

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second class mail matter.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long

Within a week Hillsboro paid its last respects to two young men who have passed to the great beyond, human sacrifices to the ambition of power and place. The giving of their lives was not in vain. In the deaths of Claude Gray, Francis W. Rollins, Russell Carter, the two Gates brothers, Carroll and Millard, and Miss Inah Ledford, Hillsboro paid the price of the fight for liberty—which constrains one to note that the paths of patriotism, as well as glory, lead "but to the grave." These young people will live in the memory of all in Hillsboro and vicinity who have an abiding faith in the future of our institutions. If a profound gratitude is compensation for human lives lost in a great cause they are resting well.

The Community Welfare Club of Farmington met with Mrs. J. Mann, May 11, and eleven members answered roll call. After the close of the business session the hostess served a delightful lunch, assisted by Mrs. Frank Wallace and Mrs. L. Butler. Club guests were Mrs. T. E. Cornelius, Mrs. Fred Stevens, Mrs. F. B. Thiele, Mrs. H. J. Montague and Miss Myrtle Walker. The Club will meet with Mrs. L. Butler on May 26.

Fred Burgdorfer, of above Mountaineer, was a Hillsboro caller the first of the week, and added his name to the big list of the home paper. Burgdorfer has lived up on the East fork for years, and they still hunt for deer in his neighborhood—and get them—in the open season.

Mrs. M. A. Powell was called to Amity, Sunday, to attend the funeral of her brother, Leonard Umphlette, who died the last of the week from high blood pressure. His father, also the father of Mrs. Powell, was one of the pioneers of 1847.

John A. Johnson, of below Beaverton, was in the city Monday afternoon. He reports crops looking fine down his way.

John Schaefer and Emil Ospelt, of above Mountaineer, were city callers Monday morning. Both renewed for the religious weekly.

Fred B. Grabhorn, of Cooper Mountain, was a city caller the last of the week.

Andrew Pierson, of Reedville, was a city caller this morning.

Frank Schulerich was up from Farmington this morning.

THE B. F. GOODRICH RUBBER CO.
Akron, OHIO

At a meeting of the Hillsboro Club Tuesday evening B. E. Maling, of the Ray-Maling Company was present and talked of the possibilities of the coming crop and marketing incident there to. He asked the club to help him with the sale of $25,000 in stock in the institution so that it could operate this season without other financing. President Hyde will call a meeting in the near future to determine what attitude the club will take.

Hillar Back was in town Monday. He and his wife have moved to their newly purchased ranch near Tualatin. Hillar says that he could buy land down that way within twelve miles from Portland, cheaper than he could up around Banks, and he is taking a whirl at it. They formerly resided at Banks.

L. R. Campbell, of Scholls, was a Hillsboro caller Monday afternoon. He will sell 31 head of his fine registered Jerseys at Chehalis, on May 24. He is going to reduce his herd and thinks that Chehalis is a good field for sale as the banks there are getting behind registered stock pretty strong.

For sale, at $300 per acre: 58 acres for sale, or to rent for a milk ranch; 40x80 barn, with basement; 36 acres in clover, balance in pasture; plenty of running water. If rented must be responsible party. Cash in advance. 11-13

For sale or trade: One 15 H. P. gasoline engine, mounted on steel truck. Will sell or trade it for a 12 to 16 H. P. steam engine. Address John Bertness, Banks, R. 3, Box 138, or telephone E. P. Cornelius, Phone 14F12, North Plains central. 11-12

A. L. Brock, recently of Montana, was in the city from Cornelius, Monday. He has opened a garage and machine shop in the Weidewitsch old stand in the midway town.

The Free Methodist church is holding the annual conference at Portland this week. J. W. Adams will preach here at 11 a. m. and there will be no evening service because of the Baccalaureate sermon at the Christian church.—J. H. Hessler, pastor.

Mrs. Kitty Smith, of Eugene, and her daughter, Mrs. Hardy O. Howard, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rhea last Tuesday. Mrs. Smith is an old time friend of Mrs. Rhea.

Married: In Hillsboro, May 14, 1921, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. H. A. Deck, Harry T. Smith, of Portland, and Bertha W. King.

Judge Geo. R. Bagley returned the last of the week from an extended court session at Tillamook.

Elmer Mays, of North Plains, came down from his Yamhill ranch to spend Sunday at home.

MORE THAN HE PAID FOR

Page Mr. Diogenes. His search is ended. An honest man has been found. J. Harvey Curtis is his name, and Worcester, Mass., his habitat. Many moons ago he purchased from the United States Tire Company a Royal Cord tire. Months and months and months and months passed, and he still wore this Royal Cord on his trusty car. Up, up and up rolled the mileage it had compiled until the record stood at 22,050. Then the tire departed this life, and its owner, instead of sitting down and writing a letter to the maker, complaining because it had not given 30,000 miles, informed the company that he felt he owed it compensation for the extra mileage the tire had rolled up, and concluded his letter: "If you will advise me how much I owe you, I will gladly send my check." U. S. Tire Bulletin.

How About That New Roof? Is it Going to Leak?

A Roof With One or Two Leaks is Just as Aggravating as a Roof With More Leaks

Why Not Put On a Roof That is 100 per cent

You can buy a shingle 100 per cent. Clear from tip to butt (not a defect in them) and all VERTICAL GRAIN at a cost of from $6.00 to $10.00 per roof more than if shingled with ordinary Star A Star Shingles. You think nothing of putting $6.00 to $10.00 extra into the interior while this much spent on the roof which is the protection for the interior from the elements is so much more important.

Putman Perfection Shingles

Are 100 Per Cent Clear

100 Per Cent Vertical Grain

In ordering, do not say you just want shingles—say you want PUTMAN PERFECTS.
