COUNTY JERSEY CLUB TOUR BIG SUCCESS

Start From Hillsboro and Visit Jersey Farms

PROF. FITTS MUCH PLEASED

Big Party Sees Fine Cattle and Gold Medal Bull

The best thing of the kind I have ever attended in the State of Oregon is the way in which Prof. E. B. Fitts spoke of the Washington County Jersey Club Tour of Washington County Jersey Farms on July 14th. "It is just such gatherings as the Jersey Club Tour that bring the breeders together and emphasize the possibilities of breeding pure bred livestock," he continued, "and centers attention on the fact that there is something in good breeding."

The Jersey Club Tour which started from Hillsboro took in the Jersey farms of Judge Bagley, Wm. Bagley, Geo. Biersdorf, H. D. Kerkman, John Vanderzelden, A. E. Westcott, Thos. Williams, Clyde Robertson, D. G. Lilly, Chas. Bamford, Mr. Sills and Wm. Behrman. Fifteen to twenty minutes were spent at each farm discussing the merits of the cattle. The owners usually had something to say about records and pedigrees.

There were so many good cattle to be seen that it would be rather difficult to pick out many outstanding but the Gold Medal Bull Puppies' St. Mawes owned by Geo. Biersdorf and one of the leading bulls of the breed in the United States comes in for special mention.

The business men of Banks served refreshments to 100 of the tourists at noon. The tables were set in the new show barns of the Banks Hog and Dairy Show. Directly after luncheon A. E. Westcott, acting as toastmaster, introduced Wm. L. Moore, of Banks, and Mr. Powne who welcomed the crowd to Banks. Other talks were made by J. J. VanKleeck, R. C. Stewart of the Oregon Journal, A. E. Rhoden, of the Pacific Homestead, Horace Addis, of the Oregon Farmer, Mr. Tennent, of the Western Farmer, J. W. Hughes, Ed. Carry, Wm. Schulmerich, J. D. Mickle and others.

The arrangements for the tour were in the hands of A. E. Westcott, Geo. Biersdorf, J. J. VanKleeck and County Agent McWhorter. Seventeen of the 24 cars starting on the trip stayed to finish which was about 5:30 P. M.

As the party broke up one could not help but reflect on the words of Prof. Fitts, "Go at the pure bred business and go right and you will succeed," and "The hope of the future in the breeding of livestock depends upon what you do in the present."

O. T. McWhorter, Co. Agent.

Carl A. Carlson, of near Scholls, was in town the last of the week, and in making his rounds paid the Argus office a call.

COMING TO OREGON

Portland, Ore., July 20. (Special)—Following the recent announcement that the date of the settlers' excursion from the middle west to Oregon had been postponed from July 19th to September 20th upon request of large numbers of homeseekers who are unable to make the trip until after harvest, the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce is making complete preparations for the September trip according to an announcement today.

Commercial clubs of the state have been urged to complete the listing of available lands in each community for the information of the settlers, and these listed lands will be placed in the hands of each member of the party, according to Secretary Quayle. In this way, the homeseeker will know in advance the price and description of actual tracts of land in each district in the state.

George Quayle, general secretary of the State Chamber, left today on a tour of the State for the purpose of securing representatives of various districts who will assist the State Chamber representative in the Middle West in the work of lining up prospective settlers.

A long telegram from Omaha, requesting additional literature on Oregon for distribution among prospective settlers, stated that a large number of homeseekers are preparing to come to Oregon in September after harvest is over.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

Edmond Mathey, for twenty-two years an employee of the Oregon Nursery Company, at Salem and Oregon, attempted suicide last Thursday evening, by slashing his throat with a razor. He was weak from blood loss when found at the room in the boarding house, and was brought to Hillsboro in hopes of saving his life. He died at the Washington County Hospital, July 16.

Mathey was a bachelor, and for some years had been an under-foreman for the nursery company. He was born in Switzerland, November 11, 1871, and came to America thirty years ago. The funeral took place at the Oregon church, Rev. Gelvin officiating. The body was taken to Salem for interment, Undertaker Bell directing.

Mathey is survived by a brother, Walter Mathey, and a sister, Mrs. Adelaide Jaquith, of Salem. Due to the fact that death did not take place until three days after the attempt at suicide, there was no necessity of inquest. Friends of Mathey state that for some time he had been pondering too closely over religious matters and this unbalanced his mind.

