VET GRADUATES

Graduates at the Pacific Chiropractic College, at Portland, last Friday, numbered fourteen and among them was Paul C. Long, well known here. Long was a veteran of the famous 91st Division, and was with the Sanitary Train enlisted out of Portland. Another graduate from this county was Miss Gladys Elma Eichler, of North Hillsboro.

Let Rushlow insure your auto. 46

A Kaufman, of near Huber, was a city caller Friday.

D. H. Willers was in from Oak Park the last of the week.

Walter Zuercher, of near Elmonica, was greeting friends in the city Saturday.

For fine sewing and needlework inquire at 1343 Jackson St. All work guaranteed. 46

Dr. W. R. Taylor, of Forest Grove, was a Hillsboro visitor yesterday.

Lost—Black traveling bag, between Hillsboro and Forest Grove. Finder please leave at this office.

W. C. Jackson, of North Plains, one of the subscribers of the Argus when it issued its initial number, 27 years back, was a caller last Friday.

We have bought a carload of Crown flour—the real flour—and are selling it at $10.25 per barrel. We think flour has reached its lowest winter level and now is the time to buy.—L. G. Weidewitzsch, the Cornelius grocer. 44-45

Donald Milton, a former Hillsboro boy, who died at his home at Westover Terrace, Portland, last Friday. His death came as a climax of a series of misfortunes which started Dec. 7 when he sustained a fractured leg. On Dec. 16 his wife passed away, leaving an infant daughter. Later Mr. Milton contracted pneumonia. Milton lived here from the time he was 18 years of age until he joined the army in 1914. He is survived by his infant daughter and his brother, Reuben, who lives in Salt Lake.

Carl 'Isid. of Bloomington was a city caller Monday. He recently received a letter from his mother, in Germany, and she writes that the food situation over there is appalling. The mother is aged 84 years and the restrictions are such that a pint of milk is all she can obtain under the card system. As milk is her chief article of diet she finds it pretty hard to keep her health on the restricted conditions.
