

HOBOKEN SERVICE

The following letter and program are self-explanatory:
May 24, 1921.
Dear Mrs. Ledford,
Hillsboro, Oregon.
I am enclosing for you a program of the service held yesterday in Hoboken, N. J. They were very solemn and very impressive. There were eleven of our Red Cross Nurses returned with the soldiers and we located each one of them on the pier and attached them to the American Flag as we were proud to have them known as members of the Nursing Service. Although they have been gone many months the loss is none the less real, but I think if you could have heard the words of appreciation yesterday you would indeed feel that they had not died in vain.
I am writing to the Red Cross Nursing Committee nearest to you and hope they will be able to attend the service.
Our thoughts and our sympathy are with you.
Very sincerely yours,
Florence M. Johnson,
Director of Nursing, Atlantic Division.

George Washington's Prayer For The Country.
Almighty God, we make our earnest prayer that thou wilt keep the United States in thy holy protection; that thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; to cherish a brotherly affection and love for one another and for their country of the United States at large; and finally that thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that civility, humility and lowly temper of mind, which are the characteristics of the true American citizen, and without an humble imitation of whose example in these things we can never hope to be a happy nation. Grant our application, we beseech thee, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Amen.
The Services on Sunday were attended with the President making the address.

The Ninth Annual Convention of the Washington County Christian Endeavor Union will be held Saturday and Sunday, June 4th and 5th, at the Reedville Presbyterian church. The theme is to be "Joyous," and a splendid program has been arranged along this general subject. The business sessions on Saturday afternoon will dispose of the various reports of the year's work, and the election of officers. One of the interesting features of the convention will be the big picnic luncheon on Sunday evening, in which all of the local societies throughout the county will participate. The Washington County Union includes fifteen local societies scattered throughout the county.
If you are in the market for a monument, see me before buying. A large number of designs from which to select, at prices which cannot be equalled. Have the agency for the Otto Schumann Co., of Portland.—H. W. Prickett, Banks, Ore. 49-22
The marriage license counter had quite a business the past week. The last days of May saw licenses issued so rapidly that Deputy Luce had an attack of writer's palsy. Those taking out the little slips were Bruce McCann and Ida Zimmer, of Manning; Noel Heggard and Loretta Folkensberg, of Gaston; Homer Blicd and Estella Mobley, of Portland; Thos. H. Folkensberg and Lela May Brown, Northeast Washington County; Joseph Parsons and Claribel Crawford, Forest Grove; Henry M. Shannon and Bessie Hanley; Vernon McCrary, San Joaquin, Cal., and Irma Harris, Beaverton; and David B. Kingsley and Mary E. Lacer.
Postmaster Competitive Examination for vacancy at Oregon will be held June 22. Men, women, 21 to 65 eligible. Appointment to one of three highest in examination. For course of instruction, specimen questions, etc., write U. S. School of Civil Service, Equitable Bldg., Washington, D. C. 12-13
Circuit Court—Florence Elbe was given a decree of divorce from John Elbe, each to pay own costs. The Portland, Astoria & Pacific Ry. case against C. L. Brown, condemnation right of way, was dismissed upon motion of plaintiff in a non-suit, without prejudice. Sweko Toppich, convicted of liquor law violation, was fined $500. On paying $200 and costs, $65.80, he was paroled as to the balance. The case of Eva I. Troch vs. Mr. Lambright, suit over one-third of a crop, claimed by each, is on trial today.
Only monument dealers in Washington County. Drop us a card and we will show you our samples. Write or call on us, at 1363 Main St., Hillsboro—Oregon Monument Works, Hillsboro, Oregon. 50-11
The Community Welfare Club of Farmington met at the home of Mrs. L. Butler, May 26. Mrs. E. Reche, president, presided over the program. After the business session, Mrs. Butler introduced an art contest. Mrs. Reche and Mrs. A. Scott winning the prizes. Fourteen members and five guests were in attendance. The Club will meet with Miss Ida Robinson June 9.
For sale: Champion mower, 5-ft. cut; first class order, with new sickle and plates.—Wm. Huntman, Hillsboro, R. 4; south of Oak Park; phone 35R5. 13
For Sale—Good top buggy, pole and shafts; also single harness.—A. P. Luther, 733 North Range St., Hillsboro, Ore. 13
Neil Bennett, of Laurel, was a city caller Tuesday.