HILLSBORO MAN IS GIVEN STATE HONORS

Dr. L. W. Hyde Elected Commander of Oregon S. A. W. V.

AND HAS NATIONAL OFFICE

State Encampment Met at Astoria Last Week

Hillsboro was given a signal honor at Astoria, July 16, when Dr. Leon W. Hyde was elected Commander of the Oregon Spanish War Veterans. Dr. Hyde was last year re-elected to the office of Surgeon-General of the National organization of the Spanish War Veterans when they met at St. Louis, Mo.

Commander Hyde was born at Mankato, May 10, 1874, and was educated at the St. Cloud, Minn., Normal, Carlton College, Northfield, Minn. He is a graduate of Rush Medical College, Chicago, Ill., class of 1897.

When the Spanish American war broke he enlisted as a private in Co. E, 15th Minnesota Volunteer Inf. for the duration of his ilities, and was discharged at Augusta, Ga., with the rank of sergeant and made an army surgeon with the rank of first lieutenant.

He was discharged at Hartford, Conn., and opened an office at Moorhead, Minn., where he practiced medicine until he came to Portland, where he practiced until he succeeded to the practice of the late Dr. S. T. Linklater. In Portland he became associated with Scout Young Camp, Spanish War Veterans, and he has been active in the organization since that time.

Dr. Hyde has rare executive ability, and at present is the president of the Hillsboro Club, which is a big factor in municipal and civic affairs. He is public spirited and gives much of his time to the development of the city and in helping to secure its needs.

Dr. Hyde is a Knight of Pythias and a Mason, and is deservedly popular with his fellows, who hope in time to see him Commander of the national Spanish War Veterans.

He is now a member of Scout Harrington Camp, of this city, and every member of the Camp is his enthusiastic supporter for the higher honors.

DONALD J. SUTHERLAND

The remains of Donald J. Sutherland arrived in Hillsboro, from France, this afternoon, and the funeral will take place at the Baptist Church, Sunday, July 24, at 2:30 in the afternoon. Corporal Sutherland was a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sutherland, of this city, and he was in the world war. He lost his life in the battle of Belleau Wood, July 18, 1918. He was popular with his fellows in Hillsboro and with the comrades of his regiment. The American Legion will attend in a body, and the funeral will be under their auspices, with a full military funeral.

J. D. Anderson, Fred J. Sewell and T. C. Reynolds and their families departed Sunday for a week's visit to the Tillamook beaches, and will return via Seaside and Astoria.

Jack Glascoe came up from California recently, and after a few days' visit here, with his mother, Mrs. Frances Glascoe, departed for Eastern Washington the first of the week, accompanied by his brother, Lester.

MARTINAZZI BACK

J. C. Martinazzi, of Tualatin, was in Hillsboro Saturday. J. C. recently returned from a three months' visit to Italy, and says that in all his travels he found nothing like the Willamette Valley for natural fertility and productivity. He is more than ever impressed with Oregon and her possibilities as compared to anything in the old world. Mr. Martinazzi visited the principal cities of Italy and saw all the historical landmarks in Rome, Naples and other points of interest. He made a trip to Lake Como, where he has relatives, and brought back with him scores of personally taken pictures. He did not overlook Paris in his travels and nothing of historical interest was overlooked. He states Europe is satisfied that Germany will recover from her war burden quicker than any of the European countries, and says that the new republic is already putting out its traveling men to all points of world in search of trade. The "made in Germany" mark, however, is now left off of their manufactured articles and will not be stamped until the prejudice has subsided.

Martinazzi is a traveler who knows how to see things as they are, and his story of his trip would be splendid reading.

CIRCUIT COURT

Omar L. Day, of near Farmington, pleaded guilty to operating a still, and the court fined him $500. He has the privilege of paying $25 per month to liquidate the fine, the first payment to take place in September. Day had two gallons of moonshine which he had distilled from his 8-gallon still.

Fred Dancer pleaded guilty to assaulting Nick H. Kies, and was fined $150. The court, however, reduced the fine to $50 and paroled Dancer as to the balance.

