JURY FINDS PATERNITY

A jury in circuit court yesterday found for the plaintiff in the case of the State of Oregon versus M. F. Welters, Louise Vandehey complaining witness, and this will mean that the court can make an order that the defendant must support a child born out of wedlock. This is the first case of its kind tried here. The jury: L. F. Emmott, Chas. M. Johnson, R. L. Tucker, T. C. Reynolds, A. Clapshaw, Wm. Sattler, Daniel Werre, Fred Hamel, John Oppenlander, J. W. Pritchard, James Churchill, L. W. Guild. District Attorney Tongue prosecuted the case. Under the statute the Court can fix the amount of support that young Welter must pay. The young man charged with paternity was 17 years old at the date of the offense and the girl was 19. Welters is a son of prominent Beaverton people, the parents being well-to-do.

BUSINESS CHANGE

After nearly a quarter of a century in the jewelry business in Hillsboro Laurel M. Hoyt has sold his stock to his son, Tabor Hoyt, who will continue the business and take care of the watch repair work. Tabor has had years of experience under the direction of his father, worked for two years with the Garnet Jewelry Co., of Tacoma; four months with Page, a leading jeweler of Vancouver, Wn., several months with Freidlander, the Portland jeweler. He guarantees to turn out first class work and solicits his share of patronage from the public, both in the jewelry business and in the repair department.

L. M. Hoyt will take a rest and travel for a few months, feeling that he has earned a vacation after so many years of continuous business at the same stand.

S. P. BOOKLET

The Southern Pacific Company has issued a little booklet announcing the opening of their new electric line depot at Fourth & Stark, Portland, and it is a cute little pamphlet to say the least and reflects credit on its author. It contains some surprising information, showing that the company paid employees in Oregon for the year 1920 the sum of eleven million dollars, and purchased in Oregon during the fiscal year the stupendous values of $4,519,888—all for lumber, timber, supplies, etc., besides paying taxes into the various counties in the sum of $1,110,038. This makes a total distribution in the state for the 12 months totalling the sum of $16,713,681.79. This naturally means a lot of business for the state. The figures are astounding to the general run, but are not so to those who have spent any time in the railway game.

CLUB BOYS WIN

Washington County Industrial Club Boys win the first China Life Saving Stamps certificates and Chinese cash by their zeal.

The Rabbit Club, of Tigard, enjoyed the company of the "Home Making Club" girls' assistance in receiving the secretary of the "Chinese Consulate" at their leader's home last Friday evening.

Mr. Seymour's letter, requesting them to sell stamps, was received Saturday, April 9. Sales were started at once and on Tuesday the $15 for 500 stamps was turned in. Taking 500 more the boys paid for these on the 22nd, completing 1000 sales; and the State Director J. J. Handsaker issued the first certificates: Robt. Grandy, 300; Eugene Bishop, 370; Geo. Teofitter, 200; Ray McCormick, 105. These together with the promised Chinese cash were presented to the boys by the Chinese secretary, and signed by him in Chinese, in recognition of their quick response.

The club trusts they may arrange soon for the promised visit of our County Agricultural Agent, Mr. McWhorter, who has told us he always has a word for the boys, and we know he believes in 100 per cent. club work from all boys and girls.—Cor.

Being so close to Mexico they visited Tia Juana, where the races are always in progress and where there is much to distract and enjoy. This noted Mexican city is the Monte Carlo of Mexico, and is visited by thousands of Americans annually. It is just across the line and as the "Swede" says, "two yumps" and you are back on American soil. They enjoyed the trip immensely, but at the same time are glad to get back to Hillsboro.

MRS. WM. SCHMIDT

Mrs. Mathilde A. Schmidt died at the family home near Oreco, April 21, 1921, from an attack of heart failure. Her maiden name was Glaskie, and she was born in Germany, Sept. 16, 1869. In her childhood she moved with her parents to Russia, and came to America in 1888 with her widowed mother, settling in Dakota. In 1889 they moved to Oregon, and settled at Bethany, this county. She was united in marriage to William Schmidt in 1894, and four children were born to the union, one, the youngest son, dying in infancy. The husband and three children survive—Albert and Herman, at home, and Mrs. Lillian Altman, of Portland. A son-in-law and daughter-in-law also survive. Of her immediate family she is survived by a brother in Michigan, and a brother, Herman Glaskie, of near Oreco.

