LOCAL BALL TEAM BEATS KIRKPATRICKS

Fans Witness a Fast Game, Hillsboro Winning, 7 to 3

TOSSERS BATTLE AFTER 3D

Chet Henderson and Jansen Get Three Hits Each, Sunday

Hillsboro played ball Sunday—real baseball, and as a result, closed up in the percentage column by defeating the fast Kirkpatrick team, score of seven to three. It took Gray just three innings to get his soapstone to working just right—and after that there was nothing to it but Hillsboro. Up to the end of the third the score stood 3 to 3. There was nothing doing at the home plate with either team until the seventh frame, when Hillsboro put three across by getting four timely hits off Bland, the Kirkpatrick pitcher. This put the game in cold storage, for Gray allowed but three hits in the last six innings doing marvelous things.

Chet Henderson and M. Jansen led in the hitting, each slugging out three hits. The locals are just beginning to hit their strides under the management of Catcher Fobdy Knets, and the up-coming teams must watch their laurels. The next league game will be played July 10. The celebration games listed are: With Yamhill July 2; with the American Railway Express team July 3 and 4. All games on these dates will start at 2:30.

At this juncture is a good time to say that Hillsboro is now just a game and a half behind the league leaders.

The league standing this date: Crown Williams 715, United Artisans 667, Kirkpatrick 572, Hillsboro 555, Sherman 500, Oswego 400.

Oswegoans lost eight games straight, and their manager is advertising for a consignment of rabbit glands, so they can run bases.

Sunday's line-up for Hillsboro—C. Henderson, P; C. McEntire, C; G. Henderson, 2b; Paddy Knets, 3b; M. Jansen, ss; H. Kuehler, rf; Clay Freeman, lf; J. Solber, sb, and Gray, pitcher.

PIONEERS

Pioneers will meet and register at Second and Washington Streets, Prkins salesrooms, on Sunday, 9:30. The parade will head north on Second, to Lincoln, thence east to Third, thence south to the highway, Baseline; from there east on highway to Shute Park. All badges will be distributed at Second and Washington.

Why bring your baskets to the celebration when you can get lunch at Hazel's and Babe's place. All kinds of good things to eat. July 2-3-4, Shute Park.

Oscar Uebel, farming the home place above Mountaineale, was in town the last of the week.

MRS. J. W. HARTRAMPF

Mrs. Fredericks Wilhelmina Hartrampf died at her home, North Third Street, Hillsboro, June 26, 1921. Her maiden name was Hoppe, and she was born at Stettin, Germany, October 19, 1848. She came to the United States in 1864 and was married to J. W. Hartrampf in Dodge County, Wisconsin, in 1867. To the union twelve children were born. One died in infancy, and the others lived to maturity. Eight children survive, five sons and three daughters: William Hartrampf, Forest Grove; Robert Hartrampf, Ferdinand; Hartrampf and Albert Hartrampf, of Hillsboro, and O. to Hartrampf, of above Mountaineale; Mrs. Elizabeth Thies, of Gaston; Mrs. Minnie Luther, wife of Earl Luther, Salem, and Miss Amanda Hartrampf, at home. There are sixteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren living. The husband passed away in Hillsboro in 1912.

Before coming to Oregon in 1886 the Hartrampfs resided in Wisconsin and Michigan, and for the last 18 years the home has been in Hillsboro.

Mrs. Hartrampf was a woman of great strength of character and universally beloved. Their many friends in Hillsboro, Cornelius and Forest Grove extend to the children their deepest sympathy.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, at the Methodist Church, Rev. Walton Skipworth conducting the rites. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery. Geo. J. Lumber directing.

ARCHBOLD ESTATE FIRE

The house owned by the estate of the late A. C. Archbold, on Fourth, north of Main St., caught fire yesterday shortly after noon, and was badly burned, the rear being almost a total loss. The downstairs of the front was damaged by water, and the upstairs of the same section will require a couple of hundred dollars worth of work on roof, ceiling and walls. The home was occupied by Geo. Newton and family. Mrs. Newton was visiting relatives at Eugene, and Mr. Newton and the boys had just returned from visiting relatives at Donald, a few minutes before the fire broke. The cause is supposed to have been defective wiring, as the blaze was first noticed around the ceiling. The fire department had hard luck from the start, due to poor pressure.

Newton's loss on household effects will amount to from $200 to $250. All of the furniture was taken out of the front part of the building, and only effects in the kitchen were destroyed. A big steel range was practically unimpaired.

John C. Shaffer and Addye M. Miller, of Beaverton, were married at Vancouver, Wn., June 27, 1921.

