

NOTED CHARACTER PASSES IN CITY

Wm. McQuillan, Died at His Home Tuesday Morning

MEMBER OF OREGON BAR

Had Fondness for a Good Horse and Good Dog

William McQuillan, aged 62 years, for many years a noted character in Washington County, died at his home on Second and Oak Sts., Nov. 2, 1920, after an illness covering a period of several months. He was of Scotch descent, and came to Oregon when a young man. He studied law in the offices of the late Congressman Tongue, and was admitted to the bar, although he never practiced. He owned a farm on the Tualatin River for many years but finally sold it at a good figure and retired. Coming to Hillsboro he bought the home in which he died, from F. J. Bailey. He has spent several years in California, and has a niece and nephew in San Mateo, Cal.

McQuillan was a bachelor, and the California relatives are the only ones known here. Mr. McQuillan was a man of strength of character, and had great faith in the future of Hillsboro. He purchased the Tualatin Hotel from H. Foote, and shortly afterward sold it to the Weils, who razed the building and erected their fine department store structure. McQuillan said when he bought the place that it was too good a site to waste a hotel on, and predicted that he would sell it at a good advance on the purchase price.

He was very fond of work connected with the sheriff's office, and did much deputy work during the last few years of his life. He was a devoted friend, a great lover of a good horse, and a man of rare judgment as to real estate values.

Undertaker Limber has charge of the remains.

L. H. Peters was in from above North Plains Monday.

Geo. Anderson, of Cornelius, was down to the city Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Persinger, of Helvonia, was in the city Monday on probate affairs.

J. H. Dorland, of Shady Brook, greeted friends in the city the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reilly, of near Orengo, were city visitors Monday morning.

A. P. Patten, of Lincoln High's corps of instructors, was out Saturday afternoon, greeting Hillsboro friends.

Herman J. Luck, of above Mountindale, was a city caller Saturday, and remembered the family paper in his calls.

L. C. Hoefel, of near Reedville, was in town Saturday. L. C. still keeps busy with his poultry raising, and now has one of the largest yards in the county.

MRS. E. WUNDERLICH

Mrs. Elizabeth Wunderlich, widow of the late C. P. Wunderlich, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Veronica Meier, of Salem, Oct. 28, 1920. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Zbler, and she was born in Germany, March 1, 1852, and came to America in 1868. She was married to Mr. Wunderlich at St. Louis, Mo., and from there they went to Kansas. The family came to Oregon in 1894, settling first in Tillamook. Later they moved to south of Cornelius, and afterward bought a home at Centerville, which has been Mrs. Wunderlich's home ever since. The husband died Nov. 11, 1919.

Mrs. Wunderlich was a woman of splendid character and worth, and had a host of friends. The funeral took place at the Verboort Catholic church, and she was laid at rest by the side of her husband. The following children survive: Mrs. Kate Winters, Denver, Col.; Mrs. Caroline Arnold, Denver, Col.; John Wunderlich, Banks; Joseph Wunderlich, attending U. of O. Medical College; Sister Odella, Portland; Charles Wunderlich, Centerville; Sister Perpetua, Portland, and Mrs. Veronica Meier, Salem.

The obsequies and interment were conducted by Undertaker Bell.

Alfred Heywood, of beyond Oak Park, was in the city Saturday.

Herman Wetzel, of near the Road bridge, was a city visitor Monday.

C. W. Spierings, owner of the former Berggren place, was in the city Monday.

Donald E. Long, of Seattle, Wash., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Long.

County Clerk Henry Kuratli has moved from Third and Oak to one of the bungalows owned by E. I. Kuratli.

Mrs. Martha McLeod, of Portland, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. M. A. Powell, Sunday. Mrs. McLeod still owns her property at Dille.

Wm. Reid, "father of the Third Oregon," was in town from Portland, Monday, on business at the court house. Billy is always welcome in old Hillsboro.

Do not fail to attend the big special dance—"You know the Kind We Used to Have"—at the Moose Hall, Saturday night, Nov. 6. Music by Schlegel's 4-piece orchestra.

F. A. Harberg, of Portland, was out the last of the week. F. A. has travelled over every road in the county years ago, when he was buying stock for the butcher block, and he has not forgotten the trails and highways.

For Sale—Three Hosten bull calves, pure-bred, eligible to registry; dams producing from 60 to 70 lbs milk under ordinary herd care; sire, Aggie Calanthé Pontiac, Rag Apple, a 30 1/2 lb. sire. LOCAL CONDENSER CARING FOR MILK

Forest Grove Factory to Take a Rest

ALL PRODUCT BROT HERE

Equipment of Hillsboro Plant Can Care for All

The Hillsboro plant of the Carnation Company will take care of the milk supply this winter, as the Forest Grove condenser has shut down, perhaps temporarily, and perhaps for all time. It is said that the plant at Carnation will not be dismantled, but will be put in such a state of repair that it can be utilized should emergency require it. Meantime all milk bought by the company is being brought to the Hillsboro plant, which is as finely equipped as any on the coast.

Salem—In less than ten months of this year, Salem's building record showed an increase of more than 300 per cent when compared with figures for the entire year of 1919. Thus far $444,940 has been expended in erection of new homes and other buildings.