G. H. Ockwig pleaded not guilty to driving an automobile while intoxicated, and R. H. Johnson, a Gaston man, pleaded not guilty to a gaming charge. A. B. Clayton made a like plea on a charge of violating the liquor law.

James M. Davis, of Beaverton, will plead July 25 to violating the liquor law.

J. E. Johnson will plead July 25 to violation of a state law in re the distribution of objectionable pictures.

Fred McConkey, charged with non-support, was allowed to go on his own recognizance, and promises to take care of his family.

The grand jury reported 39 true bills into court.

W. J. Wilson, who robbed the Fourth of July stands at the celebration grounds, pleaded guilty to larceny and was sentenced to 10 years in the pen, and paroled during good behavior. He must report to the parole officer every month, stating his location and what he is doing.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

The Washington County Farm Bureau has made arrangements with the Moline Plow Company to secure their line of Farm Machinery at approximately 15 per cent discount. The Bureau is not knocking any other standard line of farm machinery. It is only taking advantage of an opportunity to secure machinery at less cost for its members. Advance Rumeley threshers may be obtained at the same discount.

ARTISANS WORKED OVER LOCAL TEAM

Hillsboro Has Bad Hour and Half on Local Grounds and is Trimmed

WORST DRUBBING OF YEAR

Errors Galore Let Minor Hitters Get by With 15 to 3 Score

Notwithstanding the fact that Hillsboro made 14 hits to the United Artisans' 11 the Portland team walked away last Sunday with the game at the end of a 15 to 3 score. After the first inning Gray settled down in fine shape up to the seventh, when Hillsboro went to pieces in great chunks. It was a regular Custer Massacre. But it had to be. That's baseball. Hillsboro has been winning right along and it was vacation time; school was out; the water was fine, and no one could see a baseball.

G. Henderson was the hitter of the day, getting five hits at five times up—and that's going some. Henderson is crowding McEntee for honors at bat with Paddy Krietz a close third.

To mollify those who want Hillsboro to win every game I'll give a few last Sunday scores—Astoria, 19; Coin Machine, 1; and this, San Francisco, 14; Sacramento, 6; Los Angeles, 15; Salt Lake, 6; Crown-Willamette, 10; Oswego, 3; Tualatin, 20; Metzger, 1, etc. The Cleveland Americans, with a batting average of .324, were beaten Sunday by Washington, 13 to 2—so Hillsboro isn't buried because it lost a game. The local team—that's Hillsboro—has won 11 games and lost 5 this year, and is in third place in the percentage column. So there, boys, do not cry because we were trimmed like a bunch of school boys.

Next Sunday

The Crown-Willamettes are coming Sunday and the locals are going out to win from the League leaders. Paddy Krietz is sitting pretty and getting the boys out for work-outs—and every man John is going to file his eye-sight down to a pinpoint and go after the "higher ups."

Last Sunday's results—Hillsboro, 3; Artisans, 15; Crown-Willamette, 10; Oswego, 3; Sherwood, 9; Kirkpatricks, 8.

AUXILIARY TO ENTERTAIN

The Auxiliary of the American Legion will give a benefit entertainment and ice cream social, at the Legion Hall, Second St., Friday evening, July 22. Admission, 25 cents, war tax, 3 cents. An interesting program will be rendered, and ice cream and cake will be served. You are cordially invited to attend. Applications for membership will be received at this time if you care to join. Ladies eligible to membership are the relatives of ex-service men.

BUYS FINE RANCH

Frank Hertel, of Roberts, Idaho, purchased the Dudley mill ranch of 130 acres this week, from Max Behling, who a few years ago bought from Judge Geo. R. Bagley. This is one of the productive ranches of the district and is capable of carrying a fine irrigation plant if desired. England & Mellor handled the sale and the consideration is said to have been above the $21,000 mark.

FINDS FRIENDS

Ex-Congressman Rainey, of Illinois, spoke at the Chautauqua last Saturday evening, and his lecture was a real treat. Mr. Rainey is well versed in governmental affairs and knows his subject. The Prangers, of this city and Leitsville, were in to hear Rainey, they having been supporters of the gentleman for years when they resided back at Carlinville, Ill. They had quite a visit during Rainey's short stay here and the distinguished visitor was very pleased to find some real "home folks" out here in Oregon.

Clell B. Carstens, of Banks, was a county seat caller Monday.
