

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, MAY 5, 1921

No. 9

VOL. XXVIII.

HILLSBORO TAKES INITIAL 1921 GAME

Artisans of Portland, Peppery Much, But Veterans Too Many SCORE WAS FOUR TO THREE.

It was some ball game, that at the local grounds, Sunday, when Hillsboro took the United Artisans into camp by a score of 4 to 3. The day was as cold as a Reuben's heart, but notwithstanding threats of rain, there was a good crowd in attendance. Mayor Shute pitched the first three balls over and they were "caught at" by W. W. Boscow, who complained that the Mayor used poor judgment in throwing the ball with too much steam.

And then the game was on. It was a pitcher's battle largely, with Eugene Gray in the pill-box for Hillsboro, and Shoney shooting for the United Artisans. For three innings there was no further advanced than third base, and in the fourth canto the Artisans concluded they would start things—and they did. With a combination of three hits and two errors the visitors pounded three scores over the home plate, and right there the goddess of baseball frowned on them and their run getting ended, although once or twice it looked as though they might get over the top for another trip to the home plate.

Hillsboro soldiered along until the fifth inning when a "batting streak" and some luckily placed hits netted them three scores, tying the game. In the eighth they again put one over and this gave them the initial game. The session was well worth while and the fans almost forgot that snow was threatened. The score by innings—

	R	H	E
Hillsboro	4	11	3
United Artisans	3	6	3

Struck out—by Gray, 11; by Shoney, 5.

Batchelar was the king in hitting, getting three in four times up.

Chet Hemerson, Jensen and Mattson each made two hits.

The line-up for Hillsboro: C. Henderson, 1 f; M. Jensen, 2 f; P. Bennett, 2 b; Paddy Kenta, 3 f; Harvey Batchelar, r f; G. Henderson, c f; M. G. Mattson, 1 b; Jack Sobler, 3 b; Gray, pitcher.

Sidelights—Umpire E. H. Smith will have to have shin guards—a bad one tonight.

Herbert Schulmerich got his base hit before the game started—a pitched ball struck him on the jaw and came near fracturing it, putting him out of the game.

Mr. J. Pluvius had an eye on the game and kept his sprinkler muzzled until a half hour after it was over and then deluged the town. Good old Jupe.

The Artisans found out that Dr. Smith was there to umpire, and they didn't repeat any of their brush tactics.

Jack Rutledge, president of the league, was present, and enjoyed the game immensely.

Prize Winners—Prizes offered by local merchants and business men were won by the following players:

Harvey Batchelar, two, one for scoring the first run and one for the greatest number of hits.

Jack Sobler registered two, catching the first fly ball and landing the first hit.

Bennett, Jensen and Mattson participated in the first double-play and won the smokes.

The Next Game—Hillsboro will meet the Oregon City team next Sunday on the local grounds, and the game will be called at 2:30.

ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Rogers, of Sixth and Fir, celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary at their home Tuesday evening May 3. Beecher Jones officiated at the anniversary wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were the recipients of many pretty gifts. A splendid wedding dinner was served and the evening was enjoyed in music, games, conversation and dancing. Sylvester Tamiesie and sister, Elnora, of Portland, played a violin and piano duet. Those present: Host and hostess and family; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reiling; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reiling; Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Tamiesie, (Portland), Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ennes, Mr. and Mrs. John Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Batchelar, Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Jones and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deaville, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reese, Mrs. John Ebner, Mrs. Bertha Williams, Mrs. Nellie Hughes, Mrs. Elizabeth Trullinger; Miss Lottie Ennis and Martin Reiling.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

John Ireland, of Forest Grove, was Wednesday morning appointed County Commissioner to succeed the late John Carstens. Mr. Ireland was sworn in and will serve until January 1, 1923.

Mr. Ireland owns a big ranch between Banks and Forest Grove. He was born in Iowa in 1860 and in 1861 came to Oregon with his parents. He has spent his entire life in Washington County. A few years ago he leased his farm to his sons and took up his residence in Forest Grove. Mr. Ireland is a man of affairs, is well liked by all who know him, and has unquestioned capacity for the position for which he has been selected.

He is the father of Lester Ireland, of Allen & Ireland.

The appointment makes a well-balanced board, Mr. Wismer coming from the East end of the county, and Judge Goodin from the central part. In Ireland's appointment the West end has representation.

The Argus is constrained to say that the appointment is a mighty good one.

Mrs. Geo. Emmott, of Portland, was in Hillsboro the last of the week, the guest of the H. R. and L. F. Emmotts. Her husband is now engaged in a battery service business in Portland.

MORE MILLS ARE RUNNING

Review of Oregon and Her Many Industries

It is a patriotic duty to interest yourself in the payroll situation of your state—what all sections of the state are doing. Pride in the commonwealth is based on prosperous home enterprises. Support the home merchant and the home industry.