Growers find profit in sunflowers, picking out the best heads from the best plants and saving for next year's seed. The sunflower heads are put in a dry place, protected from rodents or birds, and the seed may be shelled off when dry enough.—Farm Crops, O. A. C.

The Postoffice Department is calling for bids for combined mail messenger service between the Hillsboro postoffice and both the city station and the Main St. depot of the Tillamook line of the Southern Pacific Railway; it being the intention of the Department, where it is found advisable, to provide mail messenger service in lieu of the service now rendered by the railroad company. Full particulars and blank forms for bids may be obtained from the postmaster.

GRANGE FAIR

To the Editor of the Argus—

Having been invited to be one of the judges at the Leedy Grange Fair, which was held at Cedar Mill, Friday and Saturday of last week, can not refrain from giving to the general public my personal praise of the local enterprise. It was indeed a great surprise to me, when viewing the splendid exhibits in each department.

Those in charge certainly deserve much praise for the manner in which this fair was installed and conducted. Such an exhibition is of unlimited community benefit. The children's school and club exhibit would have done credit to a much larger fair. Knowing fairs and what constitutes good exhibits, it is my opinion that this was the best little local fair ever held in the county. What pleased me most of all was the interest manifested by all who attended and their determination to back it for next year, making a still larger and better fair in 1921. There is positively no argument against the benefit to a community in which such a fair is held. Leedy Grange has done itself proud, and I am sure each and every member feels that this splendid exhibit of resources and household skill was worth the while.

The city is contemplating the purchase of a little boiler or cooker, in order to put a dressing over holes in the street pavement after they are filled—something like the county used on the Hillsboro-Forest Grove road when the tar-bound pave was laid. There are already several holes in the pavement on Main, East of Third, that need attention.

GRAND CHANCELLOR CLARK VISITS HERE

Makes Official Call on Pythian Lodge—Lodge Noted Over State

PAYS TRIBUTE TO THE BOYS

Promises to Return Several Times During the Year

Grand Chancellor Clark, Knights of Pythias, Domain of Oregon, in company with Walter Gleason, Grand Keeper of Records & Seal, made Phoenix Lodge No. 34, Knights of Pythias, an official call Monday night. Dr. L. W. Hyde, chancellor commander of the local lodge, presided, and under the escort of Past Chancellor Wm. Nelson, the executive of the Oregon Domain was ushered into the hall. The grand officer and his companion were seated by Chancellor Hyde, and after the usual order of business was concluded Grand Chancellor Clark delivered his official address. He approved the recent legislation, putting the age limit of 21 aside and permitting membership from young men over the age of 18 years. He predicted a rapid growth for the order the coming year and stated that the Supreme Chancellor will be in Portland the last of the month, when the Pythians expect a big class for the first rank of the order, and the Hillsboro lodge was asked to bring in a class of 50 to join the Portlanders.

Walter B. Gleason made a splendid address, and after he concluded, there were several talks by local members.

The Pythian order now has a membership of over 800,000, and Oregon alone has 11,000. By the end of 1921 an effort will have been made to put the order up to the million mark.

This fraternal organization bases its great work with human lives on the principle of friendship, and has had a remarkable growth. It was founded at the close of the Civil War, and consequently gained a big membership both North and South and has effected a great work in the conjoining of the two sections which struggled five years ago against the other in one of the greatest conflicts of the centuries up to that date. The devotees of the order healed many wounds. The castle hall in the North was a refuge for the man of the South, and the hall in the South was a home for the Northerner where his personal ideas were permitted to be his own. Today, Pythians have lived to see this friendship cemented and the sons of Knights of Pythias, both North and South, fighting side by side, for the preservation of the world's security.

Phoenix Lodge will at once start a campaign. The lodge now has nearly two hundred of a membership, and this will be largely increased within the next few months.

Auxiliary to the Pythian Lodge is the Pythian Sister Temple, which has a big membership. The two lodges really form the great family center of the city, and to attend a function like that given by the Pythian Sisters on Hallow'en night, is a privilege that can only be appreciated by attendance.

Central Church of Christ, corner Third and Baseline—Bible School, Dr. Helms, Supt. "A class for everyone." 11 a. m., "The Golden Text of the Bible;" 6:45, Junior and Intermediate Endeavor. There will be an "object lesson" presented by the pastor at the Junior meeting. 7:30, a Parable, "The Handle or the Axe." Don't miss the evening song service.—Len B. Fishback, minister.

Fred F. Hughes, of Hughes & Son, poultry raiser in the registered strains, brought in some of the finest Farmer Hastings potatoes seen this season. Two of them weigh 2 3/4 lbs. each, and they were as smooth as a Burbank. One hill weighed 12 lbs. He also brought in a fine specimen of beet. The vegetables were grown in the city. One of his White Leghorn hens, Tancred strain, laid 303 eggs in 12 months, and this is a pretty good record, considering that the world record is 330. Another laid 294 in the first 12 months of her laying, and 319 eggs in one continuous laying, trap nest record. His flock averaged 204 eggs each in 12 months. No one goes broke with production like this.
