

HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor.

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

Yamhill County today has a governor. Our friend, Billy Vinton, is acting governor now, during the absence of Gov. Olcott in the East. Pardon us, Billy.

The Argus sincerely trusts we do not get down to Harding dollar wheat—but there are many who doubtless would like it, looking at that vote.

It was a hard week for the maker of hard "likker," judging from circuit court records.

The price of wheat is lower here in the U. S. than it is any where else in the world, computing from the home base—and this is evidence that there is a "nigger in the buyers' woodpile."

If hard work will get that state highway between Portland and the Nehalem, via Cedar Mill, North Plains, Banks and Buxton, it is as good as assured.

Central Church of Christ, corner Third and Baseline—10 a. m., Bible School. A new class of older High School boys has been organized with the pastor as teacher. 11, subject, "A Soldier of the Cross." 6:45, Junior and Intermediate Endeavor; 7:30, the evening subject will be, "Seven Reasons Why I am not a Campbellite."—Len B. Fishback, minister.

Six room house on 2 lots, 132x-199. Electric lights; city water; telephone; about 20 fruit trees, all bearing; $4180. Inquire at 224 Seventh Street. Also have some furniture for sale. 40

Last Sunday was Rally Day at the Central Church of Christ. There were 132 present at its beginning of the S. S. hour and 153 at the close. The goal was 150. In the evening the H. S. class gave a dramatization of "The Ten Virgins," assisted by the members of the choir. The Junior boys dramatized the story of the "Prodigal Son." The singing of "Lord, I'm Coming Home," by Max McGlasson, who acted the part of the Prodigal Son, was very impressive and touched the hearts of all who heard it. The young people are planning on giving other dramatizations during the church hour in the near future.

For Sale—Household goods; nearly new; solid oak dining table and six chairs; medium size wood heater; one parlor set, including 2 rockers, arm chair and straight backed chair, library table; dresser, 2 bedsteads and springs, extra good; 1 range. All goods nearly new, and of extra high grade. Priced very reasonable. Can be seen at the Crosby farm, half way between Farmington and Scholls, on the River Road, or phone Scholls 551 Line 5.—H. Crosby, Sherwood, R. 4.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Third and Washington Sts. (The Church of the Friendly Greeting) Walton Skipworth, pastor—9:45 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., 7:30 p. m., divine worship; 6:30 p. m., Epworth and Intermediate Leagues; choir practice Wednesday evening; prayer meeting Thursday evening.

Glen Stapleton, of the Gaston State Bank, was down Tuesday. He says the people of Gaston are getting behind the proposed $13,000 cheese factory and think it is a step in the right direction, for the cheese market is always fairly staple.

H. Klingensfeld, graduate Music Conservatory, artistic violin instruction. Every Tuesday at residence of Dr. Helms, Studio, 507 Eilers Piano House, Portland. 38-40

Representative A. B. Flint was up from Scholls Tuesday afternoon.

Emil Duyck, of near Forest Grove, was a city visitor Tuesday.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Hillsboro High football team plays its last game of the season when it meets Gresham eleven here on Thanksgiving. After losing the first three games, the local team came back and defeated Forest Grove and Estacada, and intend to take Gresham into camp also. The team, as a whole, is in better condition now than they have been yet this year, and without a doubt, will put up their best game Thursday. The game is called at 2:30, on the High School field; admission is 35c.

The Domestic Science Department, under Miss Johnston, are now serving hot lunches at noon, and to judge by the number that are taking advantage of it, it is a great success. The "Cafeteria" is made to pay for itself by charging the small sum of six cents for the hot dishes, and four cents for sandwiches.

Basket ball practice will begin next week, and as there is an abundance of material in school this year, we have every reason to expect a winning team. Mary Tashler was elected manager of the girls' team, and O. C. R. (name) was elected manager of the boys' team.

FAREWELL PARTY

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Fred Greenbemer, at her home Saturday, when a number of her friends gathered to give her a farewell party. Mr. and Mrs. Greenbemer have sold their property in Hillsboro and go to Mt. Angel to make their future home. Delightful refreshments were served and as a remembrance the guests presented Mrs. Greenbemer with a beautiful linen tablecloth.

Those present besides the family were Mesdames W. L. Stevens, Albert Ruef, Ed Coyne, Wendell Davis, Wm. Richter, T. Tuernitus, Wm. Smith, Beecher Jones, A. R. Strachan, Walter Lethin, A. Legler, John Johanson, J. Klink, M. Tatom, Peter Pyle, Carl Mueller, Frank Kelsay, Ralph Ireland, A. Malchow, A. Peevhouse, Harold Ireland, C. Grimm and J. Mohr.

The Argus will pay you cash for good clean rags.

Otto Jossi, of North Plains, was a city visitor Tuesday.

Arthur Rollins attended the big football game at Corvallis Saturday.

Miss Gladys Shute has returned from an extended visit at La-Grande.

Hubert Bernards, of McMinnville, was greeting friends here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Bierly, of near Kinton, were city callers Wednesday.

Chas. Meacham departed the first of the week to visit relatives over on the Sound.

