

JURY CASES TRIED IN CIRCUIT COURT

Chas. Gordon Case, Forest Grove, Charge of Larceny, Disagreed

THREE MEN PLEAD GUILTY

Brothers Plead Guilty to Arson Charge, Sentenced, Paroled

Chas. Gordon, a Forest Grove young man, had his trial in circuit court Tuesday and the jury disagreed and was discharged. Gordon was charged with the larceny of a revolver from his step-father, and he admitted taking the gun, but said he did not steal it, taking only to protect himself from his father-in-law. A part of the jury evidently believed his story for there was no chance for a verdict. The jury—John Templeton, Thos. Connell, John Vanderwal, E. L. Abbott, A. J. Cook, Robt. Thompson, M. N. Lewis, L. N. Rider, C. Rehae, W. W. Boscow, C. F. Jesse and Geo. M. Schwehart.

B. Sobolewski, charged with liquor violation, was found guilty as charged by a jury, consisting of C. M. Johnson, John Oppenlander, D. A. Werre, Randolph Rowley, Fred Hamel, T. C. Reynolds, C. J. Herb, J. W. Pritchard, J. D. Wilson, R. Hannan, H. G. Vincent, Alonzo Claphaw. The defense attempted to prove that he had the liquor in question prior to the prohibition law passage. It is said that he will appeal the case.

A divorce was granted in Treglow vs. Treglow.

Two new divorce cases were filed this week. Amanda Stuckrath, who married E. L. Stuckrath in Frisco in 1917, says she had been told her husband Wm. Vigelius, had divorced her, and she believed it—but afterward she found she had been misinformed. So she wants a decree and the right to carry the Vigelius name again.

Sarah Jane Amberson, who married John Amberson at Vancouver, in 1914, says after marriage the husband induced her to sell a place she owned in Portland and buy a house in Newberg. He then nagged her until she sold that place and "split" the money with him. The kindhearted husband, according to the complaint, then suggested that she go to an old lady's home to live. This she declined, but bought another home in Portland and asked him to help her occupy it. This he refused and this exhausted her patience—so she wants her bill of rights.

TWIN SONS

Born to Mrs. Walter E. White, at the Washington County Hospital, March 24, 1921, twin sons, Mr. and Mrs. White resided here last year, and Mr. White presided over the prescription case at the pharmacy. White says the youngsters will sign their applications to become Elks as soon as they can write legibly.

PRIVATE SALE

A bargain in a second-hand Ford. By owner. Call 6RX.—C. Hyre.

Big still captured—James Caddas and Geo. Agordes, two moonshiners of Chehalen Mountain, near Rex, in the south end of the county, were arrested yesterday by Sheriff Alexander, assisted by Geo. Harlburt and a Federal officer from Portland. A fine fifty gallon still was taken, together with 50 gallons of triple distilled liquor, and 600 gallons of mash was on the premises. The two had the largest still yet brot in to the county seat and it cost $190. The tip was given the officials the day before when the moonshiners had sent out 40 gallons of the product, which is said to be good. The mash, which was made of corn, was destroyed, as was all the liquor excepting sufficient for evidence. When they started to pour out the 50 gallons one of the prisoners said—"for heaven's sake, don't throw that out. It is the best stuff ever turned out in these parts." The moonshine was pure stuff, had been rectified to a nicety and even charcoal had been used in the filtering so the fuel oil was all extracted. It is safe to say there were a lot of drunken trout in the little stream in which the product was poured. The boys had a tent in a deep ravine, and one of them was sitting by and watching the oil burner sizzle along when Sheriff Alexander walked in on them. The twin were landed in jail and will most likely plead guilty. The still has been running a year.

HEAVY RAINS HOLD BACK SPRING WORK

Excess of Rainfall Since September Now Given at 5.66 Inches

GROUND FULL OF WATER

Farmers at Standstill; Hopes of Early Seeding Vanish

The heaviest rains of the season have fallen since this day a week, and old Mother Earth in the Tualatin Valley is saturated with water. Seeding and plowing took a vacation and the streams have been running rampant. All hopes of early seeding vanished with the week of precipitation and the gain on excess of rainfall since last September went soaring. The Portland weather bureau quotes the excess rainfall since last September at 5.66 inches, a gain of nearly an inch within the week.

All farming operations have been at a standstill since the last issue of the Argus and with the weather prophet predicting rains for today and tomorrow it looks like "farmers' rest" for another week. Fruit trees of the early class have been bursting into bloom the past week and the temperatures have been very springlike.

Deputy Stockdale Sunday caught a young chap permitting a lady to drive his machine. Upon being stopped the owner admitted that the lady had no driver's license, but said he would sin no more. The officers say that "spooners" cause them lots of trouble when nice weather is on.

Frank Rollins, overseas veteran, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Rollins, was operated on in Portland Tuesday, at the St. Vincent's Hospital, and is convalescing as well as could be expected, considering the seriousness of the trouble. His health has been gradually failing since his return from France. Frank is a universal favorite and his many friends hope that his recovery will be speedy. His affliction is said to have been with the transverse colon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Phillips, who have spent the winter in Spokane, returned last evening, making the trip in the car. W. T. says that he never saw worse roads than those he encountered this side of the Dalles, and it took him five hours to negotiate three miles. His was the only car that made it through the sea of mud over the mountain without being towed by a team. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will buy a home here and remain in Hillsboro, satisfied that the old town is hard to beat.

NEW FISH AND GAME CODE NOW IN EFFECT

Three Big Bucks to Hunt and Three Bones to Cast a Line

ALIEN 25 BUCKS EXTRA

Besides the Original Fee—Non-Resident Must Pay Ten Dollars

Clerk Kuratti has received the new game code from the state and is now ready, so Deputy Luce says, to sell you fishing and hunting licenses of the latest styles, cut short, scanty, or full, and nicely bordered, and upon paying three dollars you can hunt; three dollars more and you can fish; two dollars and you can trap—this, and all this, of course, provided you are a citizen of the U. S. and of the state, within the scope of six months residence. If you are a non-resident then you must pay ten simoleons in order to fish and a like amount in order to hunt.

If you want a "union-suit" then five dollars pays. To make it clear the state charges are:

Resident hunter's license, $3. Nonresident hunter's license, $10. Resident angler's license, $3. Nonresident angler's license—equal to the license fee required by the resident state of the non-resident applicant.

County hunter's license for persons between the ages of 14 and 18 years, to hunt in resident's county only, $1.50. Combination hunter's and angler's license, $5.

Hunting and angling licenses may be procured from any county clerk by applying in person or by application signed by two freeholders on regular blank, which may be obtained from county clerk, or from any regularly appointed agent of the state game commission.

Aliens must pay $25 extra before they can take out either a fishing or hunting, or trapper's license.

Civil war vets, Indian war vets, pioneers whose coming dates back of 1860, get their licenses free, and those Spanish War veterans at the Soldiers' Home are in the same class.