Mrs. Schmidt was a devoted wife and mother, and the bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. She was a member of the Bethany Baptist Church, joining when she came to Oregon. By her unselfishness and her lovable character she endeared herself to all with whom she associated.

Funeral services were held in the Bethany Baptist Church April 24, Rev. Wm. Graf and Rev. Wm. Schumke officiating. Interment was in the Union cemetery, Undertaker Bell directing.

LISTEN

Here comes two fellows who have lived in Hillsboro, Oregon, for a long, long time. One of them for more than twenty-five years and the other for more than twelve years.

The name of one of these fellows is McCormick, and the other, Rushlow. Both of them are citizens of the United States, and own their own properties and are tax payers in the county, and spend their money in Hillsboro, Oregon, and so far have kept out of the poor house.

Well, to make a long story short, these fellows are in business together, and are in a position to give their clients the benefit of their long business experience. They write Life Insurance, Fire Insurance, sell real estate and are in the best position ever to give service.

A part of your patronage will be appreciated, but if we can not get it in the right way, we do not want it at all.

McCormick & Rushlow, Office in Shute Bank Bldg.

WEST END BUSY

The west end of the county is not losing any time in support of a man from that district for county commissioner to succeed the late John Carstens. Gales Creek came down again yesterday with a delegation and a monster petition to appoint O. L. Parsons to the position. The delegation says that O. L. Parsons was the unanimous choice of the Gales Creek district and only four people up there were found who would not sign.

Parsons is a big land holder up that way, is prominent in public affairs, and is said by his supporters to be the man for the place. Those down from Gales yesterday were C. J. James, J. V. Heiler, W. D. Lee and Elmer Lyda.

The gentlemen from the west say that with Commissioner Wismer from the east end, and with Judge Goodin central, they should have a man from their section of the county in order to have a balanced board of commissioners.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A pleasant surprise was tendered Floyd Gray at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gray, of East Hillsboro, Thursday, April 21, the occasion being in honor of his birthday. Peppard, and Ray Sigler, Chas. Hoag, Will Zeigler, Wm. Grenbemer; Mayme Grenbemer, Mrs. Johnson, Tom Ireland, Harry Aldinger, Hugh Weik, Floyd and Gene Gray, of Hillsboro, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mrs. Ethel M. Baxter, who married Edwin C. Baxter at Eugene in 1912 asks for a decree of divorce and for the custody of two little daughters, aged six and two. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. Thirza M. Burgholzer asks for a decree of divorce from F. C. Burgholzer. They were married Jan. 18, 1921, and the bride says the trouble arose over $3100 which she received from a sale of her place at Tigard. She avers the husband treated her unkindly because she would not bank the money on a joint account, and that at his suggestion she went East on a visit, and later returned to live with him. However, she says he still treated her coldly and she left him on April 11.

Harold A. Shaver, R. D. Flye and E. R. Hughes, owners of property in Metzger sue to enjoin the sale of the Metzger playground, known as Metzger Park. They allege that Metzger induced them to buy lots there and build, telling them Metzger Park was to be a common playground and that it was dedicated for public use. Henry Wolfe and Wm. Wolfe now foreclose on a mortgage on the park grounds and the plaintiffs in the recent case say they want the sale prevented. They have put up a $2500 community house in the park, and they claim the grounds are a public holding.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Graf, of Bethany, returned Monday evening from a three months' trip to California. They visited at Los Angeles and other Southern points and return feeling that they had a delightful winter. They will reside in Oregon, but are uncertain as yet just where they will take up their residence, having sold a part of their place and leased the balance. Of course, like all Oregonians, they are glad to get back to the state of 50-50 rain and shine.