McKAY REUNION

The fifth annual reunion of McKay School, District No. 18, was held near Whitford station, below Beaverton, June 18. The hall near the school was used as an assembly place, as the weather was inclement. The ardor and spirit of the woods was transferred by decorating the walls with balsam fir and shrubs. Two long tables were improvised and made beautiful with fruits and flowers—and a tempting dinner. After dinner a social hour was enjoyed and there was an informal program of music and speech making. A. V. Denny made an address of welcome and recalled many incidents of happy school days. Mr. Himes, of the Oregon Historical Society, pronounced the report of the first year's meeting the best school history in the state. A. B. Wilmut, of Oswego, one of the early teachers, was greeted by twelve of his pupils of fifty years ago. H. B. Nichols, a pupil of that term, and later a teacher there, met a number of his gray-haired boys and girls who attended his school. Among other teachers present were F. J. Denney, of Jefferson, Ore., a member of the first school taught in 1857 by Mary Ann Stott; Harvey G. Starkweather, of Oregon City; Miss Lucy Humphreys, of Portland; C. E. Tigard, of Tigard; Edythe Tozier-Weathered, Hood River, and Olive Stott Gabriel, of New York—all members of pioneer families. George H. Himes related Oregon historical incidents, and after a happy reunion the party adjourned with promises to meet again next year, following the pioneer association meeting in Portland.—E. D. McGowan, chronicler.

COUNTY AT O. A. C.

The nine delegates from Washington County attending the Boys' and Girls' Summer School at Corvallis were Geo. Trofiter, Robert Grandy, Eugene Bishop, Tigard Rabbit Club; Dolly Jackson, Clare Christensen, Hillsboro; Estella Clark, Sherwood; Delpha Hughes, Metzger; Louis Gilbrede, Metzger, and Marion West, Tigard. These members represented the sewing, home-making, cooking, canning, poultry and rabbit projects of county work. The Tigard Rabbit Club presented Mr. Seymour with a rabbit's foot, and he carried it through the session. There were 235 boys and girls at the school. The girls' classes were instructive and the swimming tank for both boys and girls was a joy forever. The boys' classes were replete with interest and the lads buckled to their work with gusto. To Mr. Allen is given the honor and credit of the finest stock judging contest, the sons of Mr. Cornett winning by 725 and 690 scores out of a possible 800. The rabbit judging contest was won by Geo. Trofiter, Tigard, with Robt. Grandy second.

The Rabbit Club boys of Tigard, hope to meet more Washington County students at next year's Summer School at O. A. C.

COUNTY IS 14TH IN STATE FIRE LOSSES

Fire Report of State Warden for Year Ending March 31

TWO DEATHS FROM FIRES

Insurance Paid on 63 Fire Losses Aggregate $39,168.99

Washington County had 63 fire losses for the year ending March 31, 1921, according to the report of the state fire marshal. For these fires the insurance companies paid $39,168.99. In the matter of fire loss the county is the fourteenth in the state, which is rather a matter of congratulation as the state stands about 8th on population and wealth. The list of fires is classified as follows by the state authority:

Property	Amount
20 dwellings and contents	$6,180.06
23 farm dwellings and contents	4,403.18
3 farm barns and contents	2,165.00
2 manufacturing plants, etc.	23,387.45
Church and schools	3.00
2 warehouses, etc.	475.75
9 mercantile bldgs, etc.	2,386.81
2 miscellaneous	165.74
Defective flues, stoves and heaters cost the insurance companies $4,289.59; matches and careless smokers cost $340.74; rubbish and sparks, $4,745.46; petroleum products, $406.91; hot ashes, etc., $132.51; open lights or fires, $1,360; unknown origin, $26,943.55; known but not classified, $921.50; exposures, $29.53.

For the fiscal year there was but one case of arson reported—that of Robt. O. J. and Jos. Itel, of Tualatin, who pleaded guilty to burning a dwelling and auto, and were sentenced to seven years each in the penitentiary and paroled during good behavior.

There were two deaths from fire for the 12 months—Marie Maitland, an eleven months' old child at Cherry Grove. The house caught fire from a red-hot stove, the blaze catching the wall paper. The other fatality was when Peter T. Johnson, of near Tualatin, was burned up in a fire caused by the explosion of a gas lamp.

The report contains a note of the conviction of C. A. Elwell, well known here, who is serving time for postal embezzlement. Elwell set fire to his store at Jennings Lodge, Dec. 26, 1919, standing trial after he had confessed. He was found guilty and sentenced to two years.

THERIAULT-FLEMING

At Sandpoint, Idaho, the Rev. Fertig officiating, occurred the marriage, on Saturday, May 28, 1921, of Miss Esther Fleming, of Glendive, Montana, and Carl H. Theriault, of Eureka.

While the announcement comes rather as a surprise, it was not unexpected, close friends having given out the word that the wedding was to be held this fall, or words to the effect that Miss Fleming, who has been a teacher in the local schools, would return this fall, but not to teach. At any rate, it looks as though they had tried to "slip one over," but the Sandpoint papers evidently were not consulted and the news leaked out.

Both of the young people are well and favorably known, the bride, an accomplished young lady, having taught the kindergarten department the past year, and the bridegroom, through years of residence here, is well known and has a wide acquaintance. They will receive the hearty congratulations of many friends.—Eureka (Mont.) Journal.

The groom is well known by Hillsboro's younger set, having resided here several years ago. He is a son of Mrs. C. T. Young, of Gateway, Montana. Mr. Theriault is an ex-service man.

E. W. Dant, of Reedville, was in town Saturday, greeting his friends. He recently sold some Portland people some cherries, permitting them to pick them and giving them an exceptionally low price. The next night they came and skinned his tree by moonlight and forgot to leave the change. Gene thinks it doesn't pay to play the Good Samaritan.
