BOARD COMPLETES THE OFFICIAL COUNT

Harding's Plurality in the County Reaches 2686; Under Estimate

PROHIBITION GETS A SMALL VOTE

Industrial Labor Vote Lands 51 Adherents—Socialist Gets 261

The canvassing board, consisting of L. A. Jackson, of Cornelius, D. E. Wheeler, Aloha, and Deputy Clerk E. C. Luce, have completed the official count of the ballots cast November 2. Harding's majority was 2686, or 2314 less than that predicted by the party oracle. Stanfield, for Senator, defeated Chamberlain in the county vote by 1362 of a plurality.

The Oleo bill carried the county by 28 votes, but was lost in the state. The four-year term of office for clerk, sheriff, etc., was carried by 531 votes, and the measure to allow Portland to sell port bonds, etc., was carried by 474, although beaten in the state. These were the only measures carried in the county. The four per cent interest bill was beaten overwhelmingly, the vote in the county carrying a majority of 4,000 lacking 2.

BIG BUILDING YEAR FOR COUNTY SEAT

Business Structures and Many Homes Erected

GARDEN TRACT HAS BOOM

Cannery Building and Equipment Big Feature

Hillsboro has had a genuine year in building construction, both in industrial and residential lines, and it is safe to call it a banner year. The greatest investment in this regard was the Ray-Maling cannery, on Baseline, and this represented an investment of practically $900,000, building and machinery, and its installation has meant much to growers of fruits and vegetables.

The next largest investment in a business building is the Tamesie Garage, on Main St., East of the Hotel Washington. This is soon to be occupied by Peterson Bros. Garage and Auto Sales business. The floors are now being laid and the handsome structure will soon be ready for occupancy. The brick built by Percy Long, adjoining his Hardware Store on the north, on Second St., is another nice business improvement. He also added a new front to his old brick building.

At least 50 new homes have been built in the city, the finest building being that of Dr. S. M. Reagan, on Baseline, between Fourth and Fifth. The Garden Tracts has had a big building boom, R. L. Tueker having the finest structure, on the site of the old Peters' home.

State Industrial Notes—

Portland—The Columbia River Highway completed from here to Astoria.
Portland—Stauffer Chemical company to locate here.
Corvallis—New service building planned for college.
Corvallis—Highway to be paved from here to West Side highway.
Roseburg—Apples to be shipped from here to England, Scotland and Sweden.
Medford—200,000 gallons of apple juice to be shipped this fall.
Vernonia—2,000,000 feet of Douglas fir sold to Portland and Seattle capitalists. Logging operations to begin with completion of Eccles railroad.
Hood River—With keen demand for homes and present drop in lumber prices, building boom is expected here.
Portland—Crews working day and night clearing site for new Stauffer Chemical company, which is to locate a branch in Portland, on the Columbia Engineering works property at Linton.

Next after England, Japan and China export more fir from the United States than do any other countries. In 1919, Douglas fir exports to China were valued at $1,497,921; to Japan, at $1,045,681.

Portland—United States mail wagons for territory west of the Mississippi will again be built by Wentworth & Irwin, of Portland.

Bend—Hundreds of thousands of acres of lodge pole pine and Jack pine in Central Oregon, valueless for timber, may become a foundation of a good grade of commercial paper.

In a class by themselves compared with vessels employed in the merchant marine service on the Pacific Coast, is the way J. D. Gilmour, of Seattle, supervising engineer for the Admiral Line fleet of steamers, classifies the new trans-Pacific Shipping Board liners recently allotted to the Admiral Line for operation on its Oriental freight and passenger service. When commissioned they will be the finest appointed passenger and freight combination vessels afloat anywhere, as far as appointments, furnishings and conveniences are concerned.

Eggs produced in this state now occupy a position on the New York market, second only to the well known Petaluma eggs.

Salem—Phez company has increased capital stock to 4,000,000.
Medford—200,000 gallons of apple juice will be shipped out of here this year.
Corvallis—New $20,000 bakery just opened here.
Portland—From ice cream tubs to wooden toys is the jump the Champion Manufacturing company has taken in adding to its output.

P. R. Dickinson, who has just completed a neat job of lathing for the Liberty Theatre improvements, remembered the Argus for another year, Saturday.

O. A. C. NOTES

The Fleur-de-Lis will be known as the Delta Kappa fraternity in the future, having been granted a local by the student affairs committee of the college. This house was organized on the campus more than a year ago by a group of returned overseas veterans, among them being several men from Hillsboro.

It is reported that this is record time for the granting of a local, and the men are naturally proud of their progress. They have a new home within a minute's walk of the campus, considered one of the best of the number.

Hillsboro men instrumental in the formation of this fraternity are Frank Rollins, Charles Deichman, James Mahon, Haskell Carter, Verne McKinney, James Imbrie, William Dierdorff and Henry Stohler. Leon Allen and Lawrence Taggart are others who have come in since the club was organized.

Ivor Erwin, well known in Hillsboro, where he played on the Inter-City league ball team, is a pledge of Delta Kappa fraternity.

John Dierdorff, Charles Buchanan and Miss Verene Shute, of the University of Oregon, were in the college town to see the Aggie and California teams battle on the gridiron Saturday, October 30. Dierdorff, who is an Owl club man at the university, was the week-end guest of his brother at Delta Kappa.

