CANDEE HATCHED CHICKS

The Kind that Live and Grow
Day Old S. C. White Leghorn Chicks—$20 per Hundred
Special discount of $1 per hundred to those calling at my place.

We have a limited number of day-old chicks to offer at above price each week during April. Chicks from a strain that has been bred specially for heavy laying.

With every order for chicks this season, we will give, free of charge, our booklet on care and feeding of the baby chicks. This booklet also contains valuable information on breeding, mating, and feeding laying hens. It will be sent as soon as the full purchase price for the chicks is received.

Come and see for yourself the strong, sturdy stock in our plant and the Mammoth Candee Incubator in operation.

You will find us here any time during the day, and we will be glad to have you visit us whether you bring an order with you or not.

Place is one-half mile north of new Highway and S. P. Electric at Tobias Station. Watch for the sign.

REWARD OFFERED

For the woman who will admit that she has sufficient clothes.

For the boy who refuses the third helping of strawberry short-cake.

For the man who tells the real reason why he sneaks off to a circus.

For the fisherman whose largest one hooked didn't get away.

For the sardine who says the cattle law is being violated just because there are so many sives seen on the street.

For the kid who doesn't love a dog and a dog that doesn't love a kid.

For the motor cycle driver who will admit that the pesky thing makes uncomfortable riding.

For the business man who doesn't think the business man has the edge on him in choice of occupations.

For the girl who will unqualifiedly say that the other girl looks nice in her new hat.

Nels Larsen, of south of Minster, was a city edler the first of the week.

J. C. Bechen, of Orenco, was greeting friends in the city the first of the week.

Wm. Bouesen, of Murtaugh creek, of above Mountaineer, was in town Monday.

M. Waceler Jr., of near Helvetia, was in town Friday and called on the home paper.

For Sale—Horse, 5 years old, 1600; sound and true. Price $155.—Carl Trachsel, Reville, Oregon. 8-10

C. C. Whitmore, of near Laurel, was in the city Friday and made the Argus office an official call.

D. L. Smith, of above Banks, came in to the county seat Saturday to see how things were shaping up.

Fred Haase, of Iowa Hill, was over town Friday, greeting his friends and renewing for the official paper.

For Sale—Brood sow, O. I. C., 2 1/2 years old; finest in county. Will litter about the 21st.—S. Cooper, Laurel, Oregon. 11

J. H. Dorland, of above North Plains, was in town Monday afternoon. John is just convalescent from a severe attack of the gripple.

The Seattle National Bank, over whose destinies J. W. Spangler, oldtime Hillsborite, keeps an eye as president, shows in its last reports resources of $21,000,000.

Mrs. M. C. VanKirk, of Cherryville, arrived home a few days ago and departed for Warrenton, Ore., the first of the week. The Argus will follow her to her new home.

George Holsheimer, of Elmonica, was a city caller Monday evening. When Geo. first settled down on the Baseline road there was a little wilderness all around him—now it is practically Portland suburban property.

Mrs. Amanda Thyne, of Aberdeen, Wash., departed the first of the week for her home after a visit with her niece, Mrs. Janie Sewell. Mrs. Thyne was called to Portland the first of the month to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Adella Beardsley, who passed away from the result of an auto accident.

For Sale—An all-round farm team of geldings, brown and black, 1200 and 1400; true to work in all ways, single or double. Will sell one or both very reasonable, or will trade for good young milk stock; cows or heifers bred to freshen in Fall. Two miles west of Hillsboro, on highway.—Jno. A. Hobbs, R. 1, Cornelius, Ore. Telephone, Cornelius central, East 3. 8-10

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Essner, of above Mountaineer, were in the city Tuesday afternoon. They report that Mrs. Essner's sister, Mrs. Geo. Harms, was brot to the hospital in this city the first of the week. G. P. says that fishermen are getting very careless about leaving gates open and bars down while angling. As a result the owners of land along the creek are putting up some real bars, barring the fishermen from the privilege of fishing without permission.

Florence M. Ebbe sues John Ebbe for divorce. They were married at Montesano, Wn., in 1916. She alleges that the husband swears at her and her children, and that the only clothes he has bought her in the five years of marital life has been a pair of shoes. The complaint says that recently she gave him $100 to hire a team and he banked it and let the team business slip from his mind, refusing to give back the funds. She also says that on May 2 he violently laid hands on her and choked her—and she wants relief from the courts so she can paddle her own canoe without anyone rocking the boat.
