

For Sale—Five-foot McCormick mower, never set up—will sell for $80; also have for sale Osborne springtooth harrow and Osborne disc, both new.—Wm. Oelrich, Orenco, Ore. 18

Want to buy a good farm horse, to weigh 1200 pounds, or more. Must be cheap, as I will pay cash. Write T. E. Bledsoe, Beaverton, Route 4, or telephone. 17-18

J. P. Finta, of near Huber, was up to the county seat Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peters, of above North Plains, were Hillsboro callers Tuesday.

Mrs. C. V. Wilkins came over from Woodburn to spend the 4th and remained in town this week, the guest of friends.

John McCallen, who has paid for and read the Argus for 27 years, was a caller at the office Tuesday afternoon.

Wanted—Forty or fifty good milk cows. Call at Bigelow Bros., near Minter bridge, on former J. C. Hare ranch, Hillsboro, Route 3. Phone 2562. 17-19

Mrs. J. B. Dinsmore and two little sons departed for Seattle, Sunday, for an extended visit with relatives. While there the family will enjoy a reunion of all the children of the family.

Lost—Black clasp purse, containing two ten dollar bills and some silver—a little over $3. Liberal reward.—Notify Alvin Lull, Scholfield, Ore., or leave at Argus office. 18-20

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Battles, of Grand Island, Nebraska, are the guests of L. H. Peters and family, of above Mountaineer. Mr. Battles is a brother of Mrs. Sarah Harvey, of Portland, and an uncle of Mr. Peters. The Battles were accompanied west by Mrs. Bert Battles, of Boulder, Colo., and Mrs. Broadwell. The brother and sister had not met for a number of years, and this is Mr. Battles' first trip to the Pacific Coast. Peters says that Battles washed his feet in the Atlantic when a youngster and boasted that some day he would wash them in the Pacific—and altho it is a "long time between washes," he is going to make good this year, as they will all make the Tillamook coast in a few days.

Sam Galbreath, of Tualatin, died June 29, 1921. He was aged 60 years and was the son of the pioneer Galbreath family. He is survived by his widow, Janey McE. Galbreath, and the following brothers and sisters—Lycouris Galbreath, of Tualatin; Joseph Galbreath, near Sherwood; Mrs. Martha Stone, of Kalama, Wash.; and Mrs. Effie Becker, of Seattle, Wash. Galbreath was prominent in politics for many years, and once was a candidate for the office of sheriff of Washington County. The funeral was held Sunday at Finley's, Portland, and interment was in the Winona Cemetery near Tualatin.

Wanted—Man for spare time work—must have auto or horse and wagon. Work consists of inspecting and repairing signs on public roads running a short distance out of Hillsboro. No experience necessary. Position requires a few hours time every 90 days. Liberal pay and yearly contract to responsible party. State age, occupation, and whether you have auto or rig. Applications considered confidential.—Address Manager Maintenance Department, No. 1027 W. Van Buren St., Chicago, Illinois.

A trainload of home-seekers will arrive in Portland late in July for a tour of Oregon. A part of the party will tour Washington County on July 30, arriving at Salem that evening. The local commercial bodies of the county are requested to get in touch with the Secretary of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce, Oregon Building, Portland.

Fourth of July guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gheen were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Pierson and children, George Brown, Miss Elana Schultz and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schultz, all of Oregon City, and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Langston, of Capital Hill, all coming out to indulge in the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Helms, of Kerry, Clatsop County, near Astoria, were here over the Fourth and fifth, guests at the Washington Hotel. They spent some time on their ranch on Virginia Place, east of town and are more than ever pleased with their purchase of Washington County land.

Bayfield Pooley came up from Eugene the last of the week and remained over the Fourth. Mrs. Pooley, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Emmott, for a month, returned home with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Will, of Cle Elum, Wn., arrived last of week for a visit with the R. H. Greers. Mrs. Greer, who has been visiting at Seattle and Cle Elum, returned with them.

Proof of the death of the late Thos. G. Williams has been forwarded to the headquarters of the Woodmen of the World at Denver. His policy calls for $1,000, payable to Mrs. Williams.

J. C. Pettinger sues D. L. O'Neal for $5412, asking for judgment for moneys advanced O'Neal. O'Neal was formerly in the hardware business at Banks.

Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zilly, of Portland, were Hillsboro visitors on the Fourth, guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hare.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Huntley, of Orenco, July 3, 1921, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cook, of Farmington, were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Lost—Gold watch, open face, on celebration grounds. Reward. Leave at Argus office. 19

Jake Milne, of North Plains, was over town Tuesday, tapering off from the Fourth of July jubiliations.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olsen, now located at Willamina, were down to the old home town to enjoy the Fourth.

Mrs. Letitia Smith, of Portland, was out to Hillsboro over the Fourth, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Imbrie.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gillenwater, of South Tualatin, on the Ed. Schulmerich farm, July 1, 1921, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kurathi, of Tillamook, were over to enjoy the Fourth of July festivities with relatives, the Emil and J. C. Kurathi, and the Spickers.

Mrs. C. F. Gilchrist, of Fresno, Cal., is in the city this week, a guest of her brother, J. N. Grabel, of South Hillsboro. She is also visiting the C. Christensen, of Tigard, Mrs. Christensen being her niece.

Thirty-two of her music class, chaperoned by Miss Dee Darling, enjoyed a basket picnic at the Hale Springs last Thursday. The day was spent in games, fishing, wading and swimming, and all report a royal time.

For Sale—Large modern house, barn and poultry houses, situated on one-half block of land, near Hillsboro high school; good fruit and berries. Will sell all or part. Cash or terms.—Write A. care of Argus, or phone 2812 after 6:30 p. m. 17-19

Geo. Wolf, wife and family, of Eureka, Humboldt County, Cal., arrived here the last of the week for an extended visit with Mr. Wolf's father, William Wolf, of North Hillsboro. They motored up from the California coast and had a fine trip.

J. A. Vuylsteke, of the J. E. Reeves farm, was in the city Tuesday. J. A. has rented the Ira Purdin farm above Forest Grove, on a five year lease, and will move there this fall. He is already farming a portion of the big farm. Vuylsteke is a good farmer and "knows how."

Donald E. Long, who has spent the last six months in Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas, arrived home Tuesday morning for a short visit with his parents, the L. A. Longs. He reports weather conditions back in the big packing town as rather tropical these days, and is glad to spend a week or so in the Oregon country.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter White, of Portland, were out on the Fourth, visiting the celebration grounds. They had with them their two twin sons, Ennis and Thomas. These are the youngsters born in Hillsboro, and each weighs 15 pounds. White now owns a drug store at Hawthorne and East 31st St., Portland.

Hez Stott, of near Gaston, passed through the city Tuesday morning, enroute to Portland to attend the funeral of his mother. Mrs. Stott was agent for the Southern Pacific at Yamhill for 35 years. She was a remarkably bright woman and a pioneer. Hundreds of friends in this section of Oregon deplore her death.

J. M. Churchley, of near Witch Hazel, was kicked between the eyes by a horse, Tuesday morning, the blow causing a very severe injury. Dr. J. B. Dinsmore sewed up the wound and it is getting along nicely. J. M. was doctoring a sick horse and had just released a "twitch" from the horse's nose, when the animal wheeled and connected with an impact like one given Carpentier by Dempsey. The wonder is that Mr. Churchley did not suffer a fracture of the skull.

Prince Albert's a new note in the joys of rolling 'em!

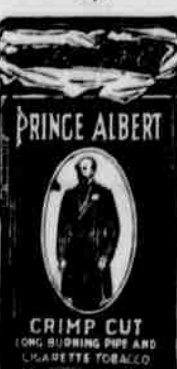

Talking about rolling your own cigarettes, we'll tell you right here that Prince Albert tobacco has 'em all lashed to the mast!

You've got a handful-of-happiness coming your direction when you pal it with P. A. and the makin's papers! For Prince Albert is not only delightful to your taste and pleasing in its refreshing aroma, but our exclusive patented process frees it from bite and parch!

And, for a fact, rolling up Prince Albert is mighty easy! P. A. is crimp cut and stays put and you whisk it into shape before you can count three! And, the next instant you're puffing away to beat the band!

Prince Albert is so good that it has led four men to smoke jimmy pipes where one was smoked before! It's the greatest old buddy-smoke that ever found its way into a pipe or cigarette!

Prince Albert is sold in tippy red bags, tidy red tins, hand some pound and half pound tins, humidors and in the pound crystal glass humidors with sponge moistener top.
