

A fine Durham-Holstein cow and calf, 3 days old; a heavy milker. Also a black Jersey, coming fresh soon. Both gentle, a child could milk either.—D. B. Weston, 6 miles above Mountaindale.

L. R. Ingles was down from the Buxton country Tuesday.

Henry Miller, of below Witch Hazel, was a city caller Tuesday.

J. R. Dean, of Farmington, was a city caller the first of the week.

CHRISTIAN S. S. CHOIR

The Sunday School Choir has re-organized with new officers as follows: Mrs. Humburg, leader; Miss LaVeda Olsen, president; Miss Helen Rood, vice president; Robert Kelly, secretary and treasurer; Francis Ball, pianist. We had a nice attendance last Thursday evening. All Endeavors be sure and come next Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. Don't forget.—Robert Kelly, Sec. Treas.

The Wall-Mahon Logan yard with its attendant acreage of strawberries is one of the pretty spots adjoining Hillsboro just now. There are millions of bloom on the strawberry plants and with anything like a decent season there will be thousands of boxes picked and shipped to Portland. The plants are laden with bloom. It is impossible to estimate the output if frost lays off duty. Suffice to say the yard, with normal conditions, will pay enough to make the installation of the 70 acres of Logans a minor expense.

For Sale—Registered Jersey bull, 16 months old. Sire, Fancy Raleigh; dam, Marie's Bluebell. Very fine animal.—Karl Broeder, Sherwood, Ore. 7-9

Oliver Johnson, of Shady Brook, was in the city Tuesday enroute to Portland.

Complete line of fishing tackle.—D. Corwin. 6tf

FARM BUREAU NEWS NOTES

Government Harness—The Farm Bureau office has a set of government harness which was secured thro P. O. Powell, Secretary of the State Farm Bureau. This set will be on exhibition at the Farm Bureau office for a week or ten days for inspection by those interested.

New Bulletins Received—The office has been in receipt of a few new bulletins such as, bulletin on Broccoli; Strawberry Culture; Anthracnose of berries; Loganberry Culture; Onion Diseases; Everbearing Strawberries; First Care of Baby Chicks; Lice and Mites; Parasites and Parasitic Diseases of Sheep; Spray Calendar; Currants and Gooseberries, and Blackberry Culture.

Potatoes—We have inquiries from two parties for American Wonder and Pride of Multnomah Seed potatoes. If you have such, let us know.

Pig Club—The Washington County Bank Pig Club has purchased for its members five pure bred Poland China pigs. This club has 11 members and was organized by W. L. Moore and Bob Banks. Its members plan to make an exhibit at the Banks Hog and Dairy Show this fall.

Seed Corn—There are many inquiries for Minnesota 13 seed corn. It appears that there is a good opportunity offered in this county for some farmers to make this line of agricultural production a regular business. Namely, that of producing a certified Minnesota 13 seed corn for sale to farmers in the Willamette Valley.

—Wm. Schulmerich, Sec'y. Farm Bureau.

For Trade—Chevrolet touring car, for cows or hogs; prefer Holstein cows.—Phone Hillsboro 5R25. 8-10

Snow again whitened the mountains in the Gales Creek country, during the night Monday. This is pretty late for the beautiful.

A two-ton Nash truck for sale; 1919 model; in first-class mechanical condition; run but little.—W. L. Stevens, Laurel, Or. 9

J. C. Beach, of North Plains, was in town Monday. He says that the aphid has been multiplying too much for comfort the past two or three weeks.
