COUNTY IS MOVING

And will do its Share to Save Wretched and Starving Children

On the basis which Mr. Hoover has asked the people of America to help, Washington County's quota is only ONE DOLLAR for each happy, husky youngster in our schools. How little this is—to pay to the Almighty as a "thanks offering" that they are not as these other pitiable and wretched ones, clad in rags and starving in the winter winds.

Washington County could double this quota and not know it a week later. We trust that not a school district in the county will fail with this small amount. Already many voluntary contributions have been received, ranging from two to twenty-five dollars. The people of Banks, under the leadership of Rev. Fred L. Post, have already sent in $200 with more to come. At the Masonic installation, Hillsboro, Monday evening over $200 was raised in a few minutes.

The press of the county, always ready and willing to aid movements of this character, will acknowledge every contribution of $2 or over (except where donors request to the contrary) and will also acknowledge totals from each school district. Give what your conscience tells you is right, and don't be ashamed to let others know it—your action in the service of humanity may inspire others; and the Need Is So Great.

During the week from Monday, Jan. 3, to Monday, Jan. 10, each citizen of Washington County is asked to "Do unto others as ye would they should do unto you."

Wanted—Am in the market for about 300 sacks of culled potatoe. —E. Lehman, Beaverton, Ore., R. 2. 42-43

INKLEY—MEEK

Clark Inkley, of Banks, and Miss Alice Meek, of North Plains, were united in marriage at Vancouver, Wash., Dec. 22, 1920. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. D. Meek, and the groom is a son of S. C. Inkley and wife, of Banks. The happy couple were given a reception at the Meek home, Tuesday evening, Dec. 28, at which there was a large circle of their friends. They will make their home in Portland for the present and later will live at Banks.

FEEDS AND FEEDING

There will be a lecture on "Feeds and Feeding" at the court house, Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1920, at 7:30, by Sherman T. Edwards, of Portland. Mr. Edwards is one of the pioneer feed experts of the United States. The lecture will be illustrated by several hundred feet of motion pictures. Everybody is invited and dairymen are especially invited in to this important program.

Fred Berger, of Bethany, was in the city Tuesday afternoon.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my friends who have favored me with their life insurance, and their loyalty to their Home Town insurance agent, which is more than appreciated, and my large list of policy holders speaks for itself.

With the strict insurance laws of today there is no more a question of companies, or rates. It is simply a matter of whether you wish to give your business to your home town man or to strangers who have no local interest.

I wish also to advise that I am associated with the Phoenix Fire and Auto Insurance Co., and will appreciate any business with which you can favor me.

L. J. Rushlow, Agent. Western Union Life, Spokane, Wash. Phoenix Assurance Co., London.

For Sale—Green, leafy clover hay in bale; well cured and No. 1. Phone 10R2X.—Jos. Harrington. 42-44

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to all who so kindly tendered aid and sympathy during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late husband and father, Wm. H. Gray, and return special thanks for the floral offerings.

Mrs. Wm. H. Gray and family. Hillsboro, Dec. 29, 1920.

J. H. VanLom, of Centerville, was a city caller yesterday.

Geo. Holsheimer, of Elmonica, was greeting friends in the city Tuesday.

Jacob Trachsel, of near Elmonica, was an Argus caller Tuesday morning.

Frank Overroeder, of near Elmonica, was an Argus caller yesterday afternoon.

For sale: Bay mare, weighs 1600; good work animal. Inquire at Kelly Livery, Main Street. 45

Chas. Gardner, of Portland, former supt. of the county farm, at Newton, was out yesterday, greeting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carstens, of Banks, were in the city yesterday. They expect to make Hillsboro their home in the near future.

All Saints (Episcopal) Guild, Washington St., Sunday School at 10; Holy Communion and sermon at 11, Archdeacon H. D. Chambers, celebrant; Young Peoples Society, 6:30, Even song, 7:45.

The Verboort Catholic parish recently donated in cash the sum of $1407 for the starving children of Europe. This is remarkable from the fact that there are only 40 families in the church. This is a record of which the parish is justly proud.

Dwight Pomeroy, of Lepp, was a city caller the first of the week.

Mrs. May McNulty was granted a divorce from James J. McNulty, in Portland, yesterday. They were married at Vancouver, Wash., in 1919. McNulty recently lost a damage suit for $20,000 damages against Otto Iacintrop, the case having been decided here by a jury in circuit court.
