

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor.

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

There is no county in the state which can put up a better exhibit of production in many lines than this same old Washington County. It is time that we were inoculated with the spirit of the oldtimers like the late Robert Inubrie, and show Portland and the state, as well as some of our doubting ones, what we can do. In old days Portland had but twenty thousand to convince—today Portland has over a quarter of a million who are "ready to be shown." Let Hillsboro get busy.

A. D. Holland severed the left forefinger the other day, while chopping wood, north of town. Dr. E. H. Smith sewed the member together.

Peter Johnson, aged 72, a bachelor, was burned to death in a gasoline lamp fire the other evening. He lived two miles East of Tualatin.

Opening dance, at Dilley, Saturday evening, Nov. 20. Good floor and fine music.

Mrs. Edna Ingles, of Banks, was a Hillsboro visitor yesterday. A. D. Hill, of near Laurel, was in town Tuesday, greeting friends. Wanted—Second cook. Apply at 1144 Third St., Hillsboro, or phone 801.

J. C. Lamkin is taking an enforced vacation, having smashed one of his fingers, yesterday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Whitten, of West Union, Nov. 12, 1920, a son.

Born, Nov. 6, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pieron, of Helvetia, a daughter.

Marriage license have been granted Wilbur J. Clapshaw and Louise Donovan, of Banks, R. 1.

Albert S. Hall, of Portland, with the Oregon Dairy League, was in the city Monday, a guest at the Washington.

The last three days have been of the genuine "Chinook" variety, and a warm rain with south wind has added to the rainfall something like two inches. And duck hunters are correspondingly happy, for the birds are coming.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 10, a pleasant birthday surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Koeber, in honor of their daughter, Lylas. The evening was spent in games, and refreshments were served to the guests, who numbered about thirty. At a late hour those present departed, wishing the guest of honor many happy returns of the day.

For Sale—Vaughan drag-saw.

Jos. Wunderlich, attending U. of O. Medical School, Portland, called on the Argus the last of the week.

Wanted—Fair grade Holstein bull or grade Durham, yearling or two years.—C. Beglinger, Hillsboro, R. 5; near Newton. 37-39

Louis Schmidt, of near West Union, was a city caller Tuesday afternoon.

C. W. Jensen, of the Shorey place, above Mountindale, was an Argus caller Tuesday.

Anton Meuwissen, of near Banks, was in town Tuesday and remembered the Argus in his calls.

Theodore Vanderzanden, of near Roy, was greeting friends in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brosse have moved to Forest Grove, having sold their Hillsboro home.

E. L. Evens, of beyond Blooming, was an Argus caller the last of the week.

Harry Cook, of Cornelius, was down to Hillsboro Tuesday, greeting friends.

C. A. Carlson, of South Tualatin, was in town the last of the week.

C. E. Koontz and Cal Jack Jr. arrived home the last of the week from the Nehalem, where they were fishing for salmon. The weather was rather bad for good catches—but the boys had a lot of good cheer in camp while they waited in vain for higher water.

Farmers are planning to cover their potatoes much deeper than usual this year, in anticipation of, or rather, fending against another cold winter. Last year thousands of dollars worth of potatoes were frozen in pits and outhouses and the fact was disastrous, because potatoes were a big price. While they are much cheaper this Fall, this is but another reason for the exercise of care.

Col. S. C. Spencer, who owns a ranch at Dilley, shot his wife one day last week and then turned the revolver on himself, death ensuing instantly. Mrs. Spencer will live. Col. Spencer was well known here, and has practiced law in Portland many years, and occasionally tried a case in Hillsboro. Mrs. Spencer was the widow of the late Col. E. Edgerton Hogg, of Oregon Pacific fame. Despondency due to financial troubles is said to have caused Spencer to commit the rash act. Some years ago he suffered a mental breakdown and had never fully recovered. He was a brilliant lawyer, and was Colonel of the Oregon State Guard when T. T. Geer was governor.

Mrs. Florence Dodge has returned from a visit in the East.
