FINE HOME BURNS

The fine ranch home of E. E. Rice on the former Herman Collier place, near Scholls, was a complete loss by fire one evening last week. Mr. Rice was in the field when the blaze started. His wife and small child were in the house when the boy heard the fire crackling in the upper story. He called his mother's attention to the noise and the blaze was discovered. The alarm was given and in a few minutes there were over a hundred neighbors present. Hard work could not stop the blaze, however, and only the contents of the lower rooms aside from the kitchen were saved. The loss is estimated at about $9,000 and the insurance amounts to $2500.

The Scholls Odd Fellows had assembled and were about to convene when the alarm was given and the three linkers all went in a body to help.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice desire to thank their neighbors for their assistance.

The home was modern in all respects and was one of the best country homes in the county.

President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, was in the city Friday evening and delivered the High School commencement address at the Methodist Episcopal Church. President Campbell is personally known in Hillsboro and his visits to the city are appreciated by the oldtimers. Years ago he was president of the State Normal at Monmouth, and many residents of this section were students there when he was instructor.

Five-room house in good repair; easily converted to six-rooms; acre and quarter of land; on Main Street, Banks, Oregon. Shrubbery; good water. A fine home for some one at a bargain, for short time. To see it is to satisfy. Nice location.—M. S. Woodman, Banks, Ore. 12-14

Wm. Briot, who is well known in Hillsboro proved up on a 160-acre homestead above Mountaindale, near the Potato Patch section, Friday, in Portland, before Register Sweek, of the Portland land office. Briot says that a man can't make all his living on a homestead, but he will soon have enough cleared on the place to give it all his attention.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Cooley, of Salem, were here Friday evening and Saturday, coming down to attend the commencement and graduation exercises of Hillsboro High. Their daughter, Miss Neva, was in the graduating class, and she returned with them Friday afternoon. Mr. Cooley is in the mercantile business in the capital city.

Robert Imbric, who is attending college at Kirksville, Mo., where he is taking a course in Osteopathy, returned the last of the week, and will spend his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Imbric, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Boge, of Farnington, were Hillsboro callers Friday afternoon.

They never made a cigarette like this in my day—

The Camel idea wasn't born then. It was the exclusive expert Camel blend that revolutionized cigarette smoking.

That Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos hits just the right spot. It gives Camels such mellow mildness and fragrance!

The first time I smoked Camels I knew they were made for me. I knew they were the smoothest, finest cigarette in the world, at any price.

Nobody can tell me anything different.