"Olympia Oyster Cocktails"—The Den of Sweets.

W. G. Walker, of Banks, was greeting friends here Saturday.

M. M. Mead, of above North Plains, was in town Monday.

E. L. Mapes, of Chehalis Mt., near Laurel, was a circuit court visitor Monday.

R. H. Hanson, of Beaverton, R. 4, called on the family paper the last of the week.

Chas. Geiberger, of Tualatin, was in town Monday. Geiberger has spent many years building roads down his way.

J. C. McDonald, who has been making Hillsboro for his insurance companies for nearly 20 years, was a city caller Monday.

Taken Up—Yearling Holstein heifer. Owner may have same by proving property, paying charges, and taking same away.—Harry Hansen, Portland, Ore R. 2. Telephone 14RX, Hillsboro. 36

John Herb, who has been running the county quarry at Manning, has finished his duties for the year and has moved back to Verboort. He was in town Monday.

Mrs. E. Hughes departed Monday for an extended visit with friends at Albany. She will be joined there by her son, who has been in California for several weeks.

For Sale—Bay mare, 10 years; weighs about 1100; good working animal and good, safe driver.—Julius Coupe, Hillsboro, R. 4; on the J. T. Young place, on the highway, 1 mile west of Hillsboro. 35-36

All of the county officers, excepting that of county recorder, which is not a constitutional office, will hold for a term of four years instead of two, after qualifying next January. Many often wondered why that office was not included in the four-year salary bill—the real reason is that the constitution does not mention that particular office.

Roy Cook, of Cornelius, was in town Monday. He says that quite a bit of clover threshing has been done since the middle of last week, owing to bright weather. While the straw was badly rotted the seed was in fair shape and hulled easily. Several thousand dollars worth of seed has been saved, but many fields have been abandoned.

For Sale—Three Hostein bull calves, pure-bred, eligible to registry; dams producing from 60 to 70 lbs milk under ordinary herd care; sire, Aggie Calanthe Pontiac, Rag Apple, a 20 1/2 lb. sire. Price reasonable. Fine youngsters.—C. W. Spierings, Hillsboro, Ore. Route 2. Residence near North Plains. 35-36

Born, to John Ryan and wife, of Hillsboro, Nov. 8, 1920, a son. The mother and child are doing nicely, and Mail Carrier Ryan has been engaged in buying the cigars. This is their first child. L. G. McNew, of near Beaverton, and Mr. Wade, of Laurelwood, were taken into custody this week, both being deemed unsafe. They are paroled from the state hospital.

MCQUILLAN WILL FILED IN PROBATE

Provision to Take Care of and Educate Three Minor Children

C. W. REDMOND EXECUTOR

Testator Makes Will Characteristic of His Attitude

The last will and testament of the late William McQuillan, signed on May 29, 1920, was filed in probate court last week. He named as his executor, C. W. Redmond, and as the attorney for the estate, E. J. McAlcar, and sets forth that they shall each have 5 per cent. for handling the estate. The estate is valued at from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars and will perhaps exceed the latter figure.

After declaring that his just debts shall be paid and a suitable monument erected—the executor is to serve without bonds—he directs the executor to pay the following legacies:

Brother, John McQuillan, Ireland, $1000; brother, Peter McQuillan, $500; children, if any, of former, $500 each, and of latter, $250 each; to a niece, Mary Burns, San Francisco, and niece, Ann Collette, San Francisco, $1500 each; nephew, Martin Armstrong, San Francisco, $250; nephew, Joseph Armstrong, $250; nephew and niece, Jas. A. Lee and Mary J. Lawson, San Mateo, Cal., each $1; H. F. Reeve of Gilroy, $500, and an additional $500 for putting in a drinking fountain at Gilroy, Cal.

To the Cong. church, Hillsboro, $500, to be applied on any debt they may now have; $500 to the Portland Waverly Baby Home; to another brother, James McQuillan, if alive, $500 and $250 to each child, if any;

He gave $1,000 to Velma Wilkes, daughter of Mrs. Alice Wilkes, for her education and care;

To Lester Glascoe, $1,000 for his education, clothing, etc., and on reaching the age of 21, he is to have the residue; and providing, also, if estate has residue after legacies are paid these legatees are to have their clothing and expenses of education paid. The Glascoe boy is not to drink nor smoke, and this is left to the executor to administer. In case the executor is unable to follow out the provisions of the will with the Glascoe legacy, only a woman not a relative can succeed him.

The first Christmas after his death, Executor Redmond is to pay $250 for a Christmas for the poor and needy children of Hillsboro, the executor to use his own judgment as to presenting, and on the second year after death of testator the same sum is to be expended in the same manner.

The sum of $1,000 is left to the executor for the care of testator's dog, Nero.

He gave his piano to Mrs. Ralph Deaville.

A lad named Jason Crayne, who was cared for by the testator, is to have care and educational expenses provided the executor thinks he will become a good citizen.

The instrument gives the executor the right to sell any and all property without court orders, but asks only that he report action to the court. Mr. Redmond is to serve without bonds.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hammer were the witnesses to the will.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere thanks to all who so kindly tendered aid and sympathy during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of the wife and mother, the late Mrs. Nellie Reynolds Chapman, and return special thanks for the beautiful floral offerings.

S. M. Chapman, and Children.
