

DAVID—TRULLINGER

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. I. V. Trullinger, Wednesday evening, Nov. 17, 1920, when her daughter, Olive (Olsen), was united in marriage to Frederick A. David, Rev. H. A. Deck officiating.

The bride wore ruffled net over satin, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Vernice Trullinger, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore orchid corsage, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edward Wallace, of North Plains, was the groomsmen.

The house was decorated with white chrysanthemums, pink roses and fern. After the ceremony, the wedding party of fifty was seated to a delightful luncheon. The dining room was beautiful in yellow chrysanthemums, Oregon grape and greenery.

J. A. Kirkwood picked up a purse last Friday, at the road near the Zina Wood ranch, where a sale was in progress. J. B. Inlay was with Mr. Kirkwood when he picked up the receptacle, and it looked rather flat—but it was worth while. It contained a $100 currency note. Later he had the auctioneer announce the find at the sale, and then he hid to the Argus office to advertise it. Late that afternoon, after Tom Henton arrived home, he discovered that he was $100 loser. He came to town post haste in his machine, and soon had his money located. Henton is mighty lucky that some one found it who was willing to let the public know it.

"TAKE OFF YOUR HAT"

We, the undersigned, representing the emphatic opinion and sentiment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Women's Relief Corps, The United Spanish War Veterans and the American Legion, as found in Washington County, Oregon, respectfully submit—

That the respect for and to the "Flag of Our Country" is one of the indications of loyal American citizenship.

That when the "Colors" pass in parade, it is a courtesy and duty of citizenship to remove the hat as a token of respect, esteem and fealty to and for "Old Glory."

That overlooking conformity to this custom is due to neglect, ignorance or disloyalty.

That the United States has no room for the disloyal, and gladly aids the neglectful and ignorant.

That on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, 1920, in parades in Washington County, there were those who neglected and ignored this courtesy to "The Colors."

That it is our belief that most citizens are loyal, while many are neglectful or ignorant in not showing the proper courtesy to the flag.

Therefore, be it resolved, that this information be given to the press of the county with the hope and belief that the uniform courtesy to our flag, desired by all good citizens, will be realized in the future.

For the G. A. R., M. M. Bierly, Post Commander;

For the Women's Relief Corps,

Mrs. J. H. Garrett;

For the Spanish War Veterans,

H. S. Rogers, Dr. L. W. Hyde;

For the American Legion, A. H. Morgan, Commander.
