

A pipe's a pal packed with P. A.!

Seven days out of every week you'll get real smoke joy and real smoke contentment—if you'll get close-up to a jimmy pipe! Buy one and know that for yourself! Packed with cool, delightful, fragrant Prince Albert, a pipe's the greatest treat, the happiest and most appetizing smokeslant you ever had handed out!

You can chum it with a pipe—and you will—once you know that Prince Albert is free from bite and parch! (Cut out by our exclusive patented process!) Why—every puff of P. A. makes you want two more; every puff hits the bullseye harder and truer than the last! You can't resist such delight!

And, you'll get the smokesurprise of your life when you roll up a cigarette with Prince Albert! Such enticing flavor you never did know! And, P. A. stays put because it's crimp cut—and it's a cinch to roll! You try it!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

Prince Albert is sold in tippy red bags; tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors and in the pound crystal glass humidors with sponge moistener top.

Mrs. Hazel McCormick has sued Warren W. McCormick for divorce. She alleges they were married at Vancouver, Wn., in 1916, and that the husband is guilty of cruel and inhuman conduct. She swears that he has been surly and rude to her, has lied to her, that he is improvident, and she was forced to go out and make her own living. The complaint also charges that the husband was discharged from the Portland police force because of his unreliability.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bridges, of Oak Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson, of Hillsboro, returned Sunday from a camping trip to the Tillamook beaches and Seaside, making the trip over in the Bridges car. They report a fine time and Sam is now filing the sight on his gun to go out and get that venison.

Rev. H. A. Deek, who has been at Bethlehem, Pa., for some weeks, where he was called on account of the illness of a relative, will be back in his pulpit at the Cong. church this coming.

J. H. Gray, of east of town, was a caller Monday. He is getting ready to go out in the hills and duplicate his experience of two bucks as a result of his 1920 hunting.

Geo. H. Ward, for thirty years with the Hearst newspapers, now with the American, at Chicago, was the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Auld, of near Oreoco. In company with the Aulds, Mr. Ward visited Hillsboro Monday morning, and they made a pleasant call at the Argus office. Mrs. Auld is a daughter of Mr. Ward.

Many a good, capable man passes a whole lifetime without ever learning the VALUE OF DRESSING WELL.

When you go to hunt work, the very first thing the man you ask for a position sees and judges you by, is your CLOTHES.

How else can he first judge you? They are the sign to him of your success or failure. No man wants to hire a failure.

This is a serious, earnest talk we wish to make to deserving men whether they buy their clothes from us or not.

Wear our good, "Nifty" clothes.

W. W. Boscow

When in need of a monument, marker, or posts, or cemetery work of any nature, whether purchased by yourself or thru the Woodmen or any lodge it will be to your interest to consult Lewis & Co., as they will give you a better monument, etc., than can be purchased for the money any where else—in fact they can save you considerable on any purchase.

John R. Bailey, of Huston, returned from Portland Friday and spent the day in the city. He has a fairly good crop of prunes this year and will harvest the 30 acres inside of three or four weeks time. Years ago Mr. Bailey and the late David Corwin were working together in Hillsboro, and he was deeply grieved to hear of the death of his friend.

The A. H. Rasmussens and A. H. Morgans returned the last of the week from a trip to Pacific City, Rockaway and Seaside, motoring the trip. At Seaside last Friday Rasmussen came near losing his car on the beach—it taking some quick work to save it from washing out to sea.

The development of Motor Transportation

There have been many contributing factors in the development of motor transportation; the perfecting of the motor car in comfort and dependability; the construction of smooth durable highways; the production of a motor fuel—Red Crown gasoline—which meets every test of power and mileage; and finally, the Standard Oil Service Stations at convenient locations, making Red Crown gasoline readily available to motorists.

Look for Standard Oil Service Stations and for the Red Crown sign at garages, service stations, and other dealers. There you will be able to get good service with Red Crown gasoline.
