

HARDING—WEATHERED

A pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sholes, of Cornelius, Wednesday evening, October 20, when Miss Lucy Weathered was united in marriage to Lieut. Harding, U. S. N., stationed at Bremerton. Rev. Len R. Fishback officiated. The bride was gown in ivory satin, draped with full length train. She wore a veil of orange blossoms, and a string of pearls, the gift of her groom. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and Lilies of the Valley. Mrs. Bruce Schuler, of Portland, was the Matron of Honor, and wore her wedding gown. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Thad Sweet, of Seattle, officiated as best man. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and greenery, and the dining table was beautiful with white chrysanthemums in silver setting. After the reception the wedding party was seated to a delightful dinner. Telegrams were received from the East extending congratulations.

After a month in California Lt. and Mrs. Harding will reside at Bremerton, Wash., where Lt. Harding is a surgeon at the Navy Yard. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Weathered, and was born and reared in Hillsboro. A host of friends join in congratulations.

ELKS DANCE

The Elks of Hillsboro and vicinity will give a dance at Moose Hall, on Friday evening, October 20. Tickets, $1, plus war tax.

GEO. BANTZ SR.

George Bantz Sr. died Tuesday, Oct. 19, 1920, at the Dr. Smith Hospital, in this city. He was born in Saxony Province, in July, 1842, and emigrated to America in 1864, settling in Iowa, where he married Mary Burgin, who died three years ago. They came to Portland in 1879, through the influence of Johnson Poulson, of the Inman-Poulson Co., and resided in the Rose City until 1890, when they bought a farm in Shady Brook, two miles from North Plains.

He is survived by the following children—Gen. and Edwin Bantz, at home; Oscar, of Portland, and Mrs. E. J. Sewing, of Forlysee, Neb.

Mr. Bantz was a man of exemplary character and habits, and enjoyed a wide range of reading. The funeral took place at two o'clock at the Tuatlatin Plains Church, Rev. Skipworth conducting the service. Interment was under the direction of Undertaker Bell.

CARD OF THANKS

We extend our sincere thanks to all who so kindly tendered aid and sympathy during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of our mother, the late Mrs. Iris B. Adams, and return especial thanks for the floral tributes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Yocum, R. M. Case, Mrs. Naomi Maxwell, Mrs. Alice Klineman.

Mrs. Mary Ledford, of Fir St., Oregon pioneer, was stricken by paralysis yesterday morning, and is in a critical condition. Her many friends hope for her recovery.

A Girls' Club

has been partially organized for the purpose of creating a social program for this winter. The meeting was held at the home of Helen Vaughn, those who attended were Valerie Bagley, Geraldine Cockrell, Marie Rushlow, Vernice Trullinger, Olive Trullinger, Vida McDonough, Helen Vaughn and Violet Webber. Plans were discussed for the future, and an entertainment will be given soon at the Liberty Theatre. Many girls have been invited to become members, and the organization will number about twenty. The next meeting will be held at the home of Valerie Bagley—Violet Webber, reporter.

Farmers' Mutual Insurance is best—Farmers are finding out that insurance in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Relief Assn. costs 60 per cent less than in commercial companies. The Assn. has $8,000,000 at risk and saves $25,000 annually to its members. Operated for the benefit of farmers. When ready to insure, notify H. C. Pearson, Box 173, Hillsboro, Ore. 21-34

Two young lads of good families have been taking spot lights from automobiles, and one of them admitted his guilt yesterday to Chief Larsen. Some other youngsters entered the Hillsboro Trading Co. warehouse and opened several barrels of stock molasses, doing much damage through loss. The officers will watch out for lads running out late at night, and an endeavor will be made to keep them in bounds with the aid of parents.

For Sale—Small house, equipped with gas and electricity, barn, chicken house; on lot 100x150 feet at Orenco; 30 fruit trees; 3 blocks from carline; sidewalk to property; $1,000, part cash.—See Webfoot Realty. 33

Initiative measure number 310 on the ballot to be voted in November will give to Oregon a port equal to any port on the Pacific Coast. You are vitally interested in the passage of this bill. It will not increase your taxes. The cost is borne by the Port of Portland, but all Oregon must vote on the measure. Vote 310 YES on the ballot November second.—Paid Adv., Oregon Port Development League, Portland, Oregon.

Wilkins' Jazy orchestra, of Tillamook and Rockaway, will give dances as follows: Hillsboro, Moose Hall, Saturday, Oct. 16; Beaverton, Tuesday, Oct. 19; Banks, Friday, Oct. 22; Hillsboro, Moose Hall, Saturday, Oct. 23. Tickets, $1.10, including tax; ladies, 10c. 32-34

Central Church of Christ, Third and Baseline—Bible School at 10, Dr. Helms, Supt.; preaching at 11, "Are We Right Minded?" Junior and Intermediate Endeavor, 6:45; "The Second Coming of Christ," 7:30. Good music under leadership of Mr. Mahoney.—Len R. Fishback, Minister.

