and older. Phone 2302. $114

Nelson G. Freeman, of Beaverton, was a Hillsboro caller on Monday.

Mrs. Lucinda Mead, of near Buxton, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday morning.

Married, Nov. 17, 1920, Judge Goodin officiating, Elmer A. Osman and Ella Pruden.

Good horse for sale; 9 years old; weighs about 1300.—A.
O'Leary, Hillsboro, R. 1. 39

Mrs. G. B. Hill, of Seaside, was the past week a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Grover Combs.

Married: John Clay Doofes and Mary Jane Silver, Forest Grove, Nov. 19, 1920, Judge J. W. Goodin officiating.

Mrs. Harriet Veatch and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. H.
Veatch, of Portland, were Hillsboro visitors Monday.

Cedar Posts for Sale.—Mrs.
Irene Lambrix, 3/4 of a mile north of the Witch Hazel school house.
Address, Hillsboro, R. 37-39

David Kuratli, of Tillamook, was over the last of the week, taking in the Livestock Show and spending a little time in Hillsboro.

R. B. Denny, who has been traveling all over the state in behalf of the Oregon Dairymen's League was in the city the first of the week.

Jas. L. Batchelder, of near Connell Station, was in the city Monday. He is a Guernsey dairyman, and believes registered stock is the only thing.

William Reidt, of Portland, was out Sunday. Reidt says Hillsboro is going to be one of the best little cities in the valley inside of a few years.

Chester Bridges, who knows a good horse when he sees it, and who generally keeps some fine ones on hand, was over from near Oak Park Monday morning.

Web Phillips came over from near Birkenfeld, Columbia County the other day, to spend a few days in the city. He says that John Dennis is still over in the big timber.

Auditor Max Crandall started experting the county officers' books Monday morning. Max has a big clientele among the various counties of the state, and it keeps him busy the year around.

ALEXANDER—SHARP

Chester Alexander and Miss Alice Sharp, of Portland, were united in marriage in the Rose City, Nov.
19, 1920. The groom is a son of Mrs. C. E. Koontz, and an only brother of Sheriff Alexander. The bride is well known in Portland, her father being in the employ of the Southern Pacific, at Brooklyn. Chester is now running a locomotive on the Woodburn-Portland run, and he is receiving the congratulations of his hundreds of friends on the East and West Side lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander were in the city Sunday and Monday, guests at the C. E. Koontz home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Groner were in the city Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Koeber, Mr. and Mrs. Groner will depart this week for a trip to South America, and will be absent several months. Mr. and Mrs. Gron-er go first to Bahia, and if they feel inclined will spend several weeks in that latitude. From there they may take a trip as far South as Rio Janeiro, and also visit the Argentine.

S. F. Goodwin, who lived on the Hal Taylor place at the West end of the Dairy Creek bridge, a mile from Hillsboro, died at McMinnville, Nov. 20, and was buried in McMinnville, Tuesday. He leaves a widow and two sons. He was aged between 40 and 45 years, and was well liked by all who knew him. He was in Hillsboro about a month ago, renewing old acquaintances.

E. P. Cornelius, of above North Plains, was in the city Saturday. E. P. says that his section is after good roads, and the people out that way are determined not to be marooned hereafter when bad weather sets in.

Frank Rowell, of Scholls, was greeting friends in the city Monday. Rowell still pins his faith to the Scholls country as being one of the best in the best county in the state.

F. M. Crabtree, of near Laurel, was in the city Monday. F. M. is one of the orchardists who has successfully shown that the filbert is a good crop in Washington County.

John R. Bailey, of Buxton, was in town Monday, enroute to Portland. Ben Davis, who was drowned above Buxton a few days ago, worked for Mr. Bailey nearly two years.