BANKERS BEAT BARBERS
The bankers and barbers played a challenge game of three innings on the local grounds last night and the money changers won by a score of 13 to 9. It looked mighty bad for the Wall Street bunch when they went to bat in the last inning for the barbers had 9 runs piled up on the bankers 4 tallies. Then something broke loose. The bankers put over 9 in the inning, winning the game. Geo. Schulerich made a hit thro the fence—the only hit outside that was not a home run. Wilcs got the ball and George made only third base. It was a heart-breaking game, at that, and the oldtimers feel pretty good at wassing the youngsters. Bill Schulerich umpired—and it was no wonder that he liked for Tillamook this morning.
Shute and Edw. Bowman were the battery for the bankers, and Boos and Turner for the barbers. Old Man Art Shute pitched a great game and never walked a man. Ed Schulerich starred at third base, and Emil Kuratli won the toy balloon as a baserunner.
The line up for the bankers—Shute, p; Bowman, c; H. R. Morgan, 1b; Johnson, 2b; Ed Schulerich, 3b; F. J. Sewell, ss; Cal Jack, lf; Geo. Schulerich, cf; and E. Kuratli, rf.
The barbers—Boos, p; Turner, c; J. D. Anderson, 1b; Moyes, 2b; Stevens, 3b; Wilcox, ss; Tom Shuck, cf; Wiles, lf; Blatchley, rf.
About tonight the armia will begin selling and the two drug stores have ordered a barrel—of armia, of course.
The barbers want a return game, but the bankers have notified them that they are not in the same class—the only team they will play is the Beavers. One of the results of the game was the sale of 9 hats by the local merchants. Every banker player burst his hat band on the way home and each bought a new chapeau this morning. It was the greatest game of the season.

SHANNON—HANLEY
Henry M. Shannon and Miss Bessie Hanley were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lily Hanley, June 1, 1921. The bride is well known at Leisville, North of Hillsboro, where she has grown to womanhood. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Shannon, and is engaged in farming on the North Plains. Both have a host of friends who wish them every happiness.

HILLSBORO WINS
Hillsboro traveled to Oswego last Sunday and trimmed the Oswego team in a slugfest, winning by a score of 23 to 6. Kreitz and Winegardner were the batting stars for Hillsboro, Kreitz getting the longest drive of the year on the Oswego grounds. Winegardner pounded out 5 singles out of seven times up. The batteries, Oswego, Lamb, Osten and Anderson; for Hillsboro, Foster and Kreitz.
Oswego batted ten hits in Foster, while Hillsboro pounded out 21 from the Oswego delivery.
On Sunday, June 5, the league-leading Artisans will again visit Hillsboro and they are coming for revenge. Hillsboro trimmed them in the opening game—the only game the Artisans lost this year. At that the locals say they have no chance to take the coming game. —Dillon.
K. C. WIN
The Hillsboro K. of Cs placed themselves on the baseball map good and strong when they defeated Tigard Sunday by a score of 7 to 6 on the Tigard grounds. Monday they added another scalp to their belt by cleaning up on the Portland K. of Cs at Cornelius, the score being 12 to 11. Art says that John Wunderlich has a fad of going among the players about the 7th inning and handing each a rabbit's foot, and then the procession begins.
This makes 5 out of 6 games that the Hillsboro K. of Cs have won, and the one they didn't win is under protest.
After seeing the bankers and barbers game last evening Art thinks that the Hillsboro P. O. clerks and carriers may challenge either of the two aggregations in the near future, but they want to bar Geo. Schulerich from the game on the plea that Babe Ruths are not allowed.