SENATOR TALKS

Senator Chamberlain made a splendid address at the court house yesterday afternoon, reviewing his work in the United States Senate. The Senator was in his old form, and reviewed the legislation affecting the great war and the part that he took in it. His address was well received, and he materially strengthened himself here. He left in the evening for McMinnville, where he delivered an address at 8 o'clock. The Senator has visited every county in the state, and has met with a cordial reception at all points.

MRS. MARY R. BAIRD

Mrs. Mary R. Baird, well known in Hillsboro, died at Seattle, on Wednesday, October 20, 1920, at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Richards, whom she was visiting. Mrs. Baird made her home in Hillsboro several years, later moving to Portland. Her maiden name was Mary Tupper, and she was born in Polk County fifty-one years ago. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Peter Olson, of Idaho, and Mrs. Grace Hanson, of Bend. Of her immediate family she is survived by two brothers and one sister—William Tupper, Hillsboro; Chas. Tupper, of Yakima, and Mrs. Emma Endicott, of Santa Rosa, Cal.

The funeral will be held at Seattle.

HARTWICK—RAFFETY

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. J. J. Staub, 963 East Taylor St., Portland, October 16, 1920, when Miss Wanda Raffety was united in marriage to Ferd Hartwick, the contracting parties residing near Banks. Those witnessing the event were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Nelson, of Portland, and Frank Hartwick, a brother of the groom. The union was the culmination of a courtship which extended over a number of years, during the uncertainties of the world war, the groom having been in the service of the country.

After the ceremony the happy couple went to Seattle for their honeymoon, after which they will be at home to their friends at their residence near Banks. The Argus joins a host of friends in congratulations.

HENRY H. MALLER

Henry H. Maller, of near Banks, died Tuesday, Oct. 19, 1920, at the family home of Jos. Kopplin, at Forest Grove. Mr. Maller had started to the East, when he took sick at Spokane. Mr. Kopplin, who was going with him, returned home with Mr. Kopplin, who passed away Tuesday morning, at 1:30. He was born in New York, June 19, 1853. He lived there until he was a young man, when he moved to Wisconsin, where he resided until he was 23 years of age, and then moved to Iowa, where he was married in 1883, to Libbie M. Cole. They moved to South Dakota that year, and in 1902 moved to Oregon. He ran a sawmill near Banks, on the site of his present farm. He is survived by his widow and the following children—Harry, Roy E., Clarence and Lester, all of Banks. A daughter died in infancy. Of his immediate family he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Meyers, Chicago; Mrs. Helen Foreman, Kenosha, Wis.; and three brothers, Casper, of the Alberta; Nicholas, of Wisconsin, and John, of Iowa.

He was highly esteemed in the community in which he lived. The funeral took place at Roy, today, and interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

DIVIDED SESSION

"The Divided Session Amendment will be passed with an overwhelming majority if the people understand how it will work," declares Oswald West, former Governor of Oregon, who is ardently advocating the passage of the measure. "Anyone who has seen the professional machine politicians jamb through legislation filled with jokers during the closing midnight hours of the session will appreciate the necessity for some measure which will give the people an opportunity to express themselves.

"All this measure does," declared Mr. West, "is to provide for a referendum on all legislative bills without the expense of a referendum election. During the first 40 days of the session the legislature must pass or reject all of the measures. They then return to their homes for 60 days and then re-convene at the State Capitol, where they again pass upon the measures which they have tentatively adopted at the first period. During the 60 days the people will have an opportunity of studying these bills which have been approved, and it will make it impossible for the legislature to pass freak or obnoxious laws, as has been done many times in Oregon, without the people knowing about it. It means the end of machine politicians' rule and Moser, Day and men of their ilk can no longer jimmy our legislators either from within or without, and it is the death knell of the jokers which are cleverly slid in in the closing midnight hours of the session."

Mr. Piper, of the Oregonian, is supporting the measure.

HINCKLEY CAUGHT

H. R. Hinckley, the young ex-service man who wrote and cashed a number of bad checks in this city a few days ago was caught in Portland Tuesday night and brought to the county jail by Sheriff Alexander. Young Hinckley cashed in between one and two hundred dollars on his bad paper and then skipped out. A few days ago it is said that he married a girl who worked at the Meier & Frank store, and enjoyed a responsible position. It is said that the young man played on her sympathies by exhibiting a telegram that his mother was dead, when, as a matter of fact, his mother lives in Hillsboro.

His case will be taken before the grand jury as soon as it convenes. Hinckley is still in his teens and is a nice looking kid—just such a lad as would disarm anyone from being suspicious.

THE KREBS'

J. J. Krebs, manager of the Hotel Elmore, at Rockaway beach, is at the Hotel Oregon with Mrs. Krebs. The beach season at Rockaway, and at all the Tillamook resorts, was very successful this year, for the rains held off until practically the very end of the outing season. The beach population is still considerable, owing to the operation of various mills in the vicinity, and about every house that can be rented is occupied. There is need at Rockaway for scores of cottages for the summer visitors, the demand being far in excess of the supply.—Wednesday's Oregonian.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly tendered aid and sympathy during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late Edith Van Lom Wunderlich, wife and daughter, and return especial thanks for the beautiful floral tributes at the funeral.

Chas. A. Wanderlich, J. H. VanLom and Family, Centerville, Ore., Oct. 20, 1920.

