WINIFRED WINDUS IS WHOLE PLAY COMPANY

Gifted Reader Takes the Parts of Many Characters.

Presenting selections from plays, taking the parts of all the characters and doing it so realistically that you lose sight of the artist and see only the people portrayed—this is the enjoyable feature awaiting you on the third afternoon of Chautauqua. Winifred Windus, well-known reader and interpreter of plays, presents "The Florist's Shop," a delightful comedy and cuttings from "The World and His Wife." In addition to a group of miscellaneous readings, all of which show rare artistry.

PROMINENT FRENCH VIOLINIST COMING

First Western Tour of Noted European Artist.

Mlle. Lucille Collette, distinguished French violinist, who is making her initial Chautauqua tour of the Pacific Coast this season, was obliged during the war to cancel all her European engagements, including one under Sir Henry Wood of Queen's Hall, London.

to attend. Prayer meeting Thursday night.

Harc, McAlair & Peters, Attorneys for Administratrix.

BIG AFFAIR

The opening ball in the Shute Park Auditorium, Saturday night, was one of the finest social functions ever held in Hillsboro. The tickets sold to gentlemen numbered 529, and war tax was paid on all who were admitted. The big floor was a revelation to many and the affair was enjoyed to the limit. The big crowd was orderly and dancing stopped promptly at midnight. The net balance to the city treasury for the evening was $451.05. Walker's orchestra furnished the music.

The Christian Sunday School won in the contest with the Sunday School of the Monmouth Christian Church. The contest was a lively one and undecided until the last Sunday. The Sunday School here had 215 present, thus winning the contest by only 140 points. A banner is forthcoming from the Monmouth Church in acknowledgement of their defeat.

MISS PAULINE GOETTER

Miss Pauline Goetter, a well known professional nurse, a resident of this county for the last ten years, died suddenly at Los Angeles, Saturday, June 25, 1921. She was visiting with a sister at Beverly Hills, near Los Angeles, and had been in splendid health. Miss Goetter was born in Germany August 10, 1876, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goetter, of Garibaldi Avenue, Hillsboro. She came to the United States with her parents in 1881, and at maturity took a course of training as a nurse, following the profession for years. She is survived by her parents and the following brothers and sisters:

Mrs. Louise Achzig, Sacramento, Cal.; Mrs. H. P. Schaffer, Lander, Wyoming; Mrs. John Oppenlander, Gales Creek; Mrs. Herbert Frazier, LaSalle, Colo.; Mrs. Adam Hergert Jr., of Nampa, Idaho; Ernest Goetter, employed as a blacksmith by the county at the machine shops, on Baseline St., Hillsboro; William Goetter, letter carrier for the city office, Hillsboro.

The remains left Los Angeles, Monday evening, and were taken to the Donelson & Bell parlors, where services were held this afternoon at 2:30. Rev. J. H. Karpstein officiating. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

The news of the death came as a great shock to the family, as a private letter from Miss Goetter, written a week prior, stated that she was in the best of health.

I ought to know I grow tobacco

You can't beat a Camel, because you can't beat the tobacco that goes into Camels.

That's why Camels are the choice of men who know and love fine tobacco. They know what makes Camels so smooth, so fragrant and mellow-mild.

They'll tell you that the expert Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos makes a cigarette smoke you can't equal—no matter what you pay.

But it doesn't take an expert to tell Camel quality. You'll spot it the very first puff. Try Camels yourself.