PARSONS—CRAWFORD
Joseph Parsons and Miss Clara Belle Crawford, of Forest Grove, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hines, of that city, June 1, 1921. Rev. O. P. Burris officiating. The bride was charming in a white organdie with veil, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Those present at the wedding were the family of the bride, Mrs. Wm. Crowthers, Gales; Mrs. A. D. Medwed and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Crawford, Laurel; Mrs. L. E. Crawford and daughters, Louise and Lilah, Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Lidyard, Miss Pauline Ingerson, Miss Neva LaBelle Parsons, Miss Lutie L. Tibbets.
Mr. and Mrs. Parsons departed for Newport for their honeymoon and will be at home to their friends at their home in Forest Grove after June 15.
WM. ELDER McLEOD
William Elder McLeod, a well known resident of near Beaverton, died Saturday morning, May 28, after a lingering illness. He is survived by his widow; a son, Harry B.; three daughters, Mrs. E. C. Stout, Mrs. J. P. Gustafson, and Mrs. A. W. Buchanan; three sisters, Mrs. Marian Llewellyn and Mrs. James W. Spangler, of Seattle, and Mrs. Ross Price, of Portland; and a brother, A. L. McLeod, of Chicago.
Mr. McLeod was a life member of the Maccabees. He was well known in Hillsboro, having worked for the G. H. P. Lumber Co. a couple of years ago.
Ben Thurnher, of above Bloomington, was over town yesterday morning and made his annual call on the home paper.

W. H. Forney, of Oak Park, was greeting friends in the city Tuesday. He will soon make a trip to Connell, Wn., where he has about six hundred acres of fine looking wheat.
Wanted: Red and white peonies or roses, to be used on the Health float Thursday, June 9, at the Rose Festival. Anyone wanting to let us have some please send to Miss Charlotte Walker, County Health Nurse, 1554 Lincoln Street, Hillsboro, before noon of June 8. Tel. 108.
J. F. Perrenboom, of Roy, has started official testing of pure bred Holsteins. This is the second herd in the county to take up this work. Buyers of pure bred cattle now invariably demand that production records showing the producing ability or capacity of the individual and ancestors they wish to buy, and they are willing to pay more for good proven records. 15

Erwin Ritter, of Bethany, was greeting friends in the city yesterday.
H. A. Shadden, of near North Plains, was over town Wednesday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bowly, of South Tualatin, were city callers the last of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beach, of North Plains, were in town Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mulloy, of Laurel, were city callers Saturday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Loeb were guests at the Bessie Archbold home the last of the week.
Married: David B. Kingsley and Mary E. Lacer were united in marriage by Hon. J. W. Goodin, May 31, 1921.

Cement work of all kinds—driveways, curbs, etc.; prompt service and neat, substantial work. Estimates cheerfully furnished. W. G. Smith, Contractor, Tel. 244 or call at 1123 North St. 1217
Miss Helen Connell visited in Forest Grove Tuesday evening.

NEW ENTERPRISE
R. J. Sacchi, formerly of Coos County, is remodeling a building on Second Street and will about June 15 open up a dairy and dairy product station. They will install machinery and make pasteurized milk, cottage cheese, handle cream, milk and butter milk. They will retail and wholesale, and Mr. Sacchi says this is a good field for the business.

GARAGE VS. GARAGE
Perkins Garage went to bat against the Cady Garage on the local ball ground one evening last week, and the Perkins nine beat the other 8 to 1. It was a lively game and rules counted for nothing. Roland Sutherland sustained a badly sprained ankle and was under the care of Dr. E. H. Smith for several days. This was the game that stirred up rivalry between the bankers and barbers and started something.

CARD OF THANKS
We desire to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly tendered aid and sympathy during the obsequies of our beloved sister, Imah Ledford, and return special thanks to the American Legion.
The Family.
Hillsboro, Ore., June 1, 1921.