Tractor Plowing—Want about 35 or 40 acres plowed with tractor; north of old Columbia Academy.—Mrs. J. B. Hanley, Hillsboro, R. 3. Phone 31RX3. 34

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Eischen, of Iowa Hill, were city visitors yesterday.

Taken Up—Black heifer, aged about 8 months. Came to my place Friday, Oct. 1. Owner may have same by proving property and paying charges.—Guy Martin, Witch Hazel; on S. P. Electric. 31-33

Rev. W. A. M. Breck, who has many times held services in All Saints Episcopal Guild House, died in Portland the first of the week. The remains were shipped to Wisconsin for interment, and were accompanied East by Bishop Sumner.

For sale: A fine mahogany Victor piano, almost new. Will sell it at a sacrifice at $350 for cash. Worth double the money.—Joe Postill, Hillsboro, R. 1; Box 162. 32-34

Mrs. Joe. F. Ungar, of Helvetia, fell one day last week and dislocated an elbow. Dr. E. H. Smith is caring for the injury.

Vetch Seed for Sale.—F. H. Bowlby, Cornelius, Ore., R. 2. Phone 28R2. 32-35

Engineer Norgan, of Portland, is operating the big steam shovel for the county at the fill south of the span across the Tuatlatin River, on Jackson Bottom. He is operating on the West side of the fill, and has a fireman and a helper, and the crew of three are putting up more fill than quite a number of teams. Unless high water interferes the work will continue right along. Later the shovel will be taken up near the Lisco place and earth will be hauled to the fill.

Zina Wood, who has been in the dairy business for a number of years, has concluded that he is going to retire from the game, and will have a public sale. He has been dairying ever since he went out of growing hops—and he says it is time to take a rest. His milk product has been sold by Hillsboro milk dealers, and the quality of milk attests a fine herd.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Third and Washington (The Church of the Friendly Greeting) Walton Skipworth, pastor.—9:45 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., sermon, "A Great Man's Remembrance of a Friend;" 6:30 p. m., Epworth and Intermediate Leagues; 7:30 p. m., sermon, "A Great Man's Counsel to his Son;" choir practice Wednesday evening; prayer meeting Thursday evening.

Congregational Church—Bible School at 10 a. m. At 11 a. m., Dr. J. H. Matthews, of Seattle, District Religious Educational Secretary, will speak. The evening service will be in the interest of the young people of the church. Light refreshments will be served at 6:30 p. m. The program begins at 7:30, and there will be special music. Addresses by Dr. Matthews and Mr. Z. Olson.—H. A. Deck, minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heckmann, who have conducted a store at Bethany for nearly 13 years, have sold out to Geo. Downs, of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Heckmann will move to Portland and reside at 573 Holman St. For some time Mr. Heckmann's health has not been the best, and he seeks a change.

Progressive everbearing, 999 Giant and Marshal strawberry plants for sale. Irrigated all summer. If set now will bear early in spring. Far superior to baby rooted plants that must grow roots before fruiting.—R. E. Sutherland, Hillsboro, Ore. Directly west of town, on Highway. Phone 2223.

The Buxton depot was broken into by transients Saturday night, and Sheriff Alexander picked up five chaps who were beating their way down on the train. He found nothing on them to warrant holding, but kept them for a day or so to see if they might be wanted elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thayer, of Minneceap, guests the past week at the C. A. Hande home, departed Tuesday for San Diego, Cal., going overland in their Buick. They expect to encounter some bad road in Southern Oregon, and then have clear sailing into the sunshine state.

The milk market is more or less demoralized in the Willamette Valley just now, but dairymen say the demand is just as big as ever for the product. It is thought that the fight against the Dairymen's League has much to do with the situation.

Ed. Kaufman, of Helvetia, was in the city Tuesday. Ed brought in four potatoes grown by George Trimble, and the quartet tipped the scales at five pounds, each of them as smooth as an apple. They are Rural New Yorkers, and of the white variety.

The Lumbermen's Trust Co., of Portland, is the successful bidder for $57,000 worth of Forest Grove's city bonds. The money will be used to pay off indebtedness incurred through improvements.

Judge Smith this week fined R. F. Wilson and E. E. McClure, of Portland, for speeding near Beaverton, last Sunday. They were fined $15 each. Patrolman Stockdale brought the drivers to court.

For Sale—Vetch and oat seed, cleaned and ready for seeding.—R. J. Schwanke, Cornelius, Route 1; near Shefflin station. Phone Hillsboro, 8R16. 33-35

Lutheran services Sunday afternoon next at 2 o'clock, at the Advent Church, on Baseline St. All are welcome.—Paul H. Schaus, Pastor.

The Welfare Community Club met at the home of Mrs. P. I. Lillegard, Oct. 14. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Armstrong's Oct. 28.

Raymond Beeler lost the end of his little finger Monday at the Gates plant, South Third. Dr. E. H. Smith attended the injury.

W. T. Sellers, of Banks, was in town Tuesday, and paid the Argus a friendly call.

Ed. Wolf, of Beaverton, R. 3, near Scholls, was a city caller Tuesday.