Portland—Peninsula Lumber Co. commenced on full force May 2, at the St. John's mill.

Bend—Work started on a two-story $40,000 brick.

Coquille—$75,000 coal mine is opening here by Portland capital.

Apple industry for 1921 will be ten per cent larger.

Portland incorporates $50,000 hat and cap factory, and $25,000 pickle company.

Salem building permits total nearly $1,000,000 a month.

LaPine reports the beginning of a building boom—new garage and Redmen Hall, 40x90, now under way. New residence addition opened up and new homes to be built. Weekly newspaper again resumes publication under management of previous editor. This is Jim Miltenberger's home town.

Linn county reducing teachers' salaries 10 per cent.

Portland—Reconstruction plans and betterment projects authorized, under way and in prospect on the interurban lines of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co. for the next few months will represent an outlay of more than $200,000.

Increased industrial activity is evident in Oregon at the present time with many concerns renewing production after a period of idleness and others speeding up their efforts.

Cottage Grove light and power plant to double capacity.

Pendleton—Work started on new $200,000 addition to hospital.

Marshfield—C. A. Smith Co. shingle mill, idle since January, resumes.

Corvallis to have another planing mill in operations soon.

Southern Pacific railroad and equipment in Linn county this year is taxed $81,494.60, an increase of approximately of $12,000 over last year.

Oregon has three laws taxing dogs.

The suit of Col. E. Hofer to test the constitutionality of state dog laws, on the ground of double taxation, was argued in the circuit court before Judge Bingham on demurrer during the past week. This suit will be taken to the Supreme court, and will be an historical case, involving the right of a dog to live and have a certain amount of freedom allotted to all animals.

PIONEERS GO TO CHAMPOEG SATURDAY

Founders' Day to be Celebrated at Historic Spot on River

DAY IS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Washington County's Pioneers Militant There in May, 1843

Oregon pioneers are going to Champoeg, Saturday, to celebrate the establishment of American government. Champoeg has a reservation devoted to the shrine of Americanism. It was at Champoeg, in May, 1843, that a round hundred met to determine under which flag they should live. There was much oratory and button-holing, for the English wanted the Oregon country, and wanted it badly. The Hudson Bay Co. had been the first to penetrate the Oregon wilds, and while furs were not as abundant as they were to the North, the land was fair to look upon and settlement under the English flag meant much to Great Britain. Many of the Frenchmen had worked for the Hudson Bay Company and were in sympathy with English rule, but a minority of Americans were at Champoeg, and action was their strong suit. When they saw that the day was likely to go against them, Col. Jos. Meek, who had ridden all over Washington County the week before to get pioneers to attend the session, started the ball rolling. Eloquent he told the Frenchmen how America had always been their friend; related to them how LaFayette and D'Estang had fought with the colonies in order to give America independence, and when the final test came it was Joe Meek who called for a divide. Meek was a striking figure in his six feet of Americanism, and he drew a line with the tip of his boot. Shouting, "Who's for a divide," jumped to one side of the line and called on all for America to join him. His earnestness impressed several Frenchmen, who soon joined him and when the count was made the vote was for American occupation and American government.

Col. Meek carried the vote back to Washington and President Polk rewarded him by appointing him U. S. Marshal—the first in the Oregon country. At that time this comprised the states of Montana from the crest of the Rockies, Idaho, Washington and Oregon, to the California line.

P. H. D'Arcy, president of the Pioneer Association, will deliver the annual address Saturday. The steamer Relief will leave Taylor St., Portland, at 7 in the morning, and will leave Champoeg at 4 in the afternoon. There will be a big basket dinner and a big celebration.

STATE PRESIDENT

Geo. A. Mansfield, State President of the Oregon Farm Bureau, will be in Hillsboro, Tuesday evening, May 10, and address the Hillsboro Club, Hillsboro's business men and farmers of the immediate vicinity at the Club Rooms, the address to be given at 8 o'clock. If the audience proves too large for the limited room adjournment will be to the court house.

President Mansfield is one of the really able men of the state and he knows his subject from Alpha to Omega. He knows just what the farmers' organization wants, its purposes, its aims, and the relation of the producer to society at large and he is lending all his energy to a 100 per cent. organization. It is well worth one's while to hear him expound the necessities of the producer and those who hear him will depart with a better idea of the relationship of the farmer to business and to state.

Mr. Mansfield will be accompanied here by Perry O. Powell, of Polk County, State Secretary of the Farm Bureau.

COFFEE CLUB MEETING

The Coffee Club will meet at the home of Mrs. M. P. Cady, corner Third and Oak Sts., Saturday afternoon, May 7, at 2:30. Mrs. R. L. Smith will assist Mrs. Cady. Mrs. Lee Davenport, of Portland, will address the club on "Americanization."

For house moving, barn moving, raising buildings, etc., see or write M. C. Hewitt, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 4. Years in the business here. Estimates given on this class of work.
