

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long

The interment of a Hillsboro daughter, the late Imah Ledford, recalls the great war and the part women assumed during the days when one waited and watched for news from the front which meant death to so many. So long as there are sons to defend our common country there will be daughters who will answer the call to the "mother-heart" to help bear the burden imposed upon us by reason of warfare, and care for those who are victims of shot and shell. And now comes the fullest realization of the deepest sense of citizenship—and she sleeps in the land of her childhood.

The Argus is constrained to remark that on June 7 is a good time to remember the boys who fought their country's fight, and fought it well.

The Reedville baseball steam roller flattened Banks at Aloha last Sunday 15 to 8. Weisenback, for Reedville, was in great form, striking out 10 men. As usual the Reedville boys did some heavy hitting which assisted by some costly errors on the part of the visiting team was responsible for the heavy score. The Reedville boys are "raring" for a chance at the K. C.s, the only team that has been able to clean up on them.—Fan.

Lakeview Temple, Pythian Sisters, of Gaston, have invited the Hillsboro and North Plains Pythian Sisters to a benefit dance at the Gaston Knights of Pythias Hall, Friday evening, June 3.

Congregational Church—Bible school at 10 a. m.; worship and sermon at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., topics "Inasmuch" and "Enriched by Friendship," a chart will be used in connection with the morning message; Christian Endeavor Society meets at 6:45 p. m.—H. A. Deck, minister.

Father Costello departed Tuesday for Alexander, Nebraska, to attend the funeral of his only brother, Joseph Costello, who died Decoration Day. He will reach Alexander Friday, and the funeral will be held immediately upon his arrival. His brother was running a big ranch three miles out of Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Black and Mrs. Harry Black and two little sons, went to Drain the first of the week to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Black return today and Mrs. Black Jr. and boys will remain a few days longer. Meantime Harry is keeping bachelor hall.

Wade Everest, who is running a dairy down the river has moved off the lowland and taken his stock to the hills above St. Helens. He writes the C. Blenders that the flood has done thousands of dollars in damage to the dairymen along the river.

Norbert Patterson came up from Linnton, Saturday night, remaining until after Decoration day. He says there are more men "hiking" along the Columbia river with rolls of blankets on their backs than at any time since the big war closed.

Mrs. Violet Stinnett and little son, of Merlin, Southern Oregon, arrived the last of the week for an extended visit with Mrs. Stinnett's uncle, Walter Taylor. Mrs. Stinnett has been teaching the past year at Merlin.

The Community church will be dedicated on Sunday, June 5. Basket dinner on river bank at noon. Coffee and ice cream served by the Ladies' Aid Society. All are welcome. Come and bring baskets.—S. G. Powell.

Harry Cook, of Cornelius, was in the city Saturday talking baseball. In the days that were Harry was one of the best third-sackers in the Tualatin district.