S. Cooper and A. C. Mulloy, of Laurel, were in town the first of the week, greeting friends.

Wilson Taylor is over from Cloverdale to spend Thanksgiving with the T. S. Weathered family.

Mrs. R. L. Spencer, of Vernonia, was Tuesday operated on for appendicitis by Dr. E. H. Smith.

The Congregational Church will hold a bazaar Dec. 17 and 18. Announcement and particulars later.

Wanted—Fair grade Holstein bull or grade Durham, yearling or two years.—C. Beglinger, Hillsboro, R. 3; near Newton. 37-39

Mrs. Jennie Leeson Brown, of Iowa Hill, was in the city Tuesday, on probate business, accompanied by her sons.

For Sale—Onions, cabbage and parsnips, at the Saxton ranch, 3 miles East of Hillsboro, on the highway. Phone 17R6. 40

Frank W. Connell, who is pinning his faith to his registered Holsteins, was an Argus caller the first of the week.

For Sale—Registered bull calf, 2 months old; both sire and dam have fine record.—Otto Jossi, Hillsboro, R. 3; reside near North Plains. 38-40

John Beck, owner of a tract at Santa Rosa, and also owner of the Beck Building, in Portland, was out to Hillsboro Tuesday evening.

Frank Enders, of Yamhill, and Victoria Kenin, of Beaverton, R. 4, were united in marriage, in Hillsboro, Nov. 24, 1920, Judge J. W. Goodin officiating.

Prices are down 30 per cent. Come and order your tailor suit or overcoat now if you want a real bargain. We can beat all competition and give you satisfaction.—August Tews, the Tailor, Commercial Bank Building, upstairs. 38-39

Baptist Church, Rev. Robert Gale Kay, pastor—Regular services Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Bible School special at 10 a. m. and Young People's Society by Henry Gerrish, at 8:45. Welcome is the pass word. Regular Thanksgiving meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

Looking Prosperous brings Prosperity

Good clothes have lots to do with success. Look good; you'll feel good; you'll make good. Why? People you meet first judge you by the clothes you wear. Good clothes are the sign of success. We have the first-class, stylish clothes for you that will fit you like the peeling on a peach. We charge you what our clothes are worth, but give you what you pay for. Wear our good, "Nifty" clothes.

PINK TIGHTS

When a man's young Temptation always has dimples and blue eyes

'I must—and yet I know I must not,' he said.

starring GLADYS WALTON and JACK PERRIN

NO cleaner, sweeter, more heart-rending picture than "PINK TIGHTS" was ever made. A story that is as natural and wholesome as an old-fashioned country dinner and just as satisfying. The story of a little stranded circus girl who, the minister's flock thought, wasn't good enough to be allowed in town, much less in the parsonage—until something pretty came to see—but that's telling! Come, yourself, to see "PINK TIGHTS"—you'll have the happiest hour and one of the biggest thrills you ever had at any photodrama. Take our word for it—this is a real picture!

SPECIAL SALES

It might seem that everything had gone to pieces from the "Slaughters," "Sacrifices" and "Profit Sharing Sales" you read about. Well, some of these make us smile. They must have "marked her high" in order to offer "$30.00 umbrellas for $15.95." We don't use that kind of a margin. If we did we would need a mule team to haul off the profits. Take a look at last Sunday's papers, and we note some of the "Sacrifices."

One fellow offers $16.00 40-lb. Cotton Mattresses for $9.20. That sure sounds good, but we are selling a 44-lb. all cotton mattress with a fine art tick for $9.85.

Another patriot offers Pabcolin for a special price of 91c per yard. We never asked over 85c for this floor covering for the last six months.

We find in another place, $3.50 Union Hardware Co. roller skates for $2.45. Our price for the last year has been $2.50. How they get the $3.50 value we do not understand.

Another advertiser shows a heater for a special price of $19.75. The picture and the name are just like the ones we have been selling all Fall for $16.50.

And so on in the list you find Aluminum ware, dishes, rugs and some hardware, all "sacrificed." All we ask of you to do is to investigate our regular prices before you spend your money away from home. We can show you.

The Price Question

Is a serious one. We hope for lower prices and you will get them the minute the market breaks. A few things have declined and we marked it down at once. The "Survey of Market Conditions" on page 12 of section three of Sunday's Oregonian, reads—"Two Characters of Commodities are signalized by continued stability at higher prices—CROCKERY and HARDWARE."

Our lines are peculiar in the aggregate in that they require a great amount of labor to manufacture—and Labor is still holding out for high wages.

Watch for our CHRISTMAS advertising. We are prepared to serve you in our line, and save you money on your gifts.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Having purchased the Vanderwal insurance agency from Defrees & McCoy, I most respectfully solicit a continuance of the very liberal patronage given this agency in the past, and will assure you that you will have nothing to regret by continuing with me. I am going to give my entire time to insurance, consisting of fire, livestock and automobile protection. John Vanderwal is still an authorized agent to write insurance and do adjusting, which is a guarantee of service in case of loss.

Most respectfully,
H. K. Couch.
