was in the city for an hour yesterday afternoon and was much gratified at the cordial reception given him. Turn out and hear him next Wednesday afternoon.

HOLDS HIM WITH GUN

Walter Fuller, of Cedar Rapids, is here and aside from that he is a help to peace officers. He alleges he found her husband violating a provision of the state the other day and she took down the old family shotgun, and held it on the husband. Sheriff Alexander appeared on the scene. When she covered him with the shooting iron she seemed for help, and Bert Jones, who lives near them, ran to see what was wanted. He saw her holding the husband a prisoner and she asked him to hold him for the sheriff. She was still holding him when Alexander arrived. The husband says the wife told him to stick his head out when he put it out of a window. And he did. They have two young children. A young girl is to be mixed in the case.

Geo. Hagwood, of Durham, landed up on moonshine the other day and while feeling elated called on a widow, who resented his attentions, with the result that Deputy Redmond went down and shot him to jail. The woman drove Hagwood off with a gun. He is now deliberating over the folly of too much moonshine.

Want money: M. B. Hathaway sues Breidemeier & Blair for $1848 for timber furnished and logs cut; John Medel sues C. W. Wilson for $121.50 for work done on labor account. John Schaefer sues Washington Lodge of Odd Fellows on a promissory note for $1000; J. C. Kuratli sues Anna and L. Deleye for $475 alleged commission due on sale of the Deleye place near Bethany; Elizabeth Wheaton sues Mrs. Augusta Spencer to pay her $1000 damages for telling Dist. Attorney Tongue that Mrs. Wheaton whipped the little daughter of Mrs. Spencer. Mrs. Wheaton says she has been libelled and the alleged slander has caused her grief and humiliation among her friends of the Evangelical church; Annie Young sues J. F. Stroud and Ida Carroll for $1250, alleging that a place she bought from Ida Carroll was not on the lines claimed prior to the purchase, and excludes buildings she thought was on the property.

Farmers' Mutual Insurance is best—Farmers are finding out that insurance in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Relief Assn. costs 60 per cent less than in commercial companies. The Assn. has $8,000,000 at risk and saves $25,000 annually to its members. Operated for the benefit of farmers. When ready to insure, notify H. C. Pearson, Box 173, Hillsboro, Ore. 21-34

John Dennis writes from Kery, Ore., sending for another year of the home paper. He says: "Don't think I will be able to get over before we close down for the year. We are running a pretty big camp at present. It seems strange to me when I see no kick about city election. That was one of our big events when I was in Hillsboro. About the only one I can talk over old times with is Jack Bailey when he comes over and at those times I'm so busy telling him about the big catches of fish I almost make, that we overlook many things. Some of these days I am coming over and talk over old times with all the boys."

Some fine bargains in homes—several residence properties, and many cannot be built for $1000 or more than asked. Some good buys in land. Farms already for work, fully equipped. Have buyer who wants from 20 to 40 acres of fine soil near highway or rock road. Have you got it? Come in and let's talk it over.—G. N. Taggart, 1168 Third St., Washington Hotel Bldg. 30-32

Orrin A. Zimmerman died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Zimmerman, of south of Blooming, Oct. 10, 1920. He was born at West Union, Ohio, Jan. 13, 1878. He is survived by his parents, two brothers, George, Gold Hill, Ore., and Ivan, at home, and one sister. The funeral took place from the Zimmerman home yesterday and interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery, Undertaker Bell directing. He was a nephew of Minnie Hank, the grand opera singer, well known here in olden days.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Last week was a big week for Hills. Wednesday evening, the school board met and gave their permission for the high school to hold three school dances and programs, during the school year. Thursday, classes were organized, and officers elected.

Saturday, the football team journeyed to Oregon City, and were defeated by the fast Oregon City team, 19-0. During the first half, we were out played in every angle of the game, but in the second half coach Francis made several changes in the lineup, and the team held their own and were in scoring distance most of the time, but lacked the necessary punch to put the ball over.

October 16, we will play Vancouver, at Vancouver, and with the help of our new assistant coach, Mr. McClure, an Eastern college man, and with Bill Bagley and Oscar Hamburg back in the lineup, we hope to win a victory for H. H. S.

October 13, was Ribbon day and the Hills girls showed the real spirit. The assembly room was brightened with flashy ribbons pinned or tied on the hair of the feminine portion of the school.

This week closed the contest between the classes in selling season tickets. The Juniors won the contest. It was due to the hard work of Evelyn Wall, that the Juniors were the first to go over the top.

Miss Frances Mahon entertained a few of her friends with a dancing party, Wednesday evening, October 6. Late in the evening refreshments were served. Those present were: Gladys Merrill, Flossie Shiedel, Evelyn Wall, Violet Webber, Frances Mahon, Conway Carter, Edward Wall, Percy Black, Leon Barrett and Earl Carter.
