BRUCE HUSTON

With a full realization of the genuine worth of Bruce Huston as an attorney and a legislator, citizen, and man of extensive reading, the Argus is inclined to believe that his exemplary home life and attitude toward those entitled to his love and care was his greatest asset in this vale of tears. His watchful care over those near and dear to him endeared him to many who were in opposition to him in matters of public moment, but who appreciated his fine sense of devotion to family. Hillsboro deprecates his untimely passing and extends to his family all possible condolence.

Chas. Pfahl, of near Blooming, was in town Monday.

Roy McKnight, of near Meek Plains, was in the city Monday.

C. A. Carlson, of near Scholls, was a Hillsboro visitor the last of the week.

Wm. H. Joos, of North Plains, was greeting friends in the city Saturday afternoon.

W. N. Hathorn, of Laurel, was over to the city Monday. W. N. is one of the progressive dairymen of his section and appreciates the value of good stock.

For Sale—Registered bull calf, 2 months old; both sire, and dam have fine record.—Otto Jossi, Hillsboro, R. 3; reside near North Plains. 38-40

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heidel, of Coodon, Gilliam County, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Heidel, on East Main. Carl is in the garage business in the Gilliam County metropolis.

Dr. Thompson specializes in perfectly fitted glasses for particular people. Next visit Saturday, Dec. 11, Washington Hotel all day. 39-40

J. A. Kirkwood, of Reedville, was in town the first of the week, and was priding himself on the fact that Reedville this week opened school in their new building.

Among the O. A. C. students to spend the Thanksgiving holidays at home were Chas. Deichman, Frank Rollins, Verne McKinney, Lawrence Taggart, Haskell Carter, Claire Sample, Carl Bechen, and Miss Mabel Black.

Hillsboro isn't making much of a blow about it, but its growth is substantial in many ways. New houses are being started even this late in the year. A Portland company is about to start a new bungalow on Sixth and Baseline.

Malcolm McDonald, of West Linn, Clackamas County and Matilda McGraw, of this county, were married in Hillsboro Nov. 24, 1920, at the chambers of the officiating judge, Hon. J. W. Goodin.

Russell Morgan came up from Eugene to spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Morgan. He returned Sunday, driving down with the George Schulerich car. Mrs. Schulerich, Miss Elinor Wilkes and Marjorie Schulerich returning home after spending the holiday here with relatives.

Night Officer Emrick Sunday night flashed a couple of chaps who were trying to force an entrance into the rear of the C. C. Store. Emrick had just returned from a trip to the Oregon Electric depot and heard a noise in the rear of the store. He stepped up to the front and threw his flashlight and heard the would-be burglars running. Investigation showed that they had cut out the panel of the door and were about ready to force their entrance. The end Enoch Dillon made a search of the back yard clear through to Washington, but the chaps had cleared out and vanished into thin air. It is predicted that there will be many robberies this winter, due to so many idle men.

Probate—Scott E. and Archie F. Campbell have been named as administrators of the estate of the late John Campbell, who died Nov. 7, leaving an estate worth in the neighborhood of $15,000. The heirs are the widow and the two sons above named.—M. M. Mead was named guardian of minor Philip Mead, who is named in the will of the late A. A. Mead.—M. L. Howell has been named guardian of the estate and persons of Stephen A. and Annie M. Howell, in accordance with a petition filed which was signed by all their children. The property owned by the elderly parents is worth around $7800, and the petitioners allege that they are unable to care for their holdings.

Ed. Northrup, of Shady Brook, was down to the city Monday. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wight, of Cornelius, were Hillsboro callers Saturday afternoon.

Geo. Hathorn, of Portland, was out to Hillsboro Monday, greeting oldtime friends.

Ben Sahnou, of Hillsboro R. 1, was in the city the last of the week.

The Southern Pacific has pulled off the yard engine and sent it in to Portland, and this means one crew less among railroaders.

When logs commence rolling again the crew will be sent back.

With eight or ten auto drivers being fined every week, around Hillsboro, one would think the speed limit through the city would be observed, but every day and night machines whistle down Baseline between 25 and 35 miles per hour. The ante will be raised to about $25 some of these days, and then the inclination to "step on her" will not be so strong.

Findley McCloud, of Gaston, was down to Hillsboro Saturday, on legal business.

H. A. Shadden, of near North Plains, was in town Saturday, greeting friends.

Forest Grove recently voted against running the movie show on Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Meyer, of near Aloha, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday.

Claude McCurdy, of Portland, was out Monday, making calls on his trade.

Wm. Schmidt, a former Hillsboro resident, came down from Princeville last week and spent a few days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Burkhalter, of South Tualatin, were Hillsboro visitors the last of the week.

C. M. Bell, Standard Oil manager, and L. A. Jackson, druggist, of Cornelius, were county seat visitors Monday.

W. E. Brant, aged 43 years, died in Portland, at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Nov. 25, 1920, and the funeral took place here Saturday. Undertaker Lamber directing. The widow and children are all either ill from or convalescing from typhoid fever, the cause of the death of the father. The Brants for some time lived in the county house, which was located adjoining the machinery shed, on Baseline.

Three suits for money were filed in circuit court yesterday—the Hillsboro Mercantile suits T. F. Lovely and wife for $171.87, on a merchandise account; A. Dodd, of Tualatin, suits August, Robert and Joseph Itel for $257.20, for money alleged to be due for labor, grubbing, slashing and burning; and Wm. Borchardt suits W. A. Firmin for $249.60 on two promissory notes which are overdue.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Irmiler, of Sixth and Fir, Nov. 25, 1920, a son. The young man arrived in time for his Thanksgiving dinner.

John Herdlein, of Blooming, was a Hillsboro caller Monday.

YOU certainly want to save money, and you would like to have better bakings. Then use Calumet. It's the biggest thing you can do to improve the quality of your bakings—and lower baking costs. Calumet is made in the largest, most sanitary Baking Powder Factories in the World. No Baking Powder is made under better conditions—none can be better in quality. It contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by the U. S. Pure Food Authorities. An absolute guarantee that it is pure.

RAISES THE QUALITY—LOWERS THE COST OF ALL BAKINGS

It received highest Awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France—positive proof of its superior merit. It is used by more housewives, domestic scientists and chefs than any other brand. That would not be the case, if it were possible to secure a higher quality leavener. It is sold at a moderate price. All you have to do is to compare costs to determine how much you can save by buying Calumet. Found can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Cream Soda Recipe—3 cups quick flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1/2 cup butter, 1/4 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 cup cold water. Mix flour and soda together, add butter and sugar, then the water. Mix thoroughly.
