To those who say there is nothing in a name, attention is called to the fact that Grover Cleveland hired a substitute and stayed at home during the Civil War, while Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, in the late war, hired a steamship and got as far away from home as possible.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Third and Washington Sts. (The Church of the Friendly Greeting) Walton Skipworth, pastor—9:45 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., sermon; 7 p. m., Epworth and Junior Leagues; 8 p. m., sermon; choir practice, Wednesday evening; prayer meeting, Thursday evening.

Tom Cornelius, of South Tualatin, was over town the last of the week. Tom is feeling peeved because two acres of fine winter wheat has fallen as flat as a carpet, due to wind and rain. He says the patch promised about 65 bushels to the acre—now he will cut it for hay.

Visitors the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Schwartz were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Reynolds and children, Vesta and Ernest, of Prineville, and Mrs. R. B. Bogue and daughter, Lois, of Hoquiam, Wash.

Standing clover hay in field, for sale. About 20 acres.—F. M. Crabtree, Laurel, Ore.

Mrs. Ernest Foord had her tonsils removed Tuesday, Dr. E. H. Smith performing the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hare motored over to Pacific City, on the Tillamook coast line, Saturday, returning Sunday night. They are putting up a cottage on their beach property.

Machinist Thomas, with the Otto Erickson Co., at South Second, for four years, has severed his connection with the mechanical force of the company and is taking a vacation.

Lutheran services next Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the United Evangelical church, on Third St., between Washington and Baseline.—P. H. Schaus, pastor.

J. C. Kuratli returned the first of the week from a trip to Union and Baker counties and says that after a ten days' visit to the upper region any man who is not satisfied with old Washington County is mighty hard to please.

About hundred members of the Hillsboro Christian Church motored to Farmington last Sunday for a big union service. After the service by Mr. Fishback there was a big basket dinner in the grove. The church is planning to make it an annual event.

Thos. Talbot, Cornelius old-timer, ran down to the city yesterday and spent an hour greeting friends. While he has retired Tom hasn't forgotten the days when he took care of a big section of Southern Pacific track leading from Cornelius.

Misses Agnes and Stella Bulloch, of Montreal, Canada, arrived a few days ago and are the guests of their sister, Mrs. C. C. Wight, of near Cornelius. They will remain several months. This is their first trip to the West and they are charmed with Oregon.

Mrs. C. W. Rollins and daughter, Miss Lillian, are spending the week with the J. C. Beebens, at the Lone Pine Farm, near Orenco. Miss Tennessee Weathered was a week-end guest at the Beeben home also.

W. A. Goodin, the Guernsey breeder, was in town Monday. He started out Wednesday morning with the Guernsey itinerary down the Columbia river, bound for Astoria and waypoints, and the delegation will make Pacific County, Washington, before their return.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chase returned this week from Vancouver, Wn., where they attended the graduating exercises of the high school, their daughter, Miss Helen, being one of the class. Miss Chase will assist her father in the office of the Hillsboro Sash & Door Planning Mill.

Philip Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Thompson, and Chester Heltzel, son of Mrs. John Carstens, have shipped on the West Kader, a steamer that is now loading wheat in Portland, chartered for a trip to China and Manchuria ports. The vessel loaded lumber at Westport last week and came up to Portland harbor yesterday to take on wheat for Oriental delivery. Geo. Thompson, a brother of Philip, is now enroute to China on another vessel.

Washington County's share of the Fair appropriation has been awarded by Gov. Olcott, the sum being $1056.11. Isn't it about time for some one to revive the Fair idea in Hillsboro? With state help, which we all pay in part, the project could be made to pay. With grounds adjacent to Shute Park, and with a pavilion for use of big audiences, Hillsboro is better than ever equipped to handle a real county fair.

Church of Christ, corner Third and Baseline—10:00, beat Mouth by being one of 175 at the Sunday School next Sunday. This is the last Sunday of the contest and we are only 15 points ahead. 11:00, subject, "The Faith of the Apostles." 7:15, Junior and Intermediate Endeavor. 8:00, sermon subject, "The Advantages of Being a Christian."—Len B. Fishback, pastor.

Congregational Church—Bible School at 10 a. m.; worship and sermon at 11 a. m. The Woodmen of the World, Hillsboro Camp No. 500, will attend this service. The pastor's topic, "A Monument to Usefulness." Service at 7:30 p. m., topic, "A Great Controversy."—H. A. Deek, minister.

Miss Ella Bechen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bechen, of north of Orenco, graduated from Washington University, Monday. Miss Bechen is a graduate of Hillsboro High School and has many friends here.

Elmer Mays, who divides his time between North Plains and his Yamhill ranch, was in the city the last of the week.

Ex Commissioner Hesse was up from Scholls Monday.

Miss Estella Ashlar has taken a position with the Hazelwood people at Bridal Veil.

Mrs. T. P. Heidenstrom and little daughter, Vera Marie, of Silverton, were guests of Miss Golda Sewell, Sunday.

Fred Keller, of above taindale, was a city caller today. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Antrim, recent arrivals from Swifton.

Miss Jessie Mackay, of land, was in the city Sunday, guest of her mother and brother, Dr. J. T. Mackay, and family.
