Xmas Shoes For Women

An Especially Exceptional Gift This Year

There have been times when shoes were not considered exactly proper for gifts, but now with good shoes so hard to get, few gifts are more welcome. Our plan of exchange enables the proper fitting of shoes after the Christmas rush is over.

MRS. F. R. McCRAY

Mrs. Lena May McCray, wife of Floyd R. McCray, died at her home at No. 2208 East Davis St., Portland, Dec. 11, 1920. Mrs. McCray was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barngrover, of West Baseline, near James' station, West of Hillsboro. She is survived by her husband. She also leaves four children to mourn her loss—Mrs. Merles Rodenberger, 1677 Pacific St., Portland, Norris, Roy and Alvin, at home. Of her immediate family she leaves her parents and the following brothers and sisters—Mrs. Nettie Cimino, Tualatin; Mrs. John Nyberg, Tualatin; Mrs. Lu Lu Myers, San Francisco; Mrs. Josie Sage, Hillsboro; E. A. Barngrover, Hillsboro, and W. H. Barngrover, Tualatin.

She was born Aug. 12, 1875, and accompanied her parents across the plains in 1880. She was married to L. P. Spencer in February, 1892, and after his death married Mr. McCray.

She was a devoted wife and mother, a loving daughter, and her demise is a matter of great regret to a wide circle of friends, who extend to the bereaved family their earnest sympathy.

Interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery.

NEWTON WOMER

Newton Womer, well known at Laurel, where he lived for a number of years, died at Oakville, Wash., December 12, 1920, after an illness covering several months. He was aged 72 years. He leaves three brothers and one sister—Alvin, of Dallas; Sylvester, residing in Kansas, and Jasper, a resident of Colorado, and Mrs. Frank Pauli, of Elmonica.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our many friends and acquaintances for their assistance and sympathy during our recent bereavement, the death and obsequies of the beloved, wife, mother, daughter and sister, the late Mrs. McCray.

J. L. Barngrover and family.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly assisted us with aid and sympathy during our bereavement, the illness, death and obsequies of the husband and father, the late Ira Hoard, and return special thanks for the floral tributes.

Mrs. Ira Hoard and Family.
Hillsboro, Ore., Dec. 15, 1920.
