

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long

The lower house of Congress has refused to increase itself—who says the house does not show an occasional gleam of intelligence?

It took outside capital to show Salem its possibilities in fruit culture and marketing. Hillsboro has a better field, and has the capital to develop its wonderful advantages along this line—but will it take outside capital to show the way? The Argus hopes not.

James Mann, of South Tualatin, was in town Friday and remembered the home paper in his calls.

The Community Welfare Club, of Farmington, met with Mrs. Ervine Burkhalter, Jan. 18. All the business for the year 1920 was finished, and the election of officers took place. Reports of officers for the past year were heard. During 1920 the club installed drinking fountains and lavatories in Dist. 88, painted the interior of the school and put ball screens on the windows. Officers for the new year are Mrs. E. Rehse, president; Mrs. E. L. Kraus, vice president; Mrs. Claud Cook, secretary; Mrs. Ervine Burkhalter, treasurer, and Esther Lindow, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Heaton was a guest of the club. The next meeting will be with Mrs. H. Greise, in Farmington, Jan. 27.

Wm. Alexander and Marvin Robinson returned to Hillsboro the first of the week, after several weeks of small pox. The boys look fine, and say they are fine, and the malady left them with no ill results. It was only the quarantine that made the visitation uncomfortable.

M. M. Mead, of beyond North Plains, was a city caller today.

J. F. Carstens and family have moved down from Banks.

August Boge, of South Tualatin, was over town Monday.

W. H. Wehrang, of Portland, was out to the city Monday, greeting friends.

C. W. James, oldtimer of West Baseline, was a city caller the last of the week.

Mrs. Annie DuBois, of Portland, was visiting friends in Hillsboro, the last of the week.

Sam J. Rafferty, of Mountaindale, was in town Monday, wearing the same hearty handshake. Sam says he hasn't time to grow old.

Geo. Miller, of Cooper Mountain, was up to the county seat the last of the week, spending a few hours with his brother, Andrew.

The Cornelius post office has been placed in the presidential class, fourth class, and the annual pay hereafter is placed at $1100 per year.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Graf, of Bethany, this morning made arrangements for their transportation to Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend several months.

Deborah Wismer, a high school student, sustained a fractured arm and injured spine at the basketball game last week. Dr. Dinsmore is attending the patient.

R. L. Tucker and J. M. Goar, of Hillsboro, were on the inquiry board investigating the Jack fatality at Witch Hazel, and the findings were that the train crew was free of blame.

Only monument dealers in Washington County. Drop us a card and we will show you our samples. Write or call on us, at 1363 Main St., Hillsboro.—Oregon Monument Works, Hillsboro, Oregon. 50-1f

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barber and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Benton, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Millar, of Oregon City, were Hillsboro callers Monday, in attendance at the obsequies of the late John Swalley.

Free Methodist Church, J. G. Hessler, pastor.—Sunday School at ten, followed by preaching at 11 and class meeting at 12:15; evening service, 7:30. Announcement will be made as to the protracted meeting. All are welcome.

Geo. A. Wilcox, of Cornelius, was shaking hands with oldtimers in the county seat Friday. He is an old time railway employee, being in the service of the S. P. for 32 years, and was here when the O. & C. wended its construction way through the county.

The Women's Choral Club met Monday evening for rehearsal. New members who have joined the chorus are Mrs. Kritz, Mrs. Tompkins, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Brandaw, Mrs. Kellington and Mrs. Humbert. Four new songs were studied, "Elusive Love," "Lullaby and Good-night," "The Passing Hours," and "Elfin Dance," by Greig. Mr. Petri hopes to have the next concert in the latter part of March.

Hillsboro Baptist Church—Preaching next Sunday, morning text, "Young People," service at 7:30 p. m.; B. Y. P. U. at 6:45; Sunday School at 10 a. m.; prayer service Thursday evening, at 7:30. Circle meets in the church each Wednesday at 2 p. m. Cordial invitation extended to the services.—Robt. Kay, pastor.

Secretary of State Koser writes that after January 26 those found driving motors without licenses will have to suffer the penalty of the law. After that date all inspectors and officers will enforce the statute. He states that inspectors will visit this county about Feb. 1 to see if there are any infractions.

Church of Christ (The church whose young people stay for the church service)—10, Bible School Dr. Helms, Supt.; 11, subject, "The Rights of Jews;" 6:45, Junior and Intermediate C. E.; 7:30, the evening subject will be "Safety First in all Things Pertaining to Christianity."—Len B. Fishback, minister.

Jas. Churchill, of Gales, secured an excuse from Judge Geo. R. Bagley last week, relieving him from further jury service in circuit court for the November term, and went back home rejoicing.
